Lost between Catholic Library rooms and 10th and Jackson streets. A liberal reward will be paid for its return to this office. M. A. McMAHON. -Franz Joseph Hartman had $200 stolen from him in his boarding house. He had had the foresight to keep the number of the bill and traced it to a fellow boarder and Officer McCune followed the man up and arrested him. Yesterday Hartman with drew the complaint on the return of the money. -A man driving a team attached to a loaded wagon, had a narrow escape yesterday afternoon. He was somewhat under the influence of liquor and fell from the seat in front of the wheels. As he fell the wagon wheel entered a rut and the horses were unable to haul it out. Had it not been for this hole the man certainly would have been run over. -A boat 1:30 o'clock this morning Alex. Black discovered that Hill's butcher shop, at 414 South Thirtieth street, was on fire and sent in an alarm from box seven. The fire was in the first story, back of the shop, and was extinguished, with a loss of about $200. The building was owned by Pat Manning, the blacksmith. About twenty per cent on over the shop. -One hundred and fifty-nine beautiful residence lots, located on Hamilton street, half way between the turn table of the red street car line and the waterworks reservoir and addition, and just west of the convent of the Sisters Poor Claire in Shina's addition. Prices range from $75 to $110 each, and will be sold on easy terms to those who will improve. Bemis' real estate agency, Fifteenth and Douglas streets. -Formerly beers would not keep for any length of time, but "Conrad's Budweiser" may be laid down with impunity for almost any length of time, without losing its many good qualities. -Beauty, health, and happiness for ladies in "WINE OF CARDUI" A. C. F. Goodman.

COUNCIL.

Pat. O. Hawes Sends in a List of His Debtors.

The Sidewalk Committee Buying Up a Lumber Yard.

Deciding to Adjourn for Two Weeks This Time.

Messrs. Kaufmann, McGavock, Herman and Hornberger did not put in an appearance at the council meeting last evening. The mayor appointed Chas. W. Kane special policeman without pay at the central school, E. L. Dody at the north school, Chas. Henderson at the east school, Julius Wagner at the south school, Samuel Durnale at the Cass street school, and J. C. Christianson at the west school. The action was approved.

The mayor approved the ordinance to regulate the sale of spirituous and vinous liquors. In that connection he stated that while he did not approve of many of the provisions of the Stoumb law, still he thought it the duty of the executive officers of all municipalities to see that the law is enforced.

The mayor approved the appropriation ordinance for September, and the ordinance to amend ordinance 277. City Attorney Manderson, having looked up the records, decided that the old post house ground belongs to the city.

Mary W. Gaylord wanted her taxes on lot 2, Capitol addition, to be reduced from $1,000 to $200, same as last year. The matter was referred to the committee on finance. Thos. Gibson asked that an order be passed, prohibiting the throwing of dead animals into the river. Referred to the committee on police.

A committee of four Omaha citizens presented a resolution passed at a meeting in regard to the disposition of sewer bonds. The matter was referred to the city engineer. Messrs. Schaefer and Schroeder and the Chicago Lumber company petitioned for the filling up of an alley near Thirteenth and Leavenworth streets, stating they would bear most of the expense. It was referred to the committee on streets and grades.

A petition against the removal of the city seal was filed. A petition from citizens in regard to placing eight fire hydrants at points along Park avenue was referred to the committee on sewers. City Engineer Rosewater advised that oak coverings be placed on crossing on Tenth street between Farnham and the depot. About 8,500 feet of oak lumber would be required to do this and the costs would be $425. The matter was referred to the committee on streets and grades.

Ex-adm. Hawes' accounts were later audited and it seems there was a balance due the city. Hawes sends to the council the following list of persons who promised but, as he claims, never paid their bills: Smith, Thirtieth and Howard, $7.80; Cunningham, $11; Williams, $5.80; Green, $5.80; Frank Roberts, $5.80; Maud Sargent, $3; Nellie Ross, $3; Lillie Stephens, $3; Nellie Forsythe, $3; Mollie Kernan, $3; Lillie Kaufman, $3; Lattie Floy, $3; Cora Smith, $3; J. H. Darby, $3.80, and Frank Bullion, $4. The matter was placed on file.

City Engineer Rosewater submitted his approval of the sidewalks constructed by Frank Gardner. John Harbach offered the city $1,181 for lot 5 in block H. It was referred to the committee on public property. Chas. Gardner got the contract for building sidewalks. James Fox's proposal to curb and gutter Harney street from Eighth to Fifteenth was referred to the committee on streets and grades. The contract of John H. Green for curbing, guttering and grading Dodge street, with Fred Krug as surety, was approved.

