A CHANGE OF AIR.

That's What the President Will Get.

All of the Physicians Concede it to Be a Necessity.

Washington's September Malaria to be Coded by a Long Branch Trip.

A Constant Improvement in the President's Condition.

WASHINGTON, September 2.—The president's case progressed during the night to the general satisfaction of the physicians and nurses this morning. His condition is in full accord with the progress for the last few days. The recent improvement is noticeable in the comfortable manner in which the patient rests. He sleeps the greater part of the night as a well man.

Before midnight the dressings were removed from the gland and the accumulated pus pressed out. This saved any annoyance that might have followed undue secretion. The gland at the morning dressing was found to be doing well. There was a good discharge of the pus, and it was observed that its character was excellent. The pus that finds its way into the mouth is very trifling in amount and has caused the president no trouble.

The wound shows a little more improvement this morning in every respect. The president seems to have held his own, and that signifies general improvement of the system. Dr. Agnew is expected this evening and the plan for moving the president will be determined at once. A railroad trip to Long Branch now seems most likely. The time for beginning the trip will depend upon the improvement of the next four days.

Gen. Swain at 10:30 this morning said that the president is doing nicely. He continues to improve and nothing unfavorable has come up. The stomach is all right. For breakfast he chewed a little steak again, swallow the juice. He also ate chicken broth. The state of the case is entirely satisfactory. There has been no febrile rise. Other advisers from the sick room indicate continued improvement. Several cabinet officers called during the morning and went away satisfied.

Thus far Long Branch seems to be the favorite among the places considered for the Garfield removal. The president and Mrs. Garfield have given their preference in the past over other seaside resorts. The question of how the removal shall be made will not be decided upon before to-morrow, when all the surgeons will be present.

No reports other than favorable have been made by the sick room attendants. Although the patient does not gain in strength, he still holds his own. Various symptoms are improving and the physicians feel assured that a sure foundation is being laid for rapid recovery before long. The gland is doing as a stand-still.

Dr. Bliss says he can see good improvement since yesterday. Dr. Reynbrun says that he is doing well, but he would gain strength faster somewhere outside of Washington, and thinks the president will be moved inside of five days. He said that it has become now almost imperative that he should be removed at an early date. This air here is bad for him. It is understood that the September air is worse than that of August in its contents of malaria. The sooner he gets away the better. It is a necessary that at an early day, and I think the danger would be greater to allow him to remain here than in moving him.

With a change of air the improvement in four or five days would be very noticeable to his benefit. In that time, with removal without accident and undue disturbance, he would be much better and improve. I agree that the air here is very bad for him.

The president's stomach is doing nicely. He has chewed more steak to-day, has had chicken broth and enjoyed it all. The president is as cheerful and patient as could be expected.

Boynton says that the president is fully as well as at any time since the relapse, but there had been no great gain of strength.

The president had about all done for him that was possible in this climate and the sooner he was moved the better for him. The gland is doing very well and the swelling had nearly all subsided. The doctor says that the general opinion is that the healing of the wound began at the ball and that the cannula was healed to a point reached by the catheter used in cleaning for pus collecting beyond that point. If the ball should be moving about it would necessarily cause the formation of pus. He had known balls to move from place to place without causing inflammation. In regard to moving the president he favors his removal by rail rather than by water.

A MOB BEATEN.

They Attempt to Free a Murderer but are Driven Away.

NATIONAL ASSOCIATED PRESS. COLUMBUS, Ga., September 2.—Intelligence from Lake City, Fla., says that Wednesday night a party of men went to the house of W. A. Hardy, a mile east of town, for the purpose of aiding Miss Kene to escape from custody. Hardy having taken charge of Miss Kene until the trial for murdering her infant, Mr. Hardy heard the party at the gate and ordered them to halt.

Believing he would be shot he raised his gun when a man standing at the side of the house fired and the ball struck Hardy in the left breast. Hardy fired two barrels into the party and wounded one or two. The party fired into the house and nearly a hundred bullets were visible in the walls. One of the backshot struck Hardy's little son, aged five years, piercing his skull and further wounded a negro named Alfred.

Mrs. Hardy, seeing Miss Kene with her goods packed and trying to get out, seized and held her until the attacking party left. Sheriff Bethen immediately summoned a part of the local militia, and some young men also armed themselves and hastened to the scene. Several suspected parties were arrested.

A MURDEROUS LUNATIC.

He Jumps from a Midnight Sleep and Shoots Several Persons.

NATIONAL ASSOCIATED PRESS. CHICAGO, September 2.—John C. Neal, a crazy stranger, arose from a bed in a lodging house on Clark street, last night, and shot Daniel Fagan, another lodger, in the head. He then rushed down the stairs, shot the only occupant of the office, a Swede named Springer, and with a yell the lunatic then jumped out of the window and landing right side up, ran down Clark street, firing as he went. He shot a negro named Henry Johnson, who attempted to stop his mad flight. He turned into Polk street and fired at three persons. A policeman finally caught and clubbed him into submission and dragged him to jail.

