OHIO AND IOWA ELECTION

A Republican Legislature Elected in Ohio.

Foster's Majority for Governor Will Reach Nearly 20,000.

Sherman Elected Governor of Iowa by Over 55,000 Majority.

Several Democratic Strongholds in Iowa Carried by the Republicans.

The Legislature Republican by Largely Increased Majorities.

An Unusually Light Vote Polled in Iowa.

OHIO

CINCINNATI, October 12.—At 1 a. m., returns are very meagre, but enough to indicate that Foster's majority is not far from 15,000 and the remainder of the republican state ticket about the same. In Hamilton county the count will be in progress till daylight but there is little scratching on the state ticket and Foster's majority will probably reach 1,200. A democratic judge and one or two candidates are probably elected through republican scratching. It looks as if the legislature will be republican, but may depend on Hamilton county, which is still very uncertain.

COLUMBUS, O., October 12.—At 12:30 a. m. democratic concede Foster's election by 8,000, while the republicans claim it by 15,000. The legislature is in doubt and depending on the result in Hamilton county, which may not be determined until to-morrow. Four hundred and thirty-three wards and precincts give a net democratic gain of 115. Every indication is that the close counties are republican for the legislature.

Later returns show that the republican candidates for the legislature have been elected in Muskegon county and in Van Wert. The democrats even fear that Foster has carried Franklin county. But few remain at the democratic headquarters. A strong band has just been sent over to strengthen them from the republican headquarters.

COLUMBUS, O., October 12.—Chairman Nash, of the republican state committee has just said that Foster's majority will not be less than 15,000. A republican house of representatives is assured without Hamilton county considered and he has hopes of the senate. He says the republicans have gained representatives in the following democratic counties: Clermont, Henry, Vinton and Wayne and have carried the following republican counties that were regarded doubtful: Delaware, Erie, Hardin, Knox, Madison, Muskegon, Portage, Ross and Seneca.

IOWA

DES MOINES, October 12.—Returns from yesterday's election are very much delayed. The state campaign on the part of the republicans and democrats has not been prosecuted with spirit, which accounts for the very light vote. There has been a strong fight made in this city and county on local matters but the straight republican ticket has been elected unless possibly one representative may go to the democrats when the full returns are in. The fact that the fight has been mainly local has caused all the ticket to be scratched on an unprecedented extent and full returns will be very much delayed. Up to an early hour this morning reports had been received from a portion of thirty-eight counties, some of them nearly in full. These returns give Sherman, republican, for governor, 5,879 majority over Kinne, democrat. Last year the same counties gave Garfield 8,681 majority. The same relative vote over the state will give Sherman a majority of between 50,000 and 55,000 over the democrats and a majority of 35,000 over all. The reports indicate a republican majority of 90 in the legislature. The senate will be more strongly republican than in 1879, as there is a gain of one in Dubuque and one in Lee and possible one in Keokuk. There have been fewer republican losses on account of the prohibitory amendment than were expected and some of the prohibition losses on the republican side in Cass county run closer to other causes than that.

DES MOINES, October 12.—Returns from all portions of the state show that the vote polled yesterday was unusually light. There seems to have been a proportionate falling off of strength among the three parties. The greenbacks, contrary to expectations, holding their own. In Dubuque county the fight centered on candidates for senator, J. K. Graves, republican, carried the county by about 1,000 majority. The republican legislative ticket in Lee county is also elected. These are both democratic strongholds. Incomplete returns indicate that the state has gone republican by about 40,000 majority over the democratic and 20,000 to 25,000 over all. The republican majority in the legislature will range from 90 to 100 on the joint ballot. Altogether it was a clean sweep exceeding expectations.

DES MOINES, Ia., October 12.—The city complete gives Sherman 1,954, Kinne, 902, Clark 206, a republican majority over all of 846. In Polk county the republican majority is about 1,600, with the entire ticket elected. Lee county, usually democratic, elected the whole republican ticket. DES MOINES, Ia., October 12.—Returns from 75 of the 99 counties in the state somewhat change previous estimates of the result of the election and show a falling off of the greenback vote and indicate that it will drop below a total of 25,000. The republican ticket gains steadily and the majority will undoubtedly reach upwards of 50,000. The democrats have lost members of the legislature in democratic cities and have gained a few straggling members in unexpected portions of the state. But their total representation will be reduced.

