New York Dry Goods

New York Dry Goods.

New York, August 8.

The dry goods business was moderate with package houses, and the favorable change in the weather imparted rather more activity to the jobbing trade. Dress goods, prints and ginghams have been fairly active in first hands, and a steady movement in stable goods was the result. The reduction of freights to the lowest point has arrested the attention of buyers, but has thus far failed to stimulate specubut has thus far failed to stimulate speculation and there is an evident determination on the part of package buyers to keep up the conservative policy, which has marked their operations for some time.

He makes knife in his hand and like a savage he Sauer a couple of squares. This is the reason Mr. Thresher spent the past two nights in the lockup and while he will receive a trial before Judge Beneke to-day. He says he isn't guilty. E. J. Bennett and James Fox appeared before Judge Beneke yesterday looking as if they had, in the exuberance of their youth, been running each other through a threshing machine. The police merely charged them with disturbing the peace and they were fined $3 and costs each. Two men arrested for intoxication were sent to jail.

Morand Schut, the gunmaker, missed three revolvers and suspected Archie Robinson of stealing them. He was arrested. Robinson has not been tried yet but will probably be dis-charged for want of evidence.

After Many Years Only to Be Separated.

Mr. Ed. Spellerberg, a well known citizen of Omaha, started from here June 25th last for the purpose of visiting his parents in Germany. He reached his childhood's home July 16th, and met his parents whom he had not seen for many long years. After the usual greeting with his friends and relatives Mr. Spellerberg sat down to chat with his parents. Hardly had they began conversation when the aged father suddenly fell from his chair and in a few mobeen made for the celebration of the old folks' golden wedding, which would have occurred on the 24th of the same month, but this sad event of course put an end to festive thoughts. Mr. Spetlerberg will start on his return voyage to-day.
