THE PRESIDENT.

ANXIETY AT THE WHITE HOUSE.

WASHINGTON, August 15.—The morning bulletin of the president's condition has caused a general feeling of excitement throughout the city, although the feeling at the White House is one of anxiety. It is fraught with hopes that the irritation of the stomach will prove not to have such serious results as have been feared. Dr. Bliss says to-day that the first symptoms of yesterday's nausea and vomiting, it was thought, would soon disappear, and it was deemed unnecessary to alarm any one by talking about midnight. The president was reported as asleep, and there were no unfavorable symptoms. This seems to have been correct, in so far as that moment continued, but the vomiting began again soon after, and continued at intervals until 3 a. m. The three or four hours rest he then had was without disturbance, and it was hoped that the worst was passed, but he vomited again before the morning examination was made. The wound was found doing well, and the physicians say that the high figures are due entirely to irritation of the stomach, and that the irritation was caused by the effect of some food which the stomach was too weak to digest. His stomach is naturally weak from dyspepsia. It is impossible to trace the cause to any particular class of nourishment. Dr. Agnew says the irritation might have been caused in many different ways. After 9 o'clock this morning the irritation subsided and at 10:20 o'clock the physicians were about to give him some nourishment. The effect of this trial has not been announced. Drs. Barnes and Woodward have gone home and Dr. Agnew, Bliss and Reburn are now with the patient. They have been inaccessible to the press as yet to-day. The president's family have been assured that there is no cause for alarm. At 10:20 he took about one and a half ounces of milk, an ounce of whisky and some beef extract. Some quinine was also administered. The nourishment was retained in the stomach and the physicians were encouraged. Their anxiety to check the irritation will save serious alarm, but if the vomiting should continue too long the case will assume a serious aspect.

THE RUMOR DENIED.

A rumor has just been reported here that the physicians attribute the condition of the president's stomach to some action of the bullet. Secretary Brown was authorized by the president to deny it. They say the president's dyspepsia is the foundation of the trouble, and the sole foundation. Another rumor is that the ball is to be taken out to-day. This is false, as all who are at the white house testify. They say it would be folly to perform an operation on the president in the debilitated condition he is in. Since the vomiting at 12 o'clock the president is reported no worse, and it is said that he is asleep.

NO SEARCH TO BE MADE FOR THE BALL.

WASHINGTON, August 15.—There was a rumor to-day that another operation was contemplated, from the fact that Prof. Taintor, assistant to Prof. Bell, visited the White House. This was construed as an indication of a preparation for an operation and that the professor's presence in the White House was for the sole purpose of assisting the surgeons to locate the bullet by the use of the induction battery. Prof. Taintor's call was merely to inform Dr. Woodward of a telegram from Prof. Bell desiring to know the progress he was making in his experiments. It is authoritatively stated this afternoon that nothing like an operation upon the president is now contemplated in the present weakened condition of the patient let alone the absence of any reason for an operation should be enough to show this. At 1:45 this afternoon the president's pulse had fallen to 112, a decrease of six pulsations in two hours. It continues to fall and thus far there has been no recurrence of vomiting, and at 2:45 the physicians began to feel renewed encouragement.

CONSIDERABLE EXCITEMENT.

There has been more excitement in the city to-day than at any time since the first week of the shooting of the president, and all from the effect of the announcement in the morning bulletin that the president had been seized with vomiting during the night. The idea that one in the president's weak condition could stand such a strain and exertion was not for a moment entertained. The figures showed what effect it had upon him. The general improvement of the last day or two has almost been effaced by the effect of this new trouble. Those who had watched the case closely saw at once that the trouble was no new one. They remembered that the president's only annoyance in usual health was dyspepsia. This gravity of the situation, but had by no means abandoned hope. Secretary Lincoln will return to-morrow. Secretaries Hunt, Kirkwood, and Windom, Attorney General MacVeagh and Postmaster-General James are still at the White House. Mrs. Garfield went to lie down a few minutes ago. She remains as cheerful and hopeful as ever. Dr. Bliss is the only one of the physicians seen outside of the sick room to-night. He asserts that the present trouble is entirely due to the weakness of the stomach and is not at all sympathetic with the wound. He says the stomach will be given all possible rest and they hope for improvement to-morrow. He says the physicians all recognize the gravity of the situation, but they feel as if there was a way out of it.

THE MEMBERS OF THE CABINET.

remained at the White House until 11 o'clock. At that hour the president was asleep. There has been no recurrence of the vomiting. Pulse slightly subsiding. These facts are slightly reassuring, and none were dependent. Secretary Hunt seems very much affected at the unfortunate turn of affairs but thinks the president will get well through. Secretary Windom says: "It looks very grave, but the morning may change it."

