TRAVELING ROYALTY.

King Kalakaua Pays His Second Visit to Omaha. How He Was Entertained While Here. Sketch of the Grand Tour Which He Has Almost Completed. King Kalakaua is in town. Once again Omaha throws open her hospitable doors to the son of destiny from the Sandwich Islands. The visit has been expected for some time, as this city was selected as one of the few stopping places in the trans-continental tour. Those who have never had the good fortune to gaze upon one through whose veins pulsate the blood royal may now have the opportunity of seeing a real live king. It was not generally known at what hour the king would arrive yesterday, and as a consequence there were but comparatively few people about the depot. However, several remained there for an hour or more waiting his arrival. It was after 12 o'clock when the private car of Mr. Perkins, of the C. B. & Q., was sidetracked at the Union Pacific depot. When the train stopped Hon. J. M. Woolworth and Mr. Davenport, of the C. B. & Q., appeared at the entrance. Mr. Woolworth alighted to make arrangement for the disposal of his guests, while the remaining members of the party turned the lower end of the depot and started up the front platform. The party consisted of King Kalakaua, Col. Judd, one of his four ministers of state; Major McFarland, first chamberlain, and Miss Genie Woolworth. Kalakaua is of medium height, and inclined to be portly. His face is full and round. He wears a set of heavy black mutton chops whiskers, with a mustache. His complexion is very dark brown. He was neatly and fashionably dressed and exhibited but little jewelry. A white Panama hat was the only thing about him that looked at all odd. In company with his two ministers and Miss Woolworth, King Kalakaua entered Judge Woolworth's private carriage and were driven to that gentleman's residence on St. Mary's avenue. A sketch of the travels of King Kalakaua who pays his second visit to Omaha to-day, may not be uninteresting to readers of THE BEE. King Kalakaua (David), who recently arrived in this country on the way home from Europe, was born at Honolulu in 1836. He is descended from the ancient kings of the island of Hawaii, and was educated at the royal school of his native city—an establishment said to be thoroughly English throughout. In 1860 he paid a visit to California, and in 1874 to New York, where he was so struck with the enterprise and growing greatness that he then and there formed the resolution to make the grand tour upon which he started on the 20th of last January, and which he intends to bring to a close toward the end of the present month of October. When his father, Lunallilo, died, in 1874, he was elected king by the legislature, thirty-nine votes having been given for him against six for his rival, the dowager Queen Emma. A riot in favor of the queen took place upon the occasion, but owing to the interference of an American and an English vessel of war, then lying in the harbor, it was speedily quelled, and Kalakaua placed securely upon the throne. His Majesty, who is supposed to be traveling incognito, has been accompanied during his present tour by Attorney General William N. Armstrong, of the Hawaiian Islands, who travels with him as one of his four Ministers of State, by Colonel Judd, his first Chamberlain, and by Major MacFarland and many domestics. His first visit was to San Francisco, where he was entertained most sumptuously, as he has been at the courts of the various countries on his programme. He next went to Sacramento and thence to Japan where he was the guest of the Emperor, and was entertained by the Mikado and princess and attained the thirty-third degree of Masonry, the fraternity tendered him a ball at Yokohama; but the massacre of the Emperor of Russia occurring at the time, the idea of giving the festival was abandoned. He next visited China, but in consequence of bad weather did not go to Peking, although met at Tien Tsin by Li Hung Chang, the first citizen of the empire. He visited Hong Kong, however, where he was entertained in the name of the Queen of England, by the governor of the colony. After this he proceeded to Siam, where he became the guest of the governor, and visited many places of interest under the most distinguished guides. We next find him with Sir Frederick Welt, the English governor, and afterwards at Calcutta. From this latter place he proceeded to Benares, the sacred city of India, and thence to Bombay, where he visited the Silent Tower where he received the bodies of the dead were once exposed to be devoured by vultures. From Bombay he sailed for Egypt, where the khedive took him in a royal car to Cairo, and where he saw the pyramids and various other objects of interest. He then went to Alexandria and over the Mediterranean to Naples, where he was received by the king and queen of Italy. From Naples he proceeded

HIS EXCELLENCY.

