its principles are so prominently em-bodied in that instrument all this convention need to do is to adhere to them and all will be well.

Resolved, That we hold in derision the means used by the republican party whereby they seek to evade the amendment to the state constitution; that the democratic party believe that any legislation touching the liquor traffic of the state cannot be conducive to the interests of the people and will interfere with a large amount of business They expressed the deepest sympathy for our afflicted president, and deprefor our afflicted president, and depre-cated any means adopted to deprive the people of their choice of a presi-dent, whether it came by law or at the hands of the assassin. The conven-tion was very fully attended, all re-tiponding when the roll was called, except Hon. W. H. M. Pusey and the member from Keg Creek.

We understand that the pur-States convened in this city yesterday. We understand that the purpose is to enter mto a general discussion as to the best manner to conduct their church work; their school located in Chicago and their paper published in the same city, called "Tid Skriften;" besides the most efficient means of advancing their missionary work. The church has sprung upfrom a single seed until it numbers now over 5,000 members and is in a prosperous condition. The following are among the well known pastors in attendance: F. Petersen, Minneapolis, Minn.; N. P. Jensen, Danish church, Chicago, John Andersen, Red Wing, Minnesota; A. B. Orgren, Princeton, Illinois, Prof. Edgren Morgan, Park, Ill.; John Ongman, Chicago, Ill.; E. Vingren, pastor of the Scoola church, Chicago and editor of the "Tid Skreften"; L. Johansen, Alton, Ill. C. A. Sandwan, Swedebend, Iowa and A. F. Palm, pustor of the Swedish Baptist church, Stromsburg, Neb.

The body will continue in session each day during the week.

THE BLUFF IN BRIEF. Our fire department with Olker's bang went over the river yesterday to take part in the grand parade that took place there.

B. Thurman has just returned home from an extended northern trip to THE CHAMPION HAY GATHERER. Minnesota and Dakota. He visited all the principal cities in Minnesota, as well as Bismarck and Fargo, Dakota. He says the farmers will be about one-half short on wheat. The Northern Pacific railroad is progress ing finely, and will reach Glendine, a point about 212 miles west of Bismarck, about October 1, this year.

B. B. Breed, of Oshkosh, Michigan, was in the city yesterday, and stayed at the Pacific. H. A. Wells, of Hamburg, C. J. Woodhurst, W. H. C. Woodhurst, of Pacific Junction, Resolved, That democrats stand firmly upon the platform adopted by the June state convention; that also registered there.

The voters shou'd try and post themselves upon the question of changing our charter. There are many advantages we will gain if we vote to be a city of the first-class. Council Bluffs don't want to remain second to any city in the state.

T. J. Evans has returned from the state fair over the river, and he says if that electric light could speak it would say that it was about the "thinest thing" it ever shone upon.