W. S. Street's bond for furnishing hard coal was also approved. The city clerk was authorized to advertise for a week for bids to construct sidewalks along Farnham street that have not already been built. The city engineer was instructed to prepare an ordinance fixing the grade of Twenty-fourth street from Farnham to Dodge. The committee on sidewalks and bridges was authorized to buy 20,000 feet of pine lumber for cross-walk purposes. Gutters on Dodge between Fifteenth and Sixteenth streets, and on Sixteenth street to the bridge are to be cleared.

The street commissioner was instructed to place a small culvert across Sixteenth street, south side of Grace. Gas lamps are to be placed at Fourteenth and California, and Fourteenth and Fifteenth and Webster and at Fourteenth and Capitol avenue. Metz Bro.'s bill for $36.34 was allowed. The committee on police reported in favor of maintaining the present hay market on Fourteenth street between Farnham and Harney. Fred. Dellone reported that the additional room to the city jailer's office would cost $75 and the enclosure for deer at Harcom park $30. A hydrant will be placed at Eighth and Capitol avenue. Two hydrants will be placed at the Willow Spring's distillery.

The council called attention to the fact that there is a hay market on Chicago street between Fifteenth and Sixteenth streets. Council then adjourned for two weeks.

I feel like adding my testimonial, says Mrs. C. Whipple, 371 Croghan street, Detroit, Mich., to the very many in favor of St. Jacob's Oil. I can say that it has done wonders for me. For six years I had suffered beyond all expression with sciatic rheumatism and tried every known remedy, but all to no purpose. At last I saw in The Free Press an advertisement of the article and tried it, feeling it would be like all others—good for nothing. But thank God and the man that makes the remedy, I am well and free from pain.

Many Cattle. The C. B. & Q. railroad is always up to something out of the ordinary line, and on Monday it "made a corner" in the cattle transportation business. During the day the road shipped into Chicago thirty trains of stock, containing more cattle than were ever shipped before by any one railroad in one day in this country—6,482 head. When it is considered that the average daily receipts at the Chicago stock yards from all points are scarcely more than this number, the magnitude of the cattle business on Monday may be appreciated. About one-third of these cattle went through this city on Saturday and Sunday. Another third had been previously shipped and stored in the yards, and the remainder went from Iowa.

DISBANDED. Company C Goes Out of Existence. At a meeting of Co. C., national guard, held at their armory last night, the following was passed: Whereas, Since the organization of this company, for the period of two years, its existence has been sustained through the efforts of its officers and certain individual members, aided by many generous and patriotic private citizens, and Whereas, In the natural course of events the membership has become diminished by causes beyond control, without being able to offer sufficient inducements to recruit the company to a standard, and Whereas, No moneys appropriated to provide for expenses of the National Guard of Nebraska have been made available for the use of this company, and no consideration or provision has been offered for the discipline or government of the company beyond the law passed at the last session of the legislature creating the National Guard, and Whereas, Certain indebtedness has accrued for rent of armory, certain sums expended by the officers for necessary expenses and accounts outstanding against the company; therefore, Resolved, That all property of the company be disposed of to meet its outstanding liabilities. Resolved, That the members of this company hereby express the highest respect and regard for the soldierly qualification and many qualities of J. W. King, 1st lieutenant, and acknowledge the indefatigable and untiring efforts of Lieutenant King and Cramer, late captain, to maintain the existing status of the company. Resolved, That these resolutions be forwarded through the colonel of the regiment to the adjutant general and that a copy be given the press for publication.

Never too Late to Mend. Thos. J. Arden, who resides, East Buffalo, writes: "Your Spring Blossom has worked on me splendidly. I had no appetite; used to sleep badly and get up in the morning unrefreshed; my breath was very offensive and I suffered from severe headache; since using your Spring Blossom all these symptoms have vanished, and I feel quite well." Price 50 cents, trial bottles 10 cents.

Depredators Beware! A thief secured admittance to THE BEE office Monday night through the front door, which was carelessly left unlocked by an employe. He succeeded in disarranging a number of papers in the counting-room, some of which he carried off. None of these are of any use to anybody except this office. Some of these papers were found yesterday on South Tenth street. Considerable expense has been gone to in fitting up an infirmity machine for the special benefit of such nocturnal visitors. Any of these gentlemen contemplating another such call might bear this in mind as this machine never makes the mistake of blowing up the wrong man.

GOES TO ITS FATHER.

Prisoni Finally Awarded Possession of His Child.

The Case Compromised by the Mother-in-Law.

Close Call for a Director.

