COMPROMISE OR CROAK.

This is The Advice Offered by The Half Breeds to The Stalwarts.

One Stalwart May Be Elected But Not Conkling or Platt.

Jacobs Withdraws from the Contest on Account of His Ineligibility.

The Half-Breeds Resolve to Carry Out the Lapham Programme.

A Lively Row in The Democratic Camp.

A COMPROMISE PROPOSED.

ALBANY, N. Y., June 22.—Immediately after the adjournment of the investigating committee this morning, the half-breeds held a caucus in which they agreed upon a program that upon the meeting of the joint convention and before the balloting began Senator Lynde should arise to a question of privilege, and announce a proposition by the half-breeds for a compromise; that they would vote solely for one half-breed and one stalwart, the half-breed to be Depew and the stalwart any one but Conkling or Platt, but that they would not vote for either of those if the deal was maintained until December 31st.

In order to prove the sincerity, Ex-vice president Wheeler was withdrawn and a half breed commissioner was sent around to consult with half breed members, instructing them to concentrate on any stalwart except Conkling or Platt. Wheeler's representative agreed to compromise after telegraphic communication with Wheeler, and Lapham was selected as the agent and then instructed by Robertson to notify all half breeds of the intended programme. This agent says that the proposition meets with enthusiastic endorsement from all the half breeds, which shows that they do not desire to control the senatorial election, but are willing to compromise in the interests of the party.

THE JOINT CONVENTION.

ALBANY, N. Y., June 22.—The joint conference resumed session at noon. The half breeds decided to postpone the Lapham programme until after the first ballot to test their strength.

FIRST BALLOT FOR CONKLING. The total official joint ballot for a successor to Conkling: Wheeler 40, Jacobs 52, Fay 1, Bradley 1, Lapham 1, Cornell 2, Rogers 1, Conkling 32. Total 155.

FIRST BALLOT FOR PLATT. Total official joint ballot for successor to Platt: Depew 52, Kernan 53, Platt 26, Lapham 8, Wheeler 3, Crowley 7, Cornell 8, Bliss 1, Treanin 1, Rogers 1. Total 153.

After the first ballot, Assemblyman Chickering, of Lewis, offered a resolution that when the joint convention adjourned to-day, it adjourn to meet tomorrow with closed doors to sit without adjournment till two republican senators be elected. In the interval no leaves of absence is to be granted, no pairing to be allowed, no substitute to be allowed by the members or senators except bread and water, until the election had been had. [Laughter].

SECOND BALLOT FOR CONKLING. The second senate ballot for successor to Conkling resulted: Conkling 7, Wheeler 11, Jacobs 56, Bradley 1, Lapham 3, Cornell 1, Folger 1. Total 80.

Declared out of order and withdrawn. The second assembly ballot for a successor to Conkling, resulted: Conkling 22, Jacobs 45, Wheeler 36, Lapham 13, Cornell 1, Daniels 11. Total 118.

A hot discussion ensued pending the call of the second ballot, and great consternation was created because of the announcement by Senator Fowler, democrat, that it had been decided best to withdraw John C. Jacobs, the democratic candidate, because of the question raised as to the eligibility of Jacobs on account of holding office under the state government, namely, that of state senator and that if he should get a majority of the ballots the republicans would probably attempt to cheat him out of his election because of technical points. Therefore it had been decided by the democrats to change their votes to Clarkson N. Potter. The announcement created great excitement.

Among the democrats an extraordinary scene ensued, various members changing their votes to other candidates, prominent among whom were J. N. O'Kelly, Abram S. Hewitt, Jno. T. Hoffman, S. S. Cox and others. Several members objected that they would not change until authorized by a formal caucus that Jacobs' nomination was suspicious. A row ensued between Sharpe and Huntington until the last of next week and then goes with his family to Maine.

He Denies the Fabrication. WASHINGTON, June 22.—A paragraph recently went the rounds of the press purporting to give some disparaging and abusive remarks made by ex-President Hayes about Secretary Blaine. The secretary wrote a note to ex-President Hayes, inquiring the authenticity of the report. Hayes replied at once, concluding: "I have to state that the whole paragraph in which your name occurs is a fabrication and that none of the statements contained in it referring to you were either made or authorized by me since then." [Signed.] R. B. HAYES.

DEMOCRATS IN CAUCUS. In the session of the democratic caucus this afternoon an explanation was demanded of Jacobs why he withdrew from the candidacy. He said he had been informed by republican

FOREIGN EVENTS.

Parnell Will Return to the United States and Stump the Country.

