Killed in Their Bed.

Special Dispatch to The Bee.

GENESEO, Ill., December 13, 1 a. m.—Saturday morning this community was startled by the report that Thos. Dilly and wife, living ten miles southeast of this city, had been murdered in their bed. Officers went to the scene of the tragedy and found Mr. Dilly dead, and his wife fatally injured. He was shot in his right eye, and his wife's skull was fractured, and she was otherwise mangled, her brains running out on the pillow. The family had been on last Thursday evening, and the murderer, or murderers, had secreted themselves in the house, and as soon as Dilly and his family returned, the foul deed was committed. Mrs. Dilly was beaten over the head and breast with a shovel handle, and was terrible to look at. She cannot live. Their little twelve year old girl, who slept in the next room, saw a man light a lamp in her parents' room and go to the bureau, but thinking it was her father, she lay down and felt asleep. Soon after she was awakened by the groans of her mother, and called to her, but received no reply. She then went into the room and found them as stated. She dressed herself and her two younger brothers and went three-quarters of a mile for assistance. Mr. Dilly was a prosperous farmer. No clue to the perpetrators can be assigned. Considerable jewelry was in the bureau, but only two watches were stolen, while Mr. Dilly's pants laid beside the bed with the money in the pockets untouched.

Cabinet Speculations.

Special Dispatch to The Bee.

CHICAGO, December 12—10 p. m.—A private letter was received here yesterday from a confidential friend of Gen. Garfield, in Washington. He says a western man will be made secretary of the treasury, and that James F. Wilson, of Iowa, is the most probable man for the place. Also that Senator Blaine has been offered his choice of the cabinet positions, and will be given to February 1st to decide, and that he will probably take the secretary of state, while Levi P. Morton will probably be made secretary of the navy. The southern or democratic states will probably be represented in the cabinet by Chauncy I. Filley, of St. Louis, as postmaster general. It has been decided to give the Pacific coast a representative in the cabinet, and Senator Booth will probably be the man.

Marine Mishaps.

Special Dispatch to The Bee.

NEW YORK, December 13—1 a. m.—The steamship "Mosel," of the North German Lloyd line, from Bremen, arrived in port on Sunday, after a perilous voyage. She brought 500 passengers. On December 10, late in the evening, the steamer sighted a vessel flying signals of distress, and bore down for her. The vessel proved to be a White Star steamer disabled. Her captain requested the "Mosel" to tow his vessel into New York, which was about 600 miles. The captain of the "Mosel" said in reply that the "Mosel" had only sufficient capacity to make the trip herself, and would consequently be unable to render any assistance. As it was growing dark, the steamers were drifting apart, the "Mosel" told the disabled steamer to send a boat. After waiting till it had grown dark, and seeing nothing of the expected boat, the "Mosel" put upon her course for New York, leaving the disabled steamer behind. The disabled steamer is known to be the White Star steamer "Republic." Officers of the "Mosel" are very reticent in giving information on the subject, and profess not to know the name of the steamer abandoned, and information and name of the steamer was accidently obtained from members of the crew. There will probably be an investigation of the conduct of the "Mosel" captain. The extent of the "Republic's" mishap is not known, though she is described by seaman of the "Mosel" as wallowing apparently helpless in the heavy sea with only a few sails set. She carries a number of passengers. She is a stout ship, and little apprehension is felt as to her safety.

The "Faraday," Captain Maypee, arrived here Sunday in a disabled condition, after a singularly stormy passage. On December 10th the shaft of her port propeller broke off outside of the stern, carrying with it the screw. The vessel has two propellers and was enabled to make port stern foremost with the remaining screw. She passed on her voyage two wrecked and abandoned barks. In the present dearth of the cable laying business, the "Faraday" will go into the trans-Atlantic trade, and has been specially fitted for grain and beef carrying. She is the largest ship in the trade. Her recent voyage was one successions of storms, which kept her twenty days at sea.

The "City of Richmond," of the Inman line, arrived Sunday with 800 saloon and a number of steerage passengers. The last three days of her trip she was driven towards New York before a gale at the rate of seventeen miles an hour, and was thus enabled to make port ahead of time.

Two More Revenue Officers Killed.

