SENATE.
Special Dispatch to The Bee.
WASHINGTON, April 11.—No caucus was held by either side of the senate this morning.

Mr. Edmunds occupied his seat for the first time in three weeks.

On a motion to proceed to the consideration of executive business, the vote was, yeas 19, nays 20, just a quorum voting.

At 12:25 p. m. Mr. Call, of Florida, resumed the floor to proceed with the speech begun by him last Thursday.

He took up the original point that was at issue for the Massachusetts senator to attack the free ballot in the south under their own conditions disfranchised so free as to be continually interrupted by Messrs.
Hoar and Dawes, who tried to put their suffragage in a right light. He also cited the acknowledged inequality of legislative representation in Connecticut, and the circumstances in Vermont and Rhode Island as inconsistent with the present issue of free ballot. Mr. Call spoke for justice an hour.

Mr. Dawes, in replying, alleged that the only possible objectionable qualification in his case was that each voter should read and write. Her schools were free and we could learn if we wished, and new comers, being obliged to remain a year before they had ample time to avail themselves of this requirement.

Mr. Camden followed, reading his speech in the most audible tone, in defense of West Virginia's position in relation to the public debt of the old state of Virginia. He endeavored to show that the republicanism which he shared in the same issue of free ballot.

Mr. Cameron followed Mr. Camden in a short speech, referring to Mr.
Buck's recent remarks on the failure of the Pennsylvania legislature to enforce the action of its senators, and read a resolution passed by the Pen-sylvania legislature in contradiction of the latter.

Mr. Beck replied that he recognized the power to have accomplished by telegram what he had thought personal presence would have been necessary.

Mr. Vest then took the floor. He denied Mr. Sherman's statement that the will of the majority was supreme.
The minority, he pointed out, has the right of debate, and this one meant to exercise them, if it took until December. He referred also to the republican coalition with a radical adjuster, and expressed especial wonder that the late secretary of the treasury should support those who sympathized with the administration to remove the government officials at Petersburg, Va., during his term of office. The speaker read the correspondence between Commissioner Linn and J. H. Van Anken, tobacco inspector at Petersburg, Va., in which Van Anken's sympathizing with the rebels is referred to as criminal conduct, and in which Van Anken replied with an explosion which the late secretary of the treasury finally considered satisfactory.

Mr. Vest continued that a voice from heaven, or some other direction, must have come to the senator from Ohio to cause him to now wish to take a platform in his own hands.
The president of the United States was a Riddlerberg. Such an un-dignified alliance has never been seen outside of the bridal chamber, where Hymen draws the mystic veil. Republicans are able to swallow repudiation, down elimination and embark on readjustment, if we will only give them a free ballot and an honest count.

A horrible murder was committed at Wheeler's Crossing, near Mayfield, last Saturday night. Kitty Fringle, a colored girl, about fourteen years of age, was on her way to a party at Mayfield depot, in company with Ned Jones, a colored youth, aged about twenty-one, the girl's mother and several others, who had reached the lane crossing of the Mason & Augusta railroad, a gun shot was fired from the right hand corner, taking effect in Kitty's collar bone to the right of the spine, and causing her to come out near the lower part of her shoulder in the back. Death immediately followed. A colored man named Walter Thomas was arrested for the murder. It is believed he intended the shot for Ned Jones.

PORK MARKET.
Special Dispatch to The Bee.
CHICAGO, April 11.—The provision market continues high. Pork opened this morning at $17.50, making a decline of 10 cents per barrel from Saturday's close, but soon reacted, and under a spirited demand during the first half hour, advanced to $17.75, for both May and June options, and advanced 12 1/2 cents, and short rib sides, 20 to 25 cents per 100 pounds.
There is great excitement in the provision ring. It is claimed a corner in pork is being manipulated by Peter McGeoch, of Milwaukee, who is backed by the funds of Alexander Mitchell, the railroad king.

this morning. Conversations have been had with a number of friends,

A NEW TRIPLE ALLIANCE.
Special Dispatch to The Bee.

consider the land bill, and determine if possible upon some course of united action in regard thereto.
The meeting is convoked not only by the primate archbishop of Armagh but by Arch-Bishop McCabe, of Dublin. It is assumed that he must have been specially empowered by the pope to exercise this act of authority which he could not do under ordinary circumstances.