The Abolition of Capital Punishment Defeated in the House of Commons.

Advices from Calcutta Confirm the Death of Abdul Kahn.

PARNELL WILL STUMP AMERICA. LONDON, June 22.—It is said that Parnell will return to the United States and make an extensive stump tour of the country as soon as the land bill has passed through the committee in the house of commons. His speeches will be directed to the advocacy of local home rule for Ireland and the formation of a great confederacy of the kingdom and colonies.

ABOLITION OF CAPITAL PUNISHMENT. In the house of commons to-day Mr. Parnell, member for Whiteby, moved a second reading of the bill for the abolition of capital punishment. After a brief and rather listless debate the house divided on the second reading of the bill and the measure was defeated. The vote was 175 to 70.

ABDUL KHAH'S DEATH CONFIRMED. CALCUTTA, June 22.—The report of the death of Abdul Kahn is now confirmed. The Amcet of Afghanistan has instructed his generals not to lose Kandahar for Zinabke until they are quite certain that Ayoub Khan has left Herat.

ARRESTED. LONDON, June 22.—There have been two arrests at Kilfinn, county of Limerick, under the coercion act. A NEW MINISTER. The conservatives have agreed to let the land bill pass smoothly. Mr. Parnell, in speaking at a meeting in London, last evening, said that the land league would exist after the passing of the land bill, which was a final settlement of the question.

It is again announced that Hon. Lionel Sackville West is to succeed Sir Edward Thornton as British minister to Washington.

WAR PROBABLE. ROME, June 22.—A serious anti-French demonstration occurred at Geneva and Naples to-day. At the latter place many thousand people of all classes paraded the streets crying, "Vive Italia." At the Vatican a war with France is considered probable, and the Pope is very uneasy.

LONDON, June 22.—The census shows a population in the United Kingdom of 35,000,000, of which there are a little over 17,000,000 males and nearly 18,000,000 females. The increase in ten years is over 4,000,000.

A Cock and Bull Story. NEW YORK, June 22.—A Batavia special says: The town is filled with great excitement over the discovery of what is believed to be the remains of William Morgan, the man who was alleged to have betrayed the secrets of the Free Masons in his book entitled, "Morgan's Illustrations of Masonry," fifty-five years ago, and who was said to have been abducted and made away with before the work was given to the public.

The bones were found in the town of Pembroke, 11 miles west of Batavia covered with thick layers of rock and dirt. A silver ring with the initials "W. M." on it, and the remains, also a small tin box, which dropped to pieces on being handled. A manuscript was in it bearing the words: "Masons," "Liar," "Prison," "Kill," and the full name "Henry Brown." At the time of Morgan's disappearance Henry Brown was a lawyer in Batavia and a prominent Mason.

He also wrote a book a few years after Morgan's abduction showing how that, although Morgan was abducted, there was no proof he was murdered. If it shall now appear that the body found is accompanied by a threatening letter signed by Brown, the inference will be irresistible that the remains are those of William Morgan, and that Henry Brown the great defender of the Masons of Batavia, was one of the murderers. This discovery bids fair to explode other theories regarding the fate of Morgan.

An Unnatural Mother. MADISON, Wis., June 22.—A servant girl named Augusta Shimming, employed in Dunkirk, this county, was arrested last night for murdering her illegitimate child as soon as born. She was taken sick a few days ago, but refused to allow any one in the room the next day. She left the house, and the stable boy soon discovered the dead body of a baby under the manure pile, and on making the facts known the girl was arrested. She tells many conflicting stories and implicates several respectable farmers. She also acknowledges that this is her fourth child she has put out of the way under similar circumstances.

Secretary Upton Resigns. WASHINGTON, June 22.—Assistant Secretary Treasury Upton before departing for Europe on department business, handed his resignation to Secretary Windom to be acted on as he might wish. Secretary Windom asked him to withdraw it, and stated subsequently that he desired to leave him in charge of the department for a while after his return. The action on the part of Mr. Upton is construed here as a step toward fair dealing. It is positive that his resignation will not be accepted.

Railroad Leased. NATIONAL ASSOCIATED PRESS. CINCINNATI, June 22.—The trustees of the Cincinnati Southern railroad have decided to lease the road and have adopted the form of lease.

DETROIT NOTES.

VAIN ATTEMPT AT LYNNING. The party arrived soon after midnight last night. The sheriff being away the jail was in charge of a deputy, who thinking the marshal had a prisoner opened the door and was immediately seized, and the keys of the jail taken. In getting the key to Vos Camp's cell they soon commenced to batter the door down. Meantime the wife of the sheriff slipped in and locked the door on them, caging six. The hired girl escaped from the guards and rang the fire bell, arousing the citizens, who secured the prisoners. The party are now endeavoring to get bail in the sum of $6,000 each.

