WASHINGTON. The Senate Confirms the President's Nominations Unanimously. General Hancock is Extended the Privileges of the Senate. The White House Overrun with Visitors. CAPITAL NOTES. The Ex-President's Departure. WASHINGTON, March 6-1 a. m.—Senators Blaine and Kirkwood forwarded resolutions to the governor of the state Saturday. The Maine legislature will doubtless elect Egan Blaine's successor. The Iowa legislature is not in session. The governor will probably appoint James F. Wilson to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Senator Winslow. It is thought the extension will all through this week. It has not been definitely settled when the committee will report. It may be done today. Senator Cameron, Gen. Schenck and Ex-Senator Harlan dined at the White House yesterday evening. On motion of Senator Harlan the privileges of the senate were offered to Gen. Hancock during his stay in Washington. Gen. Hancock attended New York Avenue Presbyterian church Sunday, and in the afternoon made several calls. He left for New York on the 10 o'clock train last night. The death of Carpenter and the senators selected for cabinet positions, leave the democrats free to organize the cabinet they desire. The president's mother and Mrs. Garfield attended church at New York Avenue Christian church yesterday. They arrived late, and were met by a large crowd. Chaplain Miller preached the discourse. Soon after daylight Saturday morning people began coming towards the White House, and before the president had finished breakfast the driveway was lined with people. Admittance was demanded but the entrance remained closed. At 9:30 the president and Mrs. Garfield took up position in the rear room for the reception of guests. At 11 a. m. the crowd pressed so hard that the door was forced open, and shortly after Senators Blaine and Winthrop called, and were escorted with the president for lunch.

RECKLESS RAILROADING. The Train Bearing the ex-President and Party is Wrecked, and the Occupants of the Special Car Escape Uninjured. The train bearing the ex-president, Mrs. Hayes and party, was wrecked in getting shore in their own boats. Polished Panels. Gafield's Cabinet Complete and Sent to the Senate for Approval. The Plumed Knight Appointed Chief of Staff and State. The Capital Still Robbed in Remnants of the Holiday. Valent Multitudes Pressing Palms With the President. The Senate's Session. WASHINGTON, March 5.—The senate was in session but a few minutes when called to order at 12 o'clock, but took a recess at 3 o'clock, which hour it is understood among senators that the cabinet nominations will be called to order.

FOREIGN NEWS. Law and Order Give Place to Plunder and Pillage in Peru. A French Newspaper Attacks Parnell for His Meddling in Peru. Turkey and Greece Perfecting their Armaments. An Earthquake Devastates a City in Italy. WAR AT AN END. LONDON, March 7.—A Vienna correspondent says: "No further intelligence has been received here as to the proceedings of the subscribers in Constantinople. All that can be learned is that their services are kept secretly secret. The Mohammedans of Preslava have positioned the great powers to leave that place under Turkish rule. They are also sending numerous volunteers to Anatolia. Neither, likewise, volunteers are fleeing from Albania. It is learned from Constantinople that the Greek army of 150,000 men has been completely fortified with stand batteries. A large number of Turkish troops have been assembled there, a party of whom are shortly to be sent to the front. They are also sending numerous volunteers to Anatolia. Neither, likewise, volunteers are fleeing from Albania. It is learned from Constantinople that the Greek army of 150,000 men has been completely fortified with stand batteries.

THE NEW CABINET. HOW GARFIELD'S CHOICE IS RECEIVED IN CHICAGO. CHICAGO, Ill., March 7.—A. m.—The Chicago press, and the people generally, are well pleased with the selection of the new cabinet, and in respect to the geographical representation. The fact that the great west is given three of the most important portfolios—the department of interior, the department of agriculture and the department of justice—is accepted as an indication that President Garfield will accord the western half of the republic its due weight of attention. The appointment of Robert Lincoln and ex-Gov. Kirkwood appears to be particularly pleasing. The papers are saying that the new cabinet is a representative one. The fact that the great west is given three of the most important portfolios—the department of interior, the department of agriculture and the department of justice—is accepted as an indication that President Garfield will accord the western half of the republic its due weight of attention.

MATER BADLY MAULED. Sara Bernhard's Manager Thumped on a Train. WASHINGTON, March 5.—A dispatch from Kansas says: "There is much talk here of a scandalous affair which has taken place at the residence of Sara Bernhard, the manager of the Omaha railroad. It is said that she was badly mauled by her husband, the manager of the railroad, on the train which was wrecked at the junction of the Omaha and Missouri Pacific railroads.
