A Score of Them on Their Way Homeward.

Recalled From America by Their Government.

A party of twenty-one Chinese students, accompanied by an instructor. arrived at the depot yesterday merning from Hartford, Connecticut. The party left Hartford on last Monday, and have had a very pleasant trip thus far. They stopped at Niagara Falls for a day, and they express themselves as delighted with that wonderful freak of nature.

They are all bright, intelligent look ing young men, and are able to speak English fluently. They range in ages from sixteen to twenty-two years. The instructor, Professor Yung, is about forty years old. This party is the first delegation of Chinese students in America which has been re called home by the Chinese govern ment. The reasons for the recall are unknown to the students, but they offer various conjectures upon the mat ter, one of which is thus Some of the young men wished to Slooumb law, were sent to jail by Ju ge enter the naval school at Annapolis, Maryland, and so signified their wishes to their home government. -The first annual picnic of Eureka Their request was refused by the Temple, No. 71, Knights of Tabor, of government, and it is thought for the reason that England, Germany and France, having offered places in their various naval schools, the Chinese on the U.
