STOCKS.

The stock market to-day, with the exception of a few spasms of weakness, was strong and buoyant throughout. Dealings were large and attended with considerable animation. There were large purchases for both long and short account, under which prices advanced sharply and closed at the highest point of the day. An important feature of to-day's dealings was elevated shares, which advanced on reports that difficulties existing between the roads were in process of settlement. These reports were subsequently denied but repeated later. The advance for the day, outside of elevated stocks, ranged from ½@4 per cent.

On 'Change the market opened higher, but very soon became weak and drooping. The receipts of grain were 1,056 car loads by rail, embracing 136 of wheat, 721 of corn, 104 of oats, 32 of rye and 63 of barley.

Wheat—No. 2 red winter ruled quiet and nominally; same do. spring. In No. 2 spring a very large speculative business was transacted in this market and the feeling was decidedly unsettled and prices irregular. Early in the day the market was stronger and prices advanced 1½@1⅝c above the closing figures on 'Change yesterday. Later, however, the offers were increased and prices began to weaken—steadily at first, but as the offerings increased the depression became more marked and rapid, and a decline of 4½@5c per bushel was established, as compared with the highest price paid early in the day. Then a reaction of 1¼@2c followed, fluctuated, and finally closed on regular board at 1 31¼ for October; 1 32⅜ for November; 1 34½ for December; 1 36 for January; No. 3 spring, 1 18; rejected nominal.

Corn—A fair demand prevailed during the early part of the session and prices were advanced ¾@1c. When the outside figures were reached, the offerings for future deliveries were largely increased, and prices gradually declined 3@3½c on the whole range and ruled tame to the close. The shipping demand was moderate. The market finally closed on regular board at 59¾@60c for October; 60c for November; 61⅜c for December; 60c for the year; 67½c for May; rejected, 56½c.