Special Dispatch to The Bee

LOUISVILLE, Ky., December 12—10 p. m.—A dispatch from Nashville to The Commercial says: Capt. J. M. Davis, deputy collector, was killed by moonshiners in the eastern part of Putnam county. He, with G. W. Campbell, was sitting on a log writing, when a moonshiner took up a gun, striking Campbell on the head, and then ran away. He soon returned with other moonshiners and shot Davis, killing him instantly. Campbell escaped. Davis was a faithful officer, and had killed several moonshiners for resisting arrest.

WASHINGTON, December 12—10 p. m.—Commissioner Raum received a telegram yesterday from Atlanta, Ga., stating that Deputy Collector Wilcox was shot through the body Friday night while seizing an illicit distillery. Two men were afterwards arrested and the distillery destroyed.

The Obelisk.

Special dispatch to The Bee.

NEW YORK, December 13—1 a. m.—Lieutenant Commander Gorringe is steadily pushing the Egyptian obelisk toward the site for its erection in Central park. It is intended that the obelisk will be placed in its upright position about February 22, and the ceremonies for its unveiling will take place on the afternoon of the 22d, which day being observed as a holiday, will be celebrated by the presence of nearly all the military of the First and Second divisions of the National Guard, and nearly all the Masonic lodges, commanderies and chapters from this and many cities throughout the United States, together with representatives from many schools, colleges and universities.

CONGRESSIONAL WORK DURING THE WEEK.

Special Dispatch to The Bee.

WASHINGTON, December 13—1 a. m.—[illegible] house will succeed during the week which begins to-day [illegible] the tangle caused by the action of the republican joint caucus on the Morgan resolution. To fight or not to fight is the question presented to the democrats, and at present it looks very much as though the battle would occur. It is probable that a caucus will be necessary to ascertain the sentiment of the democratic members regarding the Morgan resolution. If they are to insist upon their rights as a majority to decide what legislation shall be had, concerted and harmonious action is necessary. If they yield to the demand of the republicans, that the Morgan resolution shall be thrown into the waste basket, they will undoubtedly desire to back down in good form, and without an excess of debate. If it were not for the fact that the present session was such a short one, and the last in which the democrats will be in the majority for at least two years, a desperate fight would be made on the issue raised by the republicans. The fear of an extra session, from some inexplicable reason, also seems to bear strong upon the democrats. Another argument which many democrats are using, as an excuse for avoiding a political contest now, is the amount of important public business which is of greater moment to democratic interests than a fight upon a question which possesses no importance.

Mr. Atkin will endeavor to-day to call up the fortification appropriation bill and pass it. The military academy and pension bills will be ready for action as soon as the fortification bill is disposed of. The refunding bill will then come up to contest precedence with the Morgan rule, which Judge Becknell desires to press for immediate action, as the resolution has been decided to be a question of privilege. It will take precedence of the refunding bill, and then a dreary debate or tedious spell of filibustering may be anticipated. Not a few of the democrats have been highly indignant over the policy adopted by the republicans.

Payne Scouting on the Border.

Special Dispatch to The Bee.

CHICAGO, December 13, 1 a. m.—The following dispatch, from Gen. Pope to Gen. Sheridan, gives the latest regarding the Oklahoma raid, from a military point of view:

FORT LEAVENWORTH, Kas., Dec. 11.

Payne and his followers, of whom there are perhaps two hundred, with sixty or seventy wagons, made no attempt yesterday to cross the Indian territory line, south of Arkansas City, in the face of the cavalry company, but broke camp and moved westward along and north of the line to a point sixteen miles west of Arkansas City, where they are now camped. The cavalry company marched abreast of them and camped opposite to them. Payne and his men made many threats, but so far have not attempted to enter the territory. Some small parties are said to have gone in at several points. Capt. Randall was ordered to move gradually forward against Payne to Arkansas City, and also Lieutenant Caldwell with three cavalry companies. He was at Oklahomo, ninety miles south of Arkansas City, and will pick up en route any small party that may have entered.

Ashes of Roses.

Special Dispatch to The Bee

HUDSON, N. Y., December 12—1 a. m.—Jay Gould's conservatory, this countryseat here, was burned yesterday morning. It was the most magnificent structure of the kind in the United States. Estimated loss, $100,000.

FOREIGN EVENTS.

BENT ON MATRIMONY.