The Frisoni habeas corpus case was concluded before Judge Chadwick last evening. After hearing the testimony of Mrs. Pohlman, Dr. Frisoni himself was called to the stand. He said he had married Miss Pohlman on June 11, 1875. His wife died Nov. 21, 1879. They had two children, one of whom died when a mere baby. The second child, Teresa, for the possession of whom the proceeding was instituted, was born June 1, 1879. She was the second child born. As a whole his wedded life had not been a happy one. Soon after his marriage he was obliged to go to Germany owing to the death of his grandfather. In about three months he returned there again on business. Up to that time his wedded life had been pleasant. Upon his return from the second trip he noticed a decided coolness in the demeanor of his wife and was not long in discovering that it was due to the report that he had another wife in Germany. Of course there was no truth in this rumor. Every time his wife saw her relatives, more especially her mother, she came back home with some story or another. She would never give any names but always said that some one saw him in this saloon or with that person, and so on. Six days after the birth of the second child his wife had signed a $1,000 mortgage, and she seemed to be in very good condition then. He did not remember how much money he had left at home, but most of what he took with him to Chicago he had lost in business transactions. He had never been fortunate in such matters. Upon his return he provided for his wife as usual. About five weeks ago he wanted to see his wife and went to his mother's house and there remained until her every day. After the child was born he went to see his wife, but found the whole house locked up. He could not get in. Soon after that he saw from the opposite side of the street one of his brothers-in-law go up to the house, when he was at once admitted. Then he went there and found his mother-in-law, who had a pistol with which she said she wanted to kill him. In 1876 he built a house for his wife, which was never occupied. He had been sick himself and nobody had come to see him. On this occasion his wife had promised to go with him the following day, and they had had a long talk. His relatives talked her over. He visited the house again and took the child in his left arm. With his right he held back his wife while he escaped, but didn't frighten her. He passed 100, who seemed much frightened, and was soon afterward arrested by request of Dr. R. Rather than have his wife in court, he paid a fine for disturbing the peace. In August, 1878, divorce proceedings were begun by his wife, but these he induced her to withdraw and then sent her to Germany. After her return and for the following thirteen months which preceded her death they spent the happiest period of their married life. He had been with his wife up to 9 o'clock on the night she died and could not get in because he was worn out and could not stop in her mother's house. His wife died at 10:30. He had nursed her during her last illness, notwithstanding rumors to the contrary. He had made arrangements for the funeral. Standing over the dead body he had said to old Mrs. Pohlman: "Let us forget and forgive," and she had promised to do so. Never after that time was the child allowed to go to his home. He had frequently sent to his mother-in-law's house to be allowed to see the child on holidays, such as Christmas, but still she never came. As for the charge that he had thrown a glass of beer in his wife's face, it was ridiculous. He liked his beer too much for that. He may have flung a few drops at her in a playful way but that was all. The doctor concluded his testimony by saying that his mother-in-law was not a proper custodian for his child because while she would dress her in silks and velvets, she would not educate her. The motion was made by Mr. Thurston yesterday to dismiss the case, as the plaintiff had made no unconditional demand for the child. After arguing the case Mr. Redick for Frisoni agreed that the case should be dismissed at Frisoni's expense, provided that the child was given into his possession. Mrs. Pohlman agreed to this before 10 o'clock to-day. Until this is done the court will withhold its opinion.

Close Call for a Director. E. O. Mills, one of the directors of the Chicago & Northwestern railroad, and family, who passed east from San Francisco a few weeks ago to New York, arrived in this city yesterday on the return trip. They occupied a special car. During the night the train on the Northwestern road, to which Mr. Mills' car was attached, had a narrow escape from a fearful accident. While passing along a high embankment, as a passenger reported, the conductor noticed an unusual jolting of the train to a stop. Upon examination it was seen that a rail had become moved and two cars had already left the track and were running on the ties very close to the ends. If the train had run a hundred feet further it would doubtless have gone down the embankment. The vigilance of the conductor and the promptness of the engineer probably prevented a great disaster. The rail had probably been moved from its place by a heavy freight train, and an attempt at causing a wreck is suspected.

PERSONAL. Mrs. Atkinson has returned from New York. John J. Hull, of Edger, is at the Creighton house. Ed. Maurer returned last night from a trip to St. Louis. Mrs. C. A. Hammer, of York, is a guest at the Creighton house. J. A. Abbott, of Lincoln, is in town, staying at the Creighton house. J. P. H. Kinkaid, of Pierre, D. T., is a guest at the Creighton house. Dr. Frisoni, accompanied by the family of Mr. Schroter, leaves for Germany in a few days. Mine host, Herman Lepin, of Ledlin's hotel, at Hastings, is in the city, stopping at the Metropolitan.

