At this the neighbors took charge of the case. On entering the house the sight which met their gaze was sickening. The place was in the most filthy condition, and the corpse, which lay on the bed, was in a horrible state. A dead cat was found under the bed, and chickens sat perched upon the bed posts. Harrington said that he had not even money enough to buy candles for the wake. As the body was being prepared for burial $50 in bills was found sewed to a garment under the arm. A