The Town of Tombstone Wrapped in Flames—Murder on Shipboard.

Portland Election to be Contested—Three Men Killed by Cow-Boys.

CRUEL COW BOYS. SAN FRANCISCO, June 22.—A dispatch from Tucson says there are reports of a fight between cowboys who left for Sonora and Mexican troops but nothing reliable.

Full particulars have been received at Tombstone of the killing of the Hazitt brothers and a German in Mexico by cowboys. They were surprised by twenty cowboys while playing cards in a saloon at Eureka and had no chance to defend themselves. Bell Hazitt was shot six times through the bowels, Ike twice through the stomach, and the German six times through the body and once through the ankle. Hazitt lived long enough to make his will. As soon as the living ceased, the murderers mounted and rode.

SAN FRANCISCO MAYOR. Republicans will probably nominate Judge Black for mayor, of San Francisco.

TOMBSTONE ALL ABLAZE. A dispatch from Tombstone says the town is all a flame. Everything is swept away north and east of Second and Fifth streets. The fire is still raging.

MURDER ON SHIP-BOARD. A Guaymas dispatch says: W. Monahan, chief engineer of the steamer "Estado de Sonora," was shot and killed by U. P. Wynn, first assistant engineer, on the 7th inst., while at sea, two days before the ship arrived at Mazatlan. Wynn had been drunk several days and broke some machinery while on watch. Monahan suspended him, and Captain Hart, finding the liquor which Wynn had smuggled on board, threw it overboard. Wynn then threatened to kill the captain and the chief engineer, but being afraid of Captain Hart, went after supper to Monahan and begged permission to resume his watch. Upon the chief's refusal he pulled a pistol and fired. The first shot missed, the second tore the flesh from Monahan's arm, the third went through his breast, and the fourth through the stomach and spine. Monahan then fell and expired in twenty minutes. Wynn threw the pistol overboard, and coolly leaned against the bulwark until he was seized by the captain and placed in double irons. The federal authorities in Mazatlan have imprisoned him, but he is to be taken back to Sanblas to be tried.

TO BE CONTESTED. The Portland election is to be contested on the ground of alleged frauds in the second ward.

THE BARGE LINES. Speeches of Hon. W. P. Hepburn, of Iowa, and Senator Van Wyck, of Neb.

(Continued from Sixth Page.) SENATOR VAN WYCK'S SPEECH. Senator Van Wyck, of Nebraska, said he always was glad to hear other people's notions, but at the same time he had his own. This question of the river navigation was growing more serious every year. In the infancy of the country there was no connection except by the water of this stream, and no railroad found its way to it. To-day it has so increased in population and in resources that our present railroads are insufficient, and ten years from now not only will our population be doubled, but the productions then will be double what they are now. Some other means must then be adopted for carrying these increased productions to market. We shall want to double the number of railroads. Fortunately in a convention like this questions may be discussed without fear of imputations being cast on those who meet here on a common platform where there are no party designations, no taunts, no question of capital and labor thrown in, no man taunted with being a stranger or having hay seed in his hair. [Loud laughter.]

This is a question of interest to all the country, to the United States and to other countries who look to us for bread. And when we talk of the expansion it is really but a trifle, a mere bagatelle, whether it takes one million, or five millions, or ten millions to produce this great result. To see that the money that is appropriated is honestly and judiciously expended that is, all this the government has to do.

Look back for a moment and see what has been done in the way of railroads during the last ten years. We

THE MEDICAL LAW.

The bill passed by the last legislature for regulating the practice of medicine was highly commended by the fraternity whose business it affected. In most countries it has been cheerfully complied with, and we have yet to hear of a single instance in which its enforcement has been openly declared against. In an adjoining county, however, an alleged physician who is unable to register regularly under this law is continuing his practice as student of a physician living in another town eighteen miles distant, whom he does not even see once a fortnight. The law was evidently intended to protect the unfortunate public from being made victims of the ill-advised and inexperienced experimenters in medicine, and also to protect the professional fraternity. The student of medicine who also practices is supposed to be guided in all that he does by his superior, but if that superior be not seen oftener than once in a fortnight, very little, if any, good can be obtained from his counsels. The public will interpret such a course as an attempt to evade the law, and it is only right that the physician who thus lends himself to another for the evasion of the law, intended as a protection to his profession, should be discontinued by his fellow practitioners, and his infidelity made public to the world.