Chief Engineer Bickenselder, of the Union Pacific road, went west yesterday on a tour of inspection. Guy Barton, of North Platte, arrived in this city yesterday. He will soon make Omaha his permanent home. Dr. R. V. Pierce, of the Buffalo Medical Dispensary, passed through this city yesterday on his way home from a trans-continental trip. Chas. H. Hendrie's has received an autograph letter from Emma Abbott because of his favorable criticism of her performance while here.

Among the "strangers in a strange land," but hospitably cared for at the Withnell, are Joshua S. Williams, wife and two daughters, from New Zealand. The Withnell house register contains the following names of readers of THE BEE: M. H. Earle, Grand Island; R. A. Ketchum, Yankton, D. T.; L. F. Taylor, Lincoln; Mrs. Erickson, Strausburg.

William Roof, of the extensive cigar manufacturing firm in Binghamton, New York, known as Geo. A. Kent & Co., is in the city. He has a broad smile for his many old friends from the Parlor City. J. S. Halbert went east yesterday. "Jack" stated that Chicago was his destination, but his knowing friends look wise and hint that he misses the great central metropolis of America by about forty miles.

The following are among those registered at the Metropolitan: A. J. Wright, Teumeh; George Culp, Lincoln; Mrs. O. W. Robinson and son, Bloomington; E. Dill, Sterling; Dr. Elwood, North Bend; N. W. Holcomb, Liberty, Mo. D. J. O'Donohue, of Brockville, Ont., has come to this city with the intention of remaining here permanently. He has just returned with his wife from a European trip and enters into the employ of a prominent dry goods house of this city.

Sir Sidney Waterloo and family, consisting of his wife, daughter, son and sister, passed through the city yesterday afternoon in a special car for the east. They are on their return from a trip to the coast, and will proceed directly to England. Sir Sidney was formerly lord mayor of London.

Virtue Acknowledged. Mrs. Ira Mulholland, Albany, N. Y., writes: "For several years I have suffered from recurring bilious headaches, constipation, dyspepsia, and complaints peculiar to my sex. Since using your BURBICK BLOOD BITTERS I am entirely relieved." Price $1, trial size 10 cents.

Scrapped His Cash. A railroad man named William Lawless was robbed of about $40 in money and part of his clothing in a Twelfth street saloon last night. The thieves have not been caught as yet, although the victim knows who they are.

What's In a Name? New York Spirit of the Times. Ex-Governor Bowie, of Maryland, (the owner of the famous race horse "Crickmore," while pleasantly chatting with the managing partner of a heavy advertising firm in Baltimore, was somewhat surprised by the question addressed to him, whether he would be willing to grant the privilege of re-christening his favorite horse for the sum of $5,000. The offer, of course, a tempting one, was courteously and thankfully declined. It is hardly necessary to suggest that if the proposition had been accepted, the great "Crickmore" would for the future add new and brighter lustre to the fame and popularity of St. Jacobs Oil.

E. C. Ellis' Death. Edmund C. Ellis, junior member of the late firm of Irwin & Ellis, died Monday night after a protracted illness at his residence 1915 Webster street. The cause of Mr. Ellis' death was consumption and his demise had not been unexpected by his friends. He was thirty-four years of age and leaves a wife and five children. His funeral takes place to-morrow.

DIED. ELLIS—Monday, October 10, Edmund C. Ellis, aged 34 years. Friends invited to attend the funeral Wednesday, 3 p. m., from the residence, 1915 Webster street.

ST. JOSEPH'S HOSPITAL.

Crying Necessity for More Room There.

To the Editor of THE BEE.

OMAHA, October 11.—It is in fact a crying necessity to have an addition built to the present St. Joseph's hospital. Patients are daily refused admittance on account the lack of room. As soon as one patient leaves the hospital there are a half a dozen applications, and of these five must be refused. Is it, therefore, too much to ask the citizens of Omaha, especially those who are blessed with temporal prosperity, to come to the aid of the relief of poor and suffering humanity? The sisters are daily exerting every nerve to the utmost to alleviate the pains of the poor sufferers, but they can not receive more than the present insufficient capacities allow. Therefore, come forward—not only with words of charity and philanthropy, but with liberal contributions for the new addition. Show that you mean what you say; be charitable not only in word but in deeds. Do not postpone this noble act of charity longer, but set to work. Make the excavations for cellars and foundations, and raise the structure as soon as possible. Let the sufferers have room. CHARLES.

"WINE OF CARDUI" four times a day makes a happy household. AT C. F. Goodman