The Marquis of Lorne Passes Through Omaha. The Marquis of Lorne, governor general of Canada and Her Majesty's Dominion in North America, and suite, passed through Omaha yesterday on his return from an extended tour through the northwest. The party, with servants, numbered sixteen. Beside the Marquis of Lorne there were Col. Dewinton, private secretary to his excellency; Maj. Chater, A. D. C.; Capt. Bagot, A. D. C.; Rev. D. McGregor, of Edinburgh, Scotland; Sidney Hall, of the London Graphic; E. R. Austin, of The London Times, and Dr. Cullen Sewell, of Quebec. The party were in the Pullman car "St. Nicholas," which was sent out from Chicago to Dillon, Montana, to meet his excellency, under charge of G. J. Carpenter, one of the governor general's suite. The party all showed the weather bronze from their trip, but were healthy and hearty. They have had an extended, and in some respects, a laborious tour. It was his excellency's intention to make a thorough examination of the queen's northwestern dominions, and he fully carried it out. They left Quebec July 18th, and proceeded direct to Winnipeg, making most of the journey from Fond du Lac to that point in canoe. From Winnipeg they went through the greater portion of the northwestern territory. Their journey took them to Ft. Ellis, Qu'Appelle, Carlton, Prince Albert's settlement, Battleford, and to Calgary. Calgary is anticipated as the point where the new Canada Pacific road will commence to ascend the Rocky mountains. At Fort Shaw the party were most courteously received and transportation furnished them to Dillon. This journey occupied five days, the party traveling by light wagons and four-horse teams. Their trip from the terminus of the railroad until it was again met was over 1,300 miles in length. During the trip, until the United States territory was reached, the company were escorted by the Northwestern mounted police. The governor general had a number of interviews on his journey with the Indian tribes, whose chiefs assembled to greet him and hold councils. No serious mishap occurred on the trip and all of the party returned feeling well. They expressed the greatest admiration for the western country of the United States. Here the party divided. His excellency, private secretary, Col. Dewinton, and Maj. Chater return to Winnipeg, via Sioux City. The remainder of the party go east by way of Chicago. The governor general goes direct to Ottawa from Winnipeg, and will probably arrive home in a few weeks. The High Sort of General. Jacob Smith, Clinton street, Buffalo, says he has used Spring Blossom in his family as a general medicine for cases of indigestion, biliousness, bowel and kidney complaints and disorders arising from impure blood, and where the speaking quality of its efficacy. Price 50 cents, trial bottle 10 cents. "The Revere House" Council Bluffs is the best second-class hotel in the west." aug 17-1m

CRUSHED BY THE CARS.

A Boy Killed at Iler's Distillery Yard. A fatal accident occurred in the yard of the Willow Springs Distillery yesterday afternoon. James P. Winding, a boy eight years old, was horribly crushed by backing cars. The lad was a son of Chris. Winding, who has charge of the distillery yards. He was sent by his father to their home, a short distance away, on an errand. Returning, the little fellow, while crossing a side track in the yard, was knocked down by a backing car and run over. His head and body were crushed into a shapeless mass. Mr. Winding was within a few steps of his son when the fatality occurred, but could not reach him in time to snatch him from under the wheels. Coroner Jacobs was summoned and empaneled a jury, who viewed the remains. The following were the jury: A. D. Morris, F. Klepper, A. J. Halton, E. Kuony, Peter A. Hansen, G. P. Armstrong. They rendered a verdict that the fatality was purely accidental and ascribed no blame to any one. Out in the Head. Jacob Reiner, foreman of the Herald press room, was arrested last night on a charge of striking Geo. Gibson, who is employed on an evening paper in this city, on the head with a wrench, inflicting a scalp wound about two inches long and exposing the skull. Dr. Merriam dressed the cut. Gibson claimed that his arms were held by Reiner's brother while he struck him. Entire Satisfaction Rendered. Such is substantially the report of B. T. Worland, Esq., Concordia, Ky., who writes: I have been selling St. Jacob's Oil for some time, and find that it gives entire satisfaction. In several cases of rheumatism under my observation the cure was complete. District Court Cases. There was a verdict in the case of Millard vs. Burley, on trial in the district court to-day. It was for the plaintiff and amounted to about five hundred dollars. The case of Mrs. Goodrich vs. the city of Omaha was then called. This is an appeal from the award of arbitrators. Mrs. Goodrich brought a suit for damages for injuries sustained and the arbitrators merely awarded twenty-five dollars. Suit Dismissed. The suit brought by Jacob Schreiner against Gen. Estabrook for renting a house for the purposes of prostitution was dismissed yesterday in Judge Bencke's court at the instance of the prosecutor. Schreiner also paid the cost in the case. A trial package of "BLACK-DRAUGHT" free of charge. A. C. F. Goodman's. Miss Mollie Mangue wishes to inform his customers that she has moved to northwest of Twelfth on Dodge, 1204 and will do dressmaking in families as usual. Usters received this morning at McDonald's.
