SENATE.

WASHINGTON, October 16.—Morgan offered a resolution to print for the use of the senate, 2,500 copies of the report of the secretary of state to the world. Morgan emphasized this report as the most important publication on this subject that had ever come from the house.

Morgan also spoke of the great value of the report which had recently been made by consuls to the state department on commercial subjects. The resolution was referred to the committee on printing.

On motion of Garland, the senate went into executive session.

The senate in executive session to-day, confirmed the following nominations: Noah C. McFarland, of Kansas, to be commissioner of the general land office.

MISCELLANEOUS.

STANDARD SILVER DOLLARS.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 15.—During the week the amount of standard silver dollars distributed by the treasury was $513,000.

FIVE PER CENT LOAN OF 1881.

Books of the 5 per cent. loan of 1881, continuing at 34 per cent., are being closed for the purpose of preparing checks for the November 1st dividend. The assistant treasurer at New York has been instructed that should any such loans be included in the weekly purchase, the seller must deposit the amount of the interest on the bonds from August 12th to October 31st, both days inclusively, as the dividend will be paid to the parties on whose names the bonds stand on the first instance. The bonds purchased will be paid for at par. Up to noon to-day bonds had been received at the treasury under the call of October 10th to the amount of $4,271,000.

PREPARING A BANKRUPT LAW.

The subcommittee of the senate judiciary committee, to prepare a bankruptcy law, will meet during recess and endeavor to have an act ready for submission to the senate. Senators Ingalls, McMillan and Garland compose the subcommittee.

THE YORKTOWN VISITORS.

The movements of the French and German guests to-day consisted of a ride to the Soldiers' home and national fair grounds, in which they were accompanied by Secretary Blaine, the French minister, M. Outrey, and the German minister. The city is illuminated by electric lights to-night in their honor, and the visitors are being dined by their friends. The Germans are at Secretary Blaine's. At 10 o'clock on Monday the foreign guests will leave for Yorktown on board the Katskill. The French guests will go on board their own war ship and proceed to Yorktown. Secretary Blaine will go with the guests on the Katskill.

THE SECRETARYSHIP.

The senate has decided to take a recess from Monday next until Friday, and most of the Senators will go to Yorktown. The republicans will go to something about the secretaryship before adjournment. Senator Garland read a resolution authorizing the chief clerk to perform the duties of secretary as acting secretary until the election of that officer, but it appears that some democrats are opposed to introducing it, and insist on going into the election of a secretary. A democratic caucus is called for Monday morning. Apparently a majority will declare in favor of the chief clerk resolution, on the ground that a democratic secretary cannot be elected.

Senator Davis will vote for the resolution, and the republicans are willing that it be adopted. It is thought that the democratic candidate L. Q. Washington, cannot be elected.

KELLY UNABLE TO ATTEND. WASHINGTON, October 15.—John Kelly of New York has sent the following:

NEW YORK, October 15.—Hon. James G. Blaine, Secretary of State, Washington, D. C.: Having been absent from my office since yesterday at 12 m. is the excuse which I offer in not being able to respond to your very great kindness, inviting me to accompany the French and German guests of the government to Yorktown. I regret I will not be able to avail myself of the pleasure as I have important business to attend to on Monday next in this city. JOHN KELLY.

ARRANGEMENTS PERFECTED. Admiral Porter returned from Yorktown on the Despatch, this morning. He reported that arrangements are being grandly perfected for the national celebration. The Despatch is now at the service of the President and Cabinet for next week.

PRESENTED TO THE PRESIDENT. WASHINGTON, October 15.—The officers of the army and navy were officially presented to the President this morning by Secretaries Lincoln and Hunt.

SENATOR MAHONE ARRESTED. WASHINGTON, October 16.—Senator Mahone was arrested this evening about 8 o'clock, upon a warrant sworn out by Colonel Strong, of this district, charging him with intent to violate the district laws in his purpose to leave the city in order to fight a duel with Jubal A. Early, of Virginia.

