WASHINGTON. The Mahone-Voorhees Encounter is the All-Absorbing Topic Among Politicians.

Loring of Bosting Named for the Agricultural Bureau.

Royal Roscoe Auxious to Measure His Mettle with Jeems the Fifth

Washington, April 3-10 p. m. -The topic of Sunday's conversation in the hotels and where public men have met has been the encounter in the senate between Senators Mahone and Voornees and the pro-p-cts of its renewal. Joking saide, there is certainly an element in Washington to ciety who seriously considered the probab lity that the chivalrous blood made to it in the senate. Mahone still refuses to see any on but his family, but this is his usual Sunday custom, and Mr. Voorhees peremplorily declined to be inter-viewed. The friends of each talk freely on the subject. Republicant and democrate a tike agree that Voor-hees did a manly set in disclaiming any personalities of the article read, as he did it to avoid personal feeling, and that if he had let the matter rest then all would have been well. His taunt that the senstorneed not think of coercing from him anything, was what aroused the Varginian's ire, and Senator Mahone's persisting alone called out from Mr. Voorhees the epithet, "Unworthy the utterance of any brave or honorable mau." Among ments 4000 head. the republicans are many who think Senator Mahone might have rested satisfied with "the Tall Sycamore's" original disclaimer of personalities, but his friends insist that he was right in "talking back" when his opponent began to speak of coercion. The demcrats think Voorhees man enough in judgment, as well as in valor, to take @1 03\frac{1}{2}.

Outshe will not refer to the matter again in the senate. The republicans will no doubt try to keep Mahone in the back ground after this, and whether they can keep him still remains to be

CAPITAL NOTES.

It is stated very positively that Dr. Loring, of Massachusetts, will be appointed commissioner of agriculture in the place of Le Due, to be retired. A reporter inquired of several dem-coratic senators if they contemplated a caucus soon. The reply from all of them was in the negative. The democrats have no interest in the nomine tions. They are just as willing to see the present incumbents of the offices continue as to put in new ones, and, in short, the democrate are united in a policy, and there is no occasion for

Senstor Conkling still remains allent on the sut j ct of the pending contest in the senate, but his voice will be heard in the republican cau-cus. If he insists on maintaining the dead lock he can probably control the matter, but one of his friends said today that he was not anxious to postpone the opening of the fight with the administration, and that the senate and the prople would soon be made

A caucus of the republicans has at $10 80. been called for Monday at 10 a. m., when the dead lock will be discussed It is rumored that the president ad vises the republicans to act on the nomirations first and then make their fight over the the election of officers. This phase of the question will come before the caucus Menday. United States Marshal Pitkin, of Louisiana, thinks his chances good for the Mexican mission. In addition to strong political backers, the ex-marshal is endorsed by the leading busiiness firms of New O leans.

Judge Riddleberger says that Senstor Mahoue does not care to proceed further in the controversy between himself and Senator Voorhees, and ther fore Mr. Riddleberger is confi-dent that no more will be said on the subj os. All the parties to the lively discussion in the senate Friday sem anxious that nothing further shall be Secretary Blaine gave a reception Saturday night to the diplomatic corps, members of the cabinet new in the city and many senators. There was a large attendance.