The wounds of the man shot in bed, the watchman, the negro Johnson, and one of the others shot at, named Wolf, will probably prove fatal. The lunatic claims to be a grocer from Troy, N. Y.

THE OIL FIRES.

Slight Rains Check Their Mad Progress.

NATIONAL ASSOCIATED PRESS. OLEAN, N. Y., September 2.—The oil fires which have been raging for several days past have been checked by the copious rains which fell last night. One hundred men are still on watch to-day for fear that they may again break out, as the fire is still smoldering and no rain is now falling. About forty oil rigs were burned and 10,000 barrels of oil destroyed. Several of the large 25,000 barrel tanks were in imminent danger at one time, but the labor of 1,000 men who worked all day and night saved them.

One thousand wells had shut down for the lack of water to run the engines, no rains having fallen until last night for several weeks. The rain of last night will aid them but little, but will do good to the farmers whose fields were almost ruined.

OVERHAULED BY HER DAD.

An Inmate Sheriff Recaptures a Prisoner His Daughter Released.

NATIONAL ASSOCIATED PRESS. ST. LOUIS, September 2.—Wm. F. Martin, a murderer from Laclede county, was brought here to-day. He was in jail at Lebanon some time ago and made love to the jailer's daughter, who stole the keys, opened the cell and eloped with him. He had made his way to the south and was pursued by Sheriff Goodall, who arrested him at Pine Bluff, Tenn., last Tuesday. The elopement occurred last November. Martin married the girl sometime afterwards. She came back with him and is stopping at a hotel here. Martin is charged with the assassination of a farmer with whom he had some trouble.

HIS DEATH DANCE.

Execution of a Colored Outrager in Tennessee.

NATIONAL ASSOCIATED PRESS. CHATTANOOGA, September 2.—Henry Lambert, a negro, was hanged at 2 o'clock to-day for an assault on Miss Donaldson on the Fourth of July. He met her in a field and committed the outrage, and to quiet her screams inflicted severe cuts all over her body with a razor. He was caught and the same month convicted and sentenced. About 5,000 persons witnessed the hanging. He did not deny the guilt, but said on the scaffold that he had made his peace with God.

"REBEL GEORGE."

The Notorious Swindler Nabbed in Chicago.

NATIONAL ASSOCIATED PRESS. CHICAGO, September 2.—George Knowlton, alias Rebel George, who came to this city yesterday from the west, having in his possession a bogus gold brick, a three card monte layout and several disguises, was arrested to-day on charge of murdering a man named Rank at Fort Pierre, Dakota territory, in April, 1877. He has a bullet wound in his hand which he says was inflicted by a man he swindled on a railroad train near Kansas City lately.

DREADED DROUGHT.

Gloomy Reports From a Large Number of States.

Grass and Crops Burned Up and Water Gone.

Stock Dying in Illinois and Indiana by Thousands.

Great Distress Prevailing Among Farmers.

NATIONAL ASSOCIATED PRESS. CHICAGO, September 2.—Dispatches from the southern part of the state all agree that a drought so long continued and with such dire consequences as attend the present one has never before been known in the state. Pastures are drying up, wells and cisterns have gone dry and ponds and creeks are being drawn upon not only for stock, but for family use.

The farmers throughout Egypt are greatly discouraged as they see wheat sowing time approaching, and the majority of them without a furrow turned for the crop. It is stated by some farmers that the fall sowing will be much more than one-tenth of the usual average. When the harvest was over it was too dry and hard to commence plowing for wheat. They have been waiting ever since for rain and they are waiting still.

The scarcity of feed incident to this drought is beginning to be a serious question with farmers who own much or even little stock. It will be almost impossible for the fall pasture to afford any relief as without steady and copious rains there will be no grass and it is unlikely that there will be any.

The price of all kinds of feed has advanced so materially that farmers cannot but be distressed. The stock, therefore, must perish unless events take a very sudden turn. Very many small farmers in southern Illinois will suffer during the coming winter for the bare necessities of life.

CHICAGO, September 2.—The Illinois Central railroad received dispatches to-day announcing a long needed fall of rain along its line. A heavy rain prevailed in Central Iowa and refreshing showers occurred around Springfield and Clinton. The corn will be benefited somewhat.

CHICAGO, September 2.—The light local rains which have visited many parts of the west and south the last two days was too late for most of the crops but have done good in furnishing water for the stock and replenishing the dried up streams.

AN OBSCENE CLERGYMAN.

Manages to Give Deputy U. S. Marshal Culp the Slip.

NATIONAL ASSOCIATED PRESS. LINCOLN, Neb., September 2.—For some time past, the postmaster at Nebraska City, has observed that postal cards containing obscene matter have been passing through his office at intervals. The cards became so numerous and of such filthy character that he determined to put a stop to it if possible. A short time since he notified U. S. Marshal Bierbower what was going on, and that gentleman detailed Deputy U. S. Marshal Culp to ferret the matter out, and, if possible, bring the guilty party to justice.