ATTORNEY-GENERAL MACVEAGH.

feels the bluest of all. He says the situation is one of the deepest gravity but thinks there is a chance that to-morrow may bring a change for the better. Assistant Secretary Pitt, under the circumstances, is feeling nervous with the state department on his shoulders, and deemed it advisable to inform Secretary Blaine of the unfavorable change, that he might, if deemed best, return to Washington. A message to that effect was sent at 10:30 p. m. Vice President Arthur has not been sent for. At half-past eleven the White House was deserted again and the city is quiet except half a dozen sleepless ones who hung about the gate leading to the grounds talking with the officers in charge. The doctors had all gone home with the exception of Bliss and Reburn. The president's family were told that there was no cause for further alarm to-night. They therefore retired. Dr. Bliss laid down on the bed in the surgeons' room and Reburn remained near him. Gen. Swain was with the president at that hour. He slept comfortably after 10 p. m., and when Secretary Brown went to the door at 12 o'clock he was still asleep and breathing normally and with no indications of further disturbance. Secretary Brown had the mansion closed after 12 o'clock and went home, first making arrangements to be called in case of anything happening. The general feeling is that he has undoubtedly improved since early evening but there is still anxiety for the morning.

ANOTHER LETTER FROM DR. AGNEW.

PHILADELPHIA, August 15.—Dr. Agnew, in a second public letter in relation to an interview recently published in The Philadelphia Times and attributed to him, says: "The criticism to which the president's medical and surgical attendants have been subjected does not disturb their equanimity in the least. They have a responsibility to the country, and they will be omitted, nothing knowingly committed which, in their judgment, will endanger a valuable life, and when the proper time comes they will submit the medical and surgical history of this remarkable inquiry to the profession, the only tribunal competent to pass on the conduct of the case."

MONDAY'S BULLETINS.

WASHINGTON, August 15.—The war department has issued instructions to General Crook, commanding the department of the Platte, to hold Crow Dog, who killed Spotted Tail, and Black Crow, as an accessory to the murder, for action by the civil authorities. Secretary Lincoln will not return until the last of next week.

AGENT COOK'S REPORT FROM ROSEBUD.

WASHINGTON, August 15.—The war department has issued instructions to General Crook, commanding the department of the Platte, to hold Crow Dog, who killed Spotted Tail, and Black Crow, as an accessory to the murder, for action by the civil authorities. Secretary Lincoln will not return until the last of next week.

THE INDIANS HERE ARE ALL SIOUX.

The visiting Indians here are all Sioux, headed by Little Chief, and comprising Thunder Hawk, Big Head, Bear's Rib, Fire Heart, Red Bull and Walking Shooter, in charge of Interpreter A. H. Wagner. Another party, numbering twenty, including Red Cloud, Standing Bear, Young Swallow, and others, are expected to-morrow or Wednesday. Little Chief wants to get the government to let his people go back from the Indian territory to their old home in Dakota. The Sioux came here to perfect a settlement with the Chicago & North-western railway in regard to certain land in dispute. Conferences will be held with the Indian commissioner when all the delegates have arrived.

THE COTTON CROP.

The returns to the department of agriculture of August 1st show a decrease in the condition of cotton since the returns of July. The average condition is 88 on the first of this month, against 95 on July 1st. As compared with last year the condition is reported 14 per cent less than at the same date then. The drought is universally complained of as the cause of the decline, particularly in the South Carolina and Texas. The plant is generally reported small and suffering from much shedding of bolls. Insect injuries are not reported to any great extent.

THE NEW HAVEN MYSTERY.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., August 15.—The Malloy boy, arrested this morning, is now in jail, until next Monday, when the preliminary hearing in the trial for murder will begin. The statement that the Douglas woman has confessed is without foundation. She acknowledged nothing which was not practically established by other witnesses with one exception. She acknowledges that on the night passed by her and Jennie at the Malloy house with Walter and James, James passed with Jennie, while she was with Walter, in order to give the impression that there was nothing in circumstances to call for the administration of a drug.

Illness of Mrs. Gladstone, Wife of the Prime Minister.

Probability of a Settlement of the Difficulty Between the Commons and Lords.

NATIONAL ASSOCIATED PRESS.

ILLNESS OF MRS. GLADSTONE.

LONDON, August 15.—Mrs. Gladstone, wife of the prime minister, is suffering from a slight attack of erysipelas. She is thought to be in no danger at present, but her advanced age and the fact that her health has not been very robust for some time, causes anxiety among her friends.

ACCIDENT IN AN AMPHITHEATRE.

At Marseilles, in the amphitheatre located in the old town and an ancient building, while a bull fight was in progress yesterday and the building was more than usually thronged, several tiers of seats gave away, throwing the occupants from twelve to twenty-five feet to the ground. Twelve people were killed and 150 injured, many seriously.

THE HOUSE OF COMMONS.

LONDON, August 15.—In the house of commons this afternoon various petitions were presented against the house yielding to the amendments of the house of lords, impairing the protection afforded to tenants by the land bill. Mr. Gladstone arose and moved a consideration of the amendments made by the house of lords to the land bill. Mr. L. D. Dilling, liberal, representing Swanscombe, said that he and a number of others had loyally supported the passing of the land bill, but if material concessions were made to an irresponsible body the movement would lose the support of the liberals. (Cheers.) After further remarks by Mr. Healy and others, Mr. Gladstone proposed that the house consider the amendments on their merits, and asked those who had trusted him so long to continue to trust him to the end. Mr. Gladstone then accepted the house of lords amendments regarding Ulster county tenant right customs.

