SOME THINGS THE BODY HAS DONE AND

SOME IT HAS NOT. The city council will meet to-night, discoursed some choice selections.

The third heat in the 2:37 class was called. The horses came to the wire nearly in a line. Billy Bashaw spurted ahead, and at the quarter mile was leading the others, and the distance became greater until they reached the half mile pole. Here Billy Bashaw tooks and lost ground, allowing Kittie Clyde to come up nearly to his wheel. But he spurted ahead prettily, and at the three-quarter pole was considerably in advance. Kittie Clyde got down to business and held Bashaw a pretty hard race down the home stretch, but Bashaw was first at the wire and went under in 2:34 with Kittie Clyde second, and Lucreec third.
