THE LOCATION OF THE BALL PIXED. WASHINGTON, August 1. - The night much improved this morning that it slight. At present his pulse is 104, was decided to make an examination with Prof. Bell's induction balance at (Signed) F. H. Hamilton. with Prof. Bell's in luction balance at once. Accordingly after the morning examination and before fresh dressing had been applied to the wound the experiment was made Drs. Agnew, Bliss, Barnet, Woodward and Reyburn were present. Prof. Bell conducted the experiment, assisted by Mr. Tainor. The plate of the bas side was placed on the president's abdomen and moved slowly about, Prof. Bell holding the indicating telephone to his ear. When the plate came directly over the spot where the preliminary experiment had developed a slight sensation on Saturday night the sensation was repeated more distinctly and decidedly. Prof Bell said he was satisfied at once, and Mr. Taintor took the instrument and found the same indication. Both men had received the signal as the plate passed over the spot. The physicians were greatly pleased with where they had suspected its presence. Dr. Reyburn stated to the reporter full a substantiating of the original diagnosis of the wound. The spot indicated is about 4; inches to the right of the naval and below it. DR. HAMILTON EXPRESSES CONFIDENCE NEW YORK, August 1 .- An interview with Dr. Hamilton was published this morning even stronger in wife on Saturday. He says emphati-cally of the president: "There is no reasonable doubt of his recovery.'

"Will you permit me to ask one question. Do you think the president vill be able to resume his duties?" "He will undoubtedly be able to esume a certain class of official duties within a week or two."

"You mean that he will be able to ttach his signature to papers, &c." "Oh, as far as that is concerned he is now perfectly able to do that."

THE PRESIDENT'S CASE during the past twenty-four hours has been one of continued restfulness, and the general comfort of the patient, taken together with the steady flow of laudable pus from the wound, form the ground for the most sanguine confidence. Such confidence is now indulged in by all the physicians. Dr. Bliss reported this evening that if he continued to improve this way he would be about the room or sitting in a chair three weeks from yester-

The only new feature in the day has been the experiment by Prof. Bell to locate the ball. The president fully recognized what was being done but suffered no nervousness.

REPORT OF PROFESSOR BELL, Official Report, "Volta Laboratory," 122 Connecticut avenue, Washington August 1 .- To the Surgeons in Attendance on President Garfield: GENTLEMEN-I beg to submit statement of the results obtained with the induction balance in an experiment made this morning for the purpose of locating the bullet in the person of President Garfield. The instrument was tested for sensativeness several times during the course of the experiment, and found to respond well to the presentation of Ill.; Fairmount, Neb.; Fayetteville, the coils. When exploring the coils it passed over the abdomen where a sonville, Ill.; Keokuk, Ia.; Lansburg, sonorous spot was observed. In the experiments of July 26th a feeble tone was percepted, and the effect was audible a considerable distance around this spot. It sounds too feeble to be entirely satisfactory, as I had reason to expect. In order to ascertain whether similar sounds might not be obtained in any localities, NEB. I explored the whole right side and reven back below the entrance of the bullet, souri.

but no part gave indications of the presence of metal except the area previously found. The sonorous experiments were repeated by Mr. Tainor, who obtained exactly corresponding results. I am justified in concluding that the ball is located within the abdomen. This fact shows the ignorance of the actual shape and mode and presentation of the bullet exploring instrument. The depth at which the bullet lies cannot be de-An Experiment Made With termined. ALEX. GRAHAM BELL.

AN APPEAL FROM PRINCE NAPOLEON. Paris, August 1.-Prince Jerome history of France during the rule of Napoleon I, his immortal uncle. Also the wonderful prosperity of the country under his cousin, Na-poleon III. He contends that the mere title of government is unimport-ant. It should be a government whereby the destiny of France among nations can be best accomplished. The present government, he asserts, has not realized the expectation cherished for it. The so-called democratic progress deceives the country, encourages the worst passions and disregards all principles upon which former prosperity was founded. The prince ends the manifesto by demanding a remission of the constitution, so as to admit a plebiscite to elect a chief ruler, a post to which he, as head of the Napoleon dynasty aspires. #### A Locomotive's Race With a Reptile.

As the Shenandoah Valley fast express entered the mile cut, immediately north of our town, on Tuesday ing. Robb was a most successful and last, the engineer was horror stricken to see what he supposed to be the end of the rail just ahead of his rushing locomotive, sliding rapidly away from him. His first thought was a broken rail caught by the pilot, and he expected an instantaneous shock. Won-derment usurped the place of fear when a second glance revealed a fivefoot black snake, of the specie known as "runners," gliding rapidly away from him on top of the rail. In the excitement of moment his hand sought the throttle.

into an attitude of defiance and died right there. An examination proved that the intense heat of the rail had burned it to death.

Missouri Pacific Work-

The Missouri Pacific road to Atchison has been located two miles from Papillion. The contract for building all the bridges has been awarded along the route to different parties. According to the contract the bridges are all to be completed by December 1st. The other work on the road will be pushed through as rapidly as possible.
