THE UNIVERSITY. The last general assembly appropriated $50,000 for the purpose of defraying the expenses of the state university and agricultural land. A special fund had been created for the same purpose, and the auditor therefore considered it his duty to refuse payment from the general fund.

STATE DEBT. In view of the evident neglect of official duty indicated by the above statement, I trust that you will endeavor to secure by suitable legislation, a more thorough collection of the revenues, according to the spirit and purpose of sec. 1, art. 9, of the constitution, so that every person and corporation shall pay a tax in proportion to the value of his, her or its property and franchises.

LEIDTKE'S LOSS. On the 29th day of July, 1880, I became aware of the fact, from official correspondence with the auditor and treasurer, that the state auditor, F. W. Leidtke, has failed to comply with the requirements of the law compelling officers of the executive department to pay into the treasury all fees collected in their respective offices, and that the amount, according to his connection with his duties relating to insurance had been withheld and used as a personal perquisite.
