Barnum's Smash-Up-Several carriages and two tableaux chariots from Barnum's show arrived in this city yesterday for repair. They were damaged in the smash-up which Barnum's train suffered about five miles east of Tama City, on the North-western road, on Saturday last. Besides the injury to the tableaux chariots and a handsome peacock chariot, eight horses were killed and ten or fifteen others severely injured. The chariots will be repaired in time to appear in the grand parade in this city on Fri-

CERTAIN MONEY

Which is Claimed By the City and County.

The suit which the board of education has decided to bring to recover fines imposed in the police court in state cases was begun at the instance of Judge Beneke, who is anxious to have a rather knotty prob-lem settled before he goes out walks be laid at Fourteenth and Cass of office. There are no court decisions bearing upon the point. According to the constitution all fines accruing from cases tried under the general laws go into the county fund; according to the city ordinances these go into the city treasury. Gen-Cowin gave an opinion he stated that which money should go into the county treasury. Gen. Manderson, the city attorney, was equally positive that the coin should be paid into the city treasury. As may be imagined, this left Judge Beneke in considerable doubt. He decided that none of the money should be paid into either treasury until a decision had been rendered covering the point, and consequently has been depositing these funds in a separate account at the State bank. All this money will be thus lodged until the matter is set-

Mrs. Burke Going to the Front city. Without Backers.

While many Iowa and Nebraska newspapers are giving currency to gossipy stories concerning Omaha's equestrienne, Mrs. Burke, and her recent dissolution of partnership with Jacobs, who owns the horses she rode, it seems the plucky little woman has been striking out on her own merits and winning races without the assistance of either her former backers or the horses it was claimed secured her victories. She arrived in this city Monday night, from Atchison, Kan sas, where she rode two races on Friday and Saturday of last week. The first was to beat the time of a race between Miss Curtis and Miss Williams, which she succeeded in doing by bare ly three seconds, but it was nevertheless an honest beat. On Saturday she rode against Miss Curtis, giving her a mile in ten. On the sixth mile Mrs. Burke had made up An ordinance regulating the laying her mile and Miss Curtis threw up the sponge and acknowledged herself beaten. Mrs. Burke rode the race out in the time of 21:40. She declares this to have been the best race she ever rode, taking into consideration the unevenness and heaviness of the track and the poor horses she was obliged to mount. There was a large attendance on both days. Yesterday she left for St. Louis,

Stull, and President Dailey declared where will ride against Miss Archer, of McNamara an interested party and Sedalia, Mo. Mrs. Burke will purchase horses in St. Louis with the proceeds of the races she has been engaged in, and she said yesterday, in conversation with a BEE reporter, that she hoped to have a field of horses in a few weeks which could not be beaten. She stated that she had challenged Jacobs to ride against any woman he might procure, at Omaha, for $1,000. He will probably match Miss Cricket Still against her, and the race will not be far distant. "He'll findit's one thing to talk and another to ge a woman to hold those horses of his for ten miles," said Mrs. Burke, em-An Important Session Held phatically, as she referred to the sub-

In relation to the recent trouble with her husband at Cedar Rapids and the subsequent stories in the newspapers, she said: "Mr. Burke and Jacobs had it so arranged that let them have it. When I get my horses Mr. Beardsley is going to handle them, and it's nobody's business whom I hire to do my work. I must have some one to look after my horses, and the same yarns would be circulated if it were any one else. Mr. Beardsley will accompany me as my assistant in that capacity. As far as Mr. Burke is concerned, and my family troubles, I care to say as little as possible. He had not supported me for more than a year previous to my commencing to ride races publicly, ries that have been circulated will have to be supported by proof."

It is impossible to not admire Mrs. Burke's pluck and independence and there are many who will sympathize with her earnestly, and hope she will "come down the home stretch" ahead.