Special Dispatch to The Bee.

LONDON, December 13—1 a. m.—The current reports that the marriage of Mr. Bartlett and the Baroness Burdette Coutts will not take place, are wholly unfounded. Baroness Burdette Coutts' intimate friends say she is fully resolved to complete the alliance, regardless of her pecuniary loss. Preparations for moving from her present home, which is the property of the Coutts Bank, have already advanced. It is privately hinted that the wedding will occur next week. The Baroness lately told a peer that the judicial decision on her money matters may eventually come before him, being resolved, although indifferent to wealth, to maintain what she believes to be her rights, and leave the proceedings to the house of lords for final decision. It is estimated that her remaining yearly income, after an adverse decision, would be $200,000.

ELECTRIC BRIEFS.

Special Dispatches to The Bee.

F. L. Almy, a book-keeper in the wholesale grocery house of E. S. Smith & Co., of Boston, confessed that he had embezzled over five thousand dollars of the firm's money. He was just married a short time ago, and the whereabouts of his young wife at present is not known. High life is the cause of the trouble.

The handsome $70,000 residence of J. S. Jenkins, considered the finest in Baltimore, was totally destroyed by fire, between five and six o'clock Sunday morning. The fire is thought to have originated from the fire-place. Two negroes, who were sleeping in one of the upper stories, finding their escape cut off by the stairway, jumped from a dormer window, and were killed.

Engineer Bently, of the Erie rail road, was caught between two cars at Buffalo, Saturday night, and instantly killed, his head being completely severed from his body.

P. T. Barnum is rapidly improving.

Two negro children at Memphis, Tenn., were burned to death this morning. Their parents locked them in the room and went to work.

Stella Schwab, of Baltimore, aged two years, was roasted alive this morning by the bursting of a stove.

E. W. Fuller, of Columbus, O., attempted so drive a buggy, occupied by himself and lady, across the rail road track, on Friday night in front of an express train. Result, the lady has a broken shoulder blade and Fuller is uninjured.

Benjamin J. Wagner, a Pottsville, Pa., farmer, was frozen to death Friday in his wagon when within sight of home.

At Minneapolis, John Riley, accused of the attempted assassination of Judge Page, was bound over for trial this morning in the sum of $6000.

The extensive saw factory of Richardson Bros., at Newark, N. J., was burned to the ground this morning. One hundred and eighty hands are thrown out of employment. Loss, $70,000.

The New York bank statement for the week is favorable.

An express and mail train on the Louisville short line caught fire from a stove this morning, and the express and mail car were completely destoyed. Loss, $50,000.

A row occurred last night in a negro gambling den on Fourth avenue, Chicago, over a game of "craps." A negro named Sam Cole, who was only a spectator, was fatally shot.

Capt. James A. Wise, the well-known steambort owner, was knocked down and robbed in Cincinnati last night, and is lying in a dangerous condition.

Secretary of Navy Thompson has accepted the position offered him by the Panama canal company.

All but two of the overdue steamers have arrived in New York.

which has met with such unqualified success, and unbounded enthusiasm in Chicago, St. Louis, New York, and all the principal cities of the country. Entire new and beautiful scenery carried by the combination in a special car. Startling and novel effects, including "A Ship-wreck on the Reef," "A Rain Storm of real Water," "A Mill in Full Operation." New calcium and Hydraulic effects. Everything transported and made expressly for the great combination. The dramatic company is composed of the very best talent in the dramatic profession, a number of whom were in the original production of the piece in New York and Chicago. The management take great pleasure in announcing that they have engaged the services of Mr. Frank E. Pierce, who has made a national reputation in the part of "OLD DICK SORLEY," and who has received the highest praise that the leading papers could bestow. Mr. Pierce will be supported by the following ladies and gentlemen: Miss Flora Newton, Mrs. Mary Eaton, Miss Edith Ellis, Mr. W. D Barron, Mr. Julius Scott, Mr. J. Ray McCune and William King. T. Denier, and the great and only "BABY." We challenge the world to produce its equal. It has been the wonder and admiration of countless thousands, and its cunning antics and winning manners have delighted all who have seen it. The scenery carried by this company was painted expressly by Messrs. Pettibone & Tripp, of Hooley's Theatre, Chicago.
