Culbertson.

CULBERTSON, Neb., May 2, 1881 .-As many are looking to our state for homes this year, I thought a word from Hitchcock county might prove interesting to your eastern readers. Republican river runs through the county, near the center from west to east. Frenchman river runs a southeasterly direction, and forms a junction with the Republican near the eastern boundary. Numerous small streams empty their waters into the river. Along the stream is plenty of timber for fuel and building purposes. To all Sportsmen I will say the waters afford abundance of fish. Farmers have put in quite a large crop this Wheat stands about seven inches in height, and is of a very rich color. All kinds of veretables growing in splendld condition. There have not been any very heavy storms this spring, but many gentle showers.

The prospect could not be more favorable for an abundant harvest. Everyone seems happy, stock men ra well as farmers. Loss of stock is estimated at from 5 to 10 per cent, and feed is the best known for years at this season. Along the creeks gass stands from five to ten inches in height.

The railroad reaches the east line of the county. CHILD MURDER. A Colored Babe Found Dead in a Door-Yard.

At an early hour yesterday Mr W. H. Powers, engineer of the Omaha foundry and machine company, residing at 1217 Davenport street, found The county has had four murder in his door-yard, close to the fence, cases on hand at a single term, and the dead body of a newly born male colored infant, which had either been of assault with intent to kill, for eight dropped over the fence or thrust under from the walk outside. There was every indication that the child had been fully developed, and though no marks of violence were found upon it, It was evident that rough treatment or exposure might have killed it. Mr. Powers gave prompt notice of the finding of the child to Coroner Jacobs, who took it in charge and notified the district attorney of the fact. The latter ordered an inquest, which was held at 3 p. m. Several colored families live within short distance of Mr. Power's house. but no circumstances have yet been discovered which point to any one and no cires have been found by the police. From the circumstances. however, it is probable that the guilty parties will be detected.

THE INQUEST. An inquest on the dead infant was held at Coroner Jacoba' office at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The following jury were summoned: L. Poland, foreman; C. H. Withnell, V. Burkley, W. P. Snowden, Henry Siert, Michael Mallen. The most important evidence in the case was given by Dr. P. M. Chadwick, who testi-fied that the child had been allve and, in his opinion, death was caused by strangulation.

The jury rendered the verdict that the deceased child came to his death from suffocation supposed to have been produced by some person or persons Up to a late hour last evening further facts had been obtained in the case and the police were still in the

Is this Proper Punishment or Is It Brutal and Inhuman?

Tue Bee recorded a day or two since the arrest and confinement in the county jail of some thirteen tramps, who were for several days to have a diet of bread and water. On being taken to the jail the tramps were divided into two gangs, the seven most repulsive and brutish being placed together in one cell and the remainder in another. gang of the odd number were quite ugly, and on entering their cell, proceeded by such means as WANTED-Situation as housekeeper. Apwere in their power to make MRS. JOHN CANE. 798-6 it as filthy and nasty as themselves, spitting upon the walls and ceiling, and in other ways rendering it offensive. Jailor Miller finally informed his charges that they "had better stop," but without effect. A short time after three of the county prisoners were called from their cells to do duty at the pumps, and the jailor proceeded with a hose to "clean up" the cell of the obdurate tramps, the latter meanwhile remaining inside. The stream was a powerful one. and more of it was turned upon the inmates of the cell than upon the walls. Occasionally the stream struck square in a man's face, in his ear or neck, and as he howled and ach or arm pit. After this amusement had been continued for some time, the pumps were stopped, and the tramps left in their cell, wet, cheerless and cold, until the next morning, when most of them were chilled through and shivering, and could scarcely speak. The jailor had his fun, and a good many would no doubt be glad if at the same time the tramps had all "taken their deaths" of cold. But the county jailor is in a responsible position and it may be well to notice that his sport was not only inhuman but that it was in violation of the law, which espe-