NEW YORK DEMOCRATS

TILDEN CONTROLS THE CONVENTION. ALBANY, October 12.—In the democratic convention to-day a permanent organization was effected by the election of Erastus Brooks, of Richmond, permanent chairman. Both the Tammany hall and Irving hall delegations were excluded from participation in the convention, and returned to New York to-day without voting. Every movement in the convention showed the influence of Samuel J. Tilden. The principal officers were all strong Tilden men. The platform is made up almost entirely of retrospects bearing on the Tilden gubernatorial term of 1874-76, the reforms and tax reduction, of some of the advice to the democrats to institute some reforms, of the advice to have them carried to Washington, and of course of the republicans for the alleged fraud of 1876, which, the platform says, was repeated in other forms and defrauded Hancock out of his election. The republicans see in the whole proceeding a prospect that Tilden will seek the nomination for governor at next year's election with a view to the presidency in 1884. The following ticket was nominated: Secretary of State—Wm. Purcell, of Rochester. Controllor—Geo. H. Lapham, of Yale county. Attorney-General—Roswell A. Parmenter, of Troy. State Treasurer—Robert A. Maxwell, of Genesee. State Engineer—Thos. Evered. All the nominees are strong Tilden men.

MASSACHUSETTS PROHIBITIONISTS

BOSTON, Mass., October 12.—The prohibitory state committee nominated Dr. John Blackmer, of Springfield, for lieutenant-governor in place of the late Timothy C. Earl, of Worcester.

INJUNCTION REFUSED

INDIANAPOLIS, October 12.—George Gould, son of Jay Gould, the railroad king, was to-day refused an injunction in the United States court to restrain certain parties from voting stock at the Ohio & Mississippi election at Cincinnati in the Garrett interest, which he alleged, is held by him and should be voted in the Gould interest. The application was made to Judge Gresham, who ruled that the injunction should be granted, if at all, in the United States court at Cincinnati, where the election takes place and the company has its office.

INDICATIONS

MARQUIS OF LORNE

CHICAGO, October 12.—The Marquis of Lorne, governor-general of Canada, with his suite, arrived here to-day from Winnipeg en route to Montreal.

A $15,000 Draft Discloses the True State of Affairs.

An Indiana Murderer Pursued and Killed.

Miscellaneous Telegraphic Dispatches.

Ruined by Speculation.

PHILADELPHIA, October 12.—The announcement this morning of the failure of the almost historic firm of Washington, Butcher & Sons, carried with it the most intense surprise. The immediate cause of the disaster, which, as far as can be learned, involved $1,000,000, was a draft from Chicago for the comparatively beggarly sum of $15,000. So much was told inquirers, and the additional fact that the losers were almost solely Philadelphia banks. The firm has an honorable record of one hundred and twenty years standing. Representatives of the firm said this morning, "It is the Chicago office that overweighed us. For months there has been continuous and heavy drafts to carry the speculative accounts in that office, which was managed by P. Darlington. That office was started to do the provision purchasing for the Philadelphia and Antwerp houses; from that it developed into a brokerage, in which many firms here and elsewhere had accounts. Our embarrassments have arisen from the failure of customers to make good their contracts with us. The money to carry these contracts was remitted hence to the Chicago office and the inability to get funds to settle the $15,000 draft simply precipitated matters. The recent decline in grain, of which we carried large quantities for customers, drained not only our bank accounts but strained our credit until it yielded. We have not had time to make up our accounts but the losers, the banks, will not lose more than 15 or 20 per cent of their claims. If we had time to convert our assets we could pay dollar for dollar."

CHICAGO, October 12.—Mr. Henry P. Darlington, the manager of the Chicago branch of the firm of Washington, Butcher & Sons, this morning informed a representative of the National Associated Press that while the firm have been doing a general commission business their trades in the market have been very light and so fully engaged that they would be closed out without loss. His advisers from the Philadelphia agency have been very meagre, simply consisting of a telegram received late last evening to the effect that a $15,000 draft drawn by him had gone to protest at Philadelphia, and that the liabilities of the firm were about $1,000,000 and the assets $800,000. Not knowing the intentions of the firm, he cannot say what steps will be taken. There are sufficient funds in the Chicago office to clear the firm at this and western points, and he presumes it will be devoted to that purpose. All outstanding trades will be closed at once.

CRIME

DEFAULTING TREASURER CAPTURED. MONTREAL, October 12.—The Scotland yard detective agency has notified Detective Fahy, of the Dominion detective agency, that John Robinson, the defaulting treasurer of the Chicago, LaSalle & Michigan railway, who escaped through Maryland to New York, where he took passage to Europe on the steamer Quebec, has been arrested and will be detained for extradition. An officer from Montreal has gone to Chicago to secure the necessary extradition papers, and will proceed with them to London and secure the prisoner.

