THE SECOND ADVENT.

His Majesty King Kalakaua Coming to Omaha Next February.

From his excellency, Col. Champion S. Chase, mayor of the city of Omaha we learn that his royal highness, King David Kalakaua, of the Hawaiian Islands, will pay a second visit to the United States in February next, and that he will do himself the pleasure, and our city the honor, of sojourning a few days in our midst, where he will be the guest of personal friends here.

Friday's Bee contained a communication referring to the agency of the Hallet & Davis pianos in this city, and endeavoring to place me in a false position before the public.

I had an established agency of the Fisher, James & Holstrom, Chase and Chickering pianos, but after considerable urging I consented to take two of the Hallet & Davis make, which were shipped to me from the warehouses of the company on the 19th of October.

AN ENTERPRISING FIRM,

And a Growing Business.

"Edholm & Erickson," a name now familiar to all our citizens and, in fact, to the state and the entire west—a name which, two short years ago, was unknown even in this immediate vicinity.

WHAT THE MOON SAW.

The Third Big Fire Within the Radius of a Block About the Old Grand Central.

About midnight Saturday night, a fire was discovered in the rear of De Groat & Co.'s hat store, 1316 Farnham street, just opposite the scene of the Her-Collins conflagration of Tuesday night.

When first seen it was not six feet in diameter, and could have been put out with a few buckets of water had they been at hand.

It was impossible to save any of De Groat's stock of hats, caps and furs, or of Lang's boots and shoes, from the fact that to open the doors would have created a draught through the building that would have endangered the entire row.

The most deplorable loss of all, was that involving Frank Currier's photograph gallery, and this is one which cannot be estimated in dollars and cents.

Mr. Currier slept in the front room, and awoke to find himself suffocating from smoke and escape possible only by immediate flight.

The fire was a peculiar one and "would not down," but when apparently subdued would burst forth with renewed fury.

ITS HEART IN FLAMES.

The Threatened Conflagration at the State Capitol.

There has been considerable excitement in town Saturday on the subject of the Lincoln fire, which occurred Friday night, but which was not nearly so serious as was at first reported.

At a quarter to one o'clock this morning an alarm of fire was sounded from the engine house, and very soon it was discovered that the rear part of George Lee's building was in flames.

The building occupied by George Lee was used before for an auction and store-room, and above for living apartments.

The building on the south was occupied by Mr. Wm. McLaughlin as a saloon and liquor store.

The building on the north, and above by Mr. Roberts as an undertaker's establishment, was almost totally destroyed.
