I like the type and admire the anti-monopoly principles, and think if all the papers in the state would advocate the same principles the people would be awakened to a sense of their misery and try to do something. Mr. Editor: DEAR SIR-I received the set of Dickens' Works awarded me from your distribution of premiums, and was somewhat surprised when I saw them; they were so much better than I expected I think that the distribution was conducted in an honest manner. I am not speaking this way because I was lucky enough to draw one of the large premiums, but from the manner in which all the premiums were distributed throughout the country. And again, if it had not been conducted in a straightforward manner, it would have had a great tendency in destroying the future prosperity of THE BEE. * * * I would like to say more in favor of your paper, but must conclude with expressing my best wishes for the success of your paper and yourselves.