AN INDIANA TRAGEDY. NEW ALBANY, Ind., October 12.—A remarkable tragedy occurred in Lawrence county, Indiana, yesterday. Basil McLanesh and instantly killed a stock trader named Jno. Arnold.

The murderer was pursued by thirteen young men, who shot at random through the closed door of a house in which McLane was concealed and wounded him so that he died.

WEED'S REMINISCENCES

CHICAGO, October 12.—A New York special says: Mr. Thurlow Weed was asked to-day if he agreed with the report this morning that Gen. W. T. Sherman wrote a letter to a friend in Ohio, saying that the statement of his (Weed's) intervention with President Lincoln and Secretary Cameron to bring Gen. Sherman back into the military service in 1862 was all news to him, and that he cannot remember that he ever saw Weed till long after the war was over. Mr. Weed said: "Yes, that is very true. In the latter part of 1860, or early in 1861, I consulted with Gen. Winfield Scott and General Taylor, brother of President Taylor. Gen. Taylor stated to me that some of the best men we had were on retirement. One was Gen. Sherman, who was at that time president of a college in Louisiana. Another was McClellan, chief engineer of a railroad in Illinois. I reported this to President Lincoln and Mr. Cameron, and both of these gentlemen Gen. Taylor spoke of were brought into the army. I myself knew neither of them personally afterwards. Col. Taylor, of Connecticut, was also brought in at the time. Gen. Taylor spoke very highly of Sherman, saying that he could render great service to the country. "What was Gen. Scott's opinion of the gentlemen referred to?" Gen. Scott, who was then too old to take command of the army, was asked who was competent to be his successor. He replied that it was difficult to answer because both Lee and Johnson had gone over to the confederates. Mr. Lincoln is alive, would corroborate all that I have said!"

All of the executive officers of the company were re-elected, viz: Dr. Norvin Greene, president; Messrs. J. Eckert, Morgan, Van Horn, Schell and Durkee, vice presidents; Gen. Eckert was elected vice president and general manager. The executive committee consists of the first named persons in the list of directors.

GRAIN AND PROVISION RATES.

CHICAGO, October 12.—Although the open rate on grain is 12 1/2 cents per hundred pounds from Chicago to New York with the usual difference of two and three cents less to Philadelphia and Baltimore, yet it is generally understood that large contracts are being made at 10 cents from Chicago to New York on flour rates. The provision rates were well maintained at 17 cents per 100 pounds from Chicago to New York for some weeks past but yesterday they dropped down to 15 cents for New York, 13 cents to Philadelphia and 12 cents to Baltimore. The rates on bulk meat also dropped 2 1/2 to 5 cents per hundred pounds and are now generally quoted at 5 cents above the provision rates. The effect of this will be a large increase in provision and bulk meat shipments.

DOINGS IN THE DOMINION.

OTTAWA, Ont., October 12.—Rev. Father Nugent to-day interviewed Sir John Macdonald and the minister of agriculture on the subject of Irish immigration. The ministers expressed themselves favorably toward granting land to Irish settlers. The Canadian parliament will meet for the dispatch of business the second week of January. It is rumored in political circles that Pope, minister of agriculture, will be appointed to the Montreal customs collectorship to make room in the Dominion cabinet for Sir Alexander Gait.

The Dominion government has reviewed Murray & Co. of the contract for building the Wolland canal aqueduct. The job is worth $500,000.

GOING FOR GRAIN GAMBLERS.

CHICAGO, October 12.—Judge Jamieson, in the criminal court this morning, created a decided sensation by charging the grand jury particularly to apply the laws on the statute books regarding gambling in grain options and the "cornering" of grain. He rules that the establishing of artificial values has grown to such enormous proportions as to be called to the attention of the courts. The charge is altogether out of the regular order, and falls like a thunderbolt in the board of trade circles.

Prudin, private secretary, entered the chamber at 12:15 p. m. and delivered a message from the president, and also a long list of nominations. DEMOCRATIC CAUSUS.

The democratic caucus was a session for about an hour and did nothing. It adjourned subject to the call of the chairman.

CABINET RUMORS.

