I ex-pressed some surprise to the bearer of the order at the dimensions stated, when I was told that the shoes were intended for a female, but the bearer said that the shoes were for an old servant. Well, I afterwardsfound out that the shoes were actually worn by a lady who was one of the richest and most fashionable in the city." "You spoke of getting orders from outside places—where are those places" "Cities at the North and West. 'I "Cities at the North and West. I don't know that there is anything in the world that is so well calculated to excite envy as a pretty foot, and when a person can boast of such a possession, he or she is very apt, if poverty does not stand in the way, to make the most of it. A pretty foot is a fortune to a woman. Last year I made a pair of shoes for a lady who had as pretty feet as ever were fashioned. It was a pleasure for me to make the shoes, and when they were finished I put them when they were finished I put them sumed in loading tools on to the handin the show window in a very con-spicuous place where I could admire and nine mea boarded that little car. them at my leisure.