Mr. Culp went to work on the case with a vim, and was not long in laying the dirty case at the door of Mr. Cramer, a minister residing a few miles from Nebraska City. The man was arrested last Tuesday afternoon and arrived in this city yesterday afternoon, where he was to have a preliminary examination before U. S. Commissioner Billingsley. The case was set for hearing; the prisoner was before the bar of justice, and the witnesses were ready to testify to what they knew concerning the matter; the marshal was on hand ready to take his man to jail should the testimony be found sufficient to bind him over. Suddenly, on the impulse of the moment, so to speak, his reverence arose, and in a calm and dignified manner, asked the court if he might retire for a few moments. Permission was granted and Mr. Cramer walked down stairs alone, to return never more—at least the court, the marshal, the witnesses and a large number of spectators waited for an hour or two for his return, but failing to appear, it seemed to dawn upon the crowd that the man had slipped out for parts unknown.

Disappearing Landmark.

Yesterday the old partially frame structure adjoining Coroner Jacobs' establishment, now occupied by John Baumer, was auctioned off for $150. The property was purchased by Jerry Shanahan, who will remove the frame portions down Thirteenth street. This old building might be considered a landmark. It was formerly two stories in height, with a basement entrance. It was one of the first hotels ever erected in Omaha, and in former days was known as the Valley house. It was then mostly a brick structure. The house is about twenty-two years old. It will be removed from its present location in about three or four days. H. Dohle will begin the erection of a three-story brick building on the site within a week.

Foreign Affairs.

NATIONAL ASSOCIATED PRESS. LONDON, September 2.—The latest advices from Tunis confirm the reports of a partial reverse to the French armies advancing toward Hammamet, under command of Col. Corradet. The army, 12,000 strong, has fallen back for the purpose of obtaining an additional subsistence and keeping an open line to a new base of supplies. Col. Corradet's movements had been retarded by efforts to discover whether the natives about Hammamet were friendly or not. Supply trains which have been expected failed to arrive, and the army will fall back until they are met. The Arabs who are present in threatening numbers and presenting considerable discipline are banding about the army, hampering its movements to such an extent as to make the falling back almost a retreat.

Lowther, the conservative candidate for the north Lincolnshire district, has been elected by a majority of 471. The meat shipments from Australia on the cold air process have resulted satisfactorily. A quantity was sold at Smithfield to-day of excellent condition and brought 7 percent per pound. Beef, almost perfectly preserved will be sold to-morrow.

Holy Family Fair.

The Holy Family parish fair, which commences Friday, September 9th, and continues until the 17th, promises to possess many features of a new and interesting character. The purpose of the fair is to raise the necessary funds for the construction of a new parochial school and church, and in view of this it is hoped that success will attend it. It will be held in Central hall, which is almost completed, and on this occasion will for the first time be opened to the public.

The Work Not Let.

The county commissioners have not yet awarded the contract for building the new court house. Fred Dellone, of this city, it is understood, put in a bid for the work, which was $11,000 lower than any other. The commissioners claim that they will let the work to the lowest bidder. The only reason why Mr. Dellone did not get the work yesterday was that he presented no bond.

Must Report.

Dr. Leisenring, the city physician, is determined that all medical men and midwives will report to him all births at which they may be present, so that he can make a complete record. The doctor has had warrants sworn out against Dr. Peck and Mrs. L. Boehme for failing to comply with the ordinance in this respect. The cases will be heard before Judge Bencke.

Premature Blast.

John Benzion, the ice dealer of Thirteenth street, was terribly injured in the eyes by a premature explosion at his ice house yesterday afternoon. Both eyes were filled with powder and dirt. Dr. Leisenring attended the injured man and has hopes that his eyesight may be saved.

Nearly Lost an Eye.

William Erickson, a lad about 16 years old, was struck in the eye yesterday afternoon by a sharp piece of iron, which penetrated the center of the optic. Dr. Graddy removed the iron and says the eye will be all right in a few days, although it will be very sore.

Heavy Losses to Parties Buying the Coupons From the "Queer."

NATIONAL ASSOCIATED PRESS. CHICAGO, September 2.—Two years since a man's coat was stolen from the Sherman house. The thief was arrested. The officers in examining the coat found counterfeit coupons of bonds. Later the man who lost the coat left in a boarding house a picture of a woman. The detectives found the woman to be the wife of a counterfeiter and have traced the clues since.

To-morrow morning the officers start for Charleston, Washington, Philadelphia, New York and Boston to arrest the members of an extensive gang of counterfeiters, who have uttered $50,000 bogus Illinois Central railroad bonds, and $200,000 bogus Cook county, Illinois, bonds. County Treasurer Johnson, of this city, has lost $2,000 in paying coupons of these bogus bonds.

THIEVING REDSKINS.

NATIONAL ASSOCIATED PRESS. FORT DAVIS, TEXAS, September 2.—Trouble with the redskins in the vicinity of Pima, Colorado, has recommenced. Beckwith's ranch, at that point, was raided yesterday and a number of horses taken. A herder of Lawrence Haley and 2,000 sheep were killed and 500 sheep driven off. Their pilfering bands are thoroughly organized and the citizens have been compelled to call upon the United States troops to assist them in driving the thieving Indians away.