The president still keeps close counsel in regard to his intended cabinet changes. Several of the cabinet were with him to-day but the removal question was not touched on. The matters considered were department vacancies recently filled and to be filled. There will be a large batch of nominations sent to the senate to-morrow, principally of postmasters and officers of the interior department. It is now thought that the president will not nominate the successor of either Secretary Blaine or Hunt for some days as these gentlemen are to escort and entertain the French visitors at Yorktown. It is expected that the nomination of the new secretary of the interior and attorney-general will come to-morrow, though they may not. The last gossip is that ex-Senator Boutwell, of Massachusetts, is to be attorney-general, and that ex-Gov. Morgan, of New York, has at his disposal the acceptance of the treasury portfolio. It is rumored that ex-Senator Conkling is in New York to prevail on Gov. Morgan to accept. The chances in the cabinet, it is further said, will be deferred altogether on such acceptance or declination. Secretary Blaine's friends now say he will remain in the cabinet until December at least. It is not improbable that Postmaster-General James will remain in the cabinet until the star route prosecutions are cleared. An Indiana delegate now in the city is said to be pushing Judge Gresham and John C. New for cabinet portfolio.

DAVIS NOMINATED FOR THE PRESIDENCY PRO TEM.

The decision of the republican caucus to offer a resolution for the election of David Davis to the presidency of the senate has caused the biggest kind of a ruffe among legislators. The democrats recognize the fact that the opposition would not have taken such a step if they were not sure of the game. A story was started to-day that the nomination was made in the republican caucus without knowledge as to whether Davis would consent but later it was learned that the senator from Illinois had nothing to say and it had been taken for granted. He would before have nothing to say when the vote was taken on his election. Efforts to interview him have been fruitless but even democrats admit his capture by the enemy, though are not quite so sure that republicans will be ready to take a vote to-morrow. The republican idea does not seem to be so much that Davis as a man or partisan is better suited for the vice presidency than Mr. Bayard, but that if he received the position at their hands he will no doubt feel constrained to abstain from voting when necessary to the accomplishment of their desires in regard to further organization. Whether the election of Davis is undertaken to-morrow or not the republicans will stick to Edmunds' resolution for the continuation of the last session committee.

The democrats in caucus this evening decided to offer an amendment dispensing with any reorganization of the committees except Indian affairs, pensions, army and navy, postoffice and foreign or those deemed necessary by the character of executive nominations. In regard to any democratic opposition to the proposed Davis resolutions the democrats propose, according to Pendleton, to attempt delay. If they have captured Davis they have things their own way, and we will submit. "He will vote solidly against his election as a matter of course," said another senator. It is understood that several republicans senators found themselves unable to vote in favor of the Davis nomination, but there was a round majority and the whole vote goes with it so far as now known. The uncertainty of this point may keep shut from being tried to-morrow. The democrats still decline to elect a secretary of the senate and thus far the republicans have failed to reach a decision as to whether they will attempt it. The chances are against the election of such an officer this session. The general sentiment of the caucuses of both sides to-day was against adjourning over for Yorktown or anything else until the business of the session is completed. No vote was taken on this question, however.

SUITEAU.

NO ABRAHAMSON YET.

WASHINGTON, October 12.—Scoville, Guiteau's cousin, seems anxious to have the assassin's case proceed a little. He wants him to plead. Then he will move for two months' delay for preparation. The district attorney is not in so much of a hurry for some reason, but the arraignment is promised some day this week. The assassin is said to be growing uglier. His counsel says: "I tried to obtain from him the names of persons for witnesses in towns and other places that he had been for the purpose of finding out his conduct and condition of mind before coming to this city. He would not give me a single name, and refused to converse about the case."

The jailors report that about Sunday yesterday, while Scoville was in the warden's office with Guiteau, a rather neatly dressed man, about six feet in height, made his appearance and said he had been sent to the jail to see Guiteau by one of the latter's friends. Warden General Crocker informed him that it was an unseasonable him and he could not see him. The man reluctantly left. There is an impression that the man came to the city for the express purpose of killing the prisoner. A gentleman who saw Guiteau in his cell this morning says he found him sitting on his bed reading a book. The prisoner's eyes were terribly bloodshot, the result of a terrible high fever. He expressed himself as being afraid that his strength would not last through the trial. The assassin talked rapidly and incessantly, his health being the subject of conversation. He complained greatly about malaria.

COUNTERFEITERS CAPTURED.

An agent of the secret service division telegraphs the arrest yesterday at Guthrie, Ky., of Newton H. McRae, Wm. Tindley and J. D. Duffel for dealing in counterfeit silver coin. One hundred and thirty counterfeit silver dollars were found in Duffel's possession. All were heavily armed and resisted desperately.