SERIOUSLY ILL.

LONDON, August 15.—Mr. Alexander M. Sullivan, home rule member of the house of commons for Meath, was this afternoon taken with a fit and is seriously ill.

THE FLAG OF THE TRANSVAAL.

DURBAN, August 15.—The flag of the Transvaal republic was hoisted at Pretoria, the capital of the Transvaal, on the 8th inst., amid an enormous concourse of Boers. Before the flag was hoisted Jonbert addressed a patriotic but moderate speech to the assembled Boers, saying that victory having accompanied their efforts in the field it became incumbent upon them to show the surrounding population that they could manage their own affairs in peace and quiet. The hoisting of the national colors was greeted by tremendous cheering, in which, strange to note, several English officers present took part. On the 9th the different Boer corps still on a war footing dispersed to their homes.

ENGLISH CROPS.

LONDON, August 15.—The agricultural Gazette says: According to the returns of our correspondent of the number of acres under wheat, about 51 per cent give an average yield, and about 41 per cent give under, and 8 per cent over the average. Oats are very disappointing. Beans, pears and green crops generally are better than they are at one time promised. The harvest, which it was thought would be less expedited by the heat of July, is now general.

THE CROPS IN FRANCE.

PARIS, August 15.—The Agricultural Journal estimates that the wheat crop will be sensibly under the average. Barley and oats are also estimated to show a deficit. Maize gives rise to considerable uneasiness in the east and south of France. Rye is of good quality but under the average.

SETTLING THE DIFFICULTY.

LONDON, August 15.—The result of the negotiations between the government and the opposition is that Lord Salisbury will accept the bill as amended. To-night Gladstone consented to the clause permitting landlords to apply to the court to fix a fair rent after failing to make one with the tenant. A committee was nominated to arrange an agreement with the house of lords.

A FALSE ALARM.

LONDON, August 16.—Much excitement was caused over the report of the death of President Garfield and the residence of the American minister was besieged with inquiries.

MURDEROUS APACHES.

LAS VEGAS, N. M., Aug. 15.—Two Mexicans who arrived here Sunday in an exhausted condition report that a small Mexican village, eighteen miles from Rio Parico, has been entirely wiped out by Apache Indians. The settlement contained only twenty-nine people. Of these twenty-seven were slain. The other two were the men who brought the meagre details of the outrage. At this writing it can only be learned that the Apaches surrounded the village and butchered all the occupants, men women and children. The settlers were taken entirely by surprise and were afforded no opportunity to protect themselves. Being largely unarmored, it is doubtful if the results would have been different had they received warning of the attack. The two Mexican survivors had a narrow escape, their

BOSTON, August 15.—Boston's 6, Troys 2.

Printers Demanding a Raise.

CINCINNATI, August 15.—The Typographical union has made a demand of the different offices that they be paid an advance of 5 cents per 100 ems, and The Gazette has partly promised to comply.

Garret to Vanderbilt.

WASHINGTON, August 14.—The reply of President Garret, of the Baltimore & Ohio railroad, to what he regards as a Vanderbilt attack, will be in readiness by Thursday next. It is his intention to make the reply a full and complete statement, reviewing in detail the railroad misunderstanding and the connecting facts. Garret is disposed to fight Vanderbilt on every point. Garret thinks the interests of the public can be best served by a fair competition on all the trunk lines.

Fine Horse Flesh.

NEW YORK, August 15.—One hundred and twenty Norman horses, including fifty-six stallions and forty yearlings, the largest importation ever made, arrived to-day in the steamer City of London. They weigh from 1,000 to over 2,000 pounds and cost from $500 to $1,200 each. Of the whole number 110 were consigned to E. Dillon & Co., of Bloomingdale, Ill.

Grading Completed.

OXFORD, Ind., August 15.—The new railroad, formerly known as the Chicago & Indiana, and recently changed to the Chicago & Great Southern, has completed the grading between Goodland and Oxford and will proceed to tie and iron the road at once. The road will be continued south to the Indiana coal fields and it is said to be controlled by the Louisville & Nashville company.

A Brutal Murder.

HANNAH, Mo., August 15.—Glascock's island, directly opposite this city, was the scene of a brutal murder Sunday. A party of river men were holding a caucous in a disreputable house. During a quarrel at the bar a man named West Barnes shot Jack Gibbons, a raftman, through the side, killing him instantly. Gibbons was also stabbed in the back and neck as soon as the shot was fired. Either of the wounds would have proved fatal. The murderer lives in this city but has not yet been arrested.

Chilians and Peruvians Still Fighting.

LIMA, August 15.—Many fights have taken place between the Chilians and Peruvians in Lima. In some of them the Chilians have been worsted. How long this state of affairs will last is hard to conjecture. Garcia Calvean, it is announced, intends to resign. Two-thirds of his cabinet have tendered their resignations and it is thought that if peace is made the only person allowed to enter into terms will be Ferrol.