The warrant was placed in the hands of a detective, Captain Vernon, who served it upon Mahone. The senator seemed greatly surprised at the course affairs had taken, but expressed his willingness to accompany the officers. He was therefore placed in a hack with the officers and was driven to Judge Snell's residence, where the party alighted. The judge was found in his private office. He was greatly surprised to see a senator of the United States under arrest. Col. Strong then stated the reasons that influenced him in swearing out the warrant. Senator Mahone said he had no thought of leaving the city and the idea that he would fight an old man like Early was absurd. The judge then took Mahone's personal recognition that he would not leave the city for the purpose charged in the warrant, and the senator left shortly after for his home.

MAHONE LEAVES WASHINGTON. United States Senator Mahone, of Virginia, left Washington at 11 o'clock this morning for Richmond. Gossip, of course, says that his absence has something to do with the Jubal Early duel; but as the senator was under a personal bond not to leave for the purpose of engaging in a duel, the gossip are doubtless wrong. He is expected back to-morrow, as he has no pair in the senate.

WILL NOT UNSEAT DAVIS. WASHINGTON, October 16.—Senator Pendleton authorizes the statement that the democratic senate caucus called for to-morrow morning, will take no steps towards attempting to unseat Mr. Davis from the chair by assisting a republican to that high office. The report that such a design was contemplated to-day could only have been based on the dissatisfaction of some republicans. It is well known that some republicans wish some thorough republican president of the senate, and the question has been mooted whether Mr. Davis would now vote for Mr. Anthony to take chair. It is positively asserted, however, that neither of these matters have caucus significance. The republicans having no caucus in view are apparently well enough satisfied with not having a democratic president pro tem. The democrats are not desirous of making public their minority particularly to help the majority out of any scrape some of them may think they are in. The democratic caucus will simply consider the advisability of the motion that the chief clerk perform the duties of secretary of the senate until one is elected. It is understood that Mr. Davis has declared in favor of such a proceeding. The publicans will let the question of secretary rest as far as taking the initiative is concerned, until they return from Yorktown, but will not oppose a democratic caucus as proposed above. The president will send another large batch of appointments to the senate to-morrow.

WM. E. CHANDLER. William E. Chandler is in town, getting the drift of things. He predicts that every member of Arthur's cabinet will be a practical politician, and be appointed to strengthen the party machinery. Of Garfield's cabinet, only Blaine, Windom and Kirkwood were of this class. Hunt, Lincoln, James and MacVeagh have absolutely no value in politics. He thinks none of the old cabinet will be retained permanently.

THE VILLAIN'S LIFE UNSAFE. WASHINGTON, October 15.—The jail warden reports that he considers Guiteau's life unsafe so long as the jail continues to have so many curious visitors. Almost every day suspicious persons try hard to get a look at the assassin. To-day two men visited the jail. One of them rang the bell and asked admission, which was denied. Shortly after daylight Wednesday morning a party was noticed in the neighborhood of the jail. They were warned off the grounds. One of them was seen making a careful survey of the surroundings of the jail, the height of the windows from the ground, etc.

GUITEAU MANAGES TO LEARN OF THESE things and they keep him in constant terror. Mr. Scoville says Guiteau is naturally very timid. He was very nervous while at court but has since become more tranquil because he was not then attacked. Scoville makes the following statement: "Guiteau was once a handsome and winning man, careful about his dress. He could talk with a stranger for a few minutes and then borrow money from him, where an old acquaintance could not. I have known him to go into the Palmer house at Chicago three different times in succession and get accommodations, although on each former occasion he had been turned out. His moral sense is so defective that he thought every such thing was all right. His idea was, 'I haven't money now, but I will have some soon. As a lawyer, I believe he never tried a case in his life. Finding he could not carry on litigation, he took to collecting. He would follow a man like a hound until he got his money. Any half-witted man could do this. I will bring this all out in the trial. Insanity may, of course, be the strongest point raised in defense. If Guiteau is not crazy, he ought to be hung.'"

RIDDLEBERGER'S DUALS. National Associated Press. RICHMOND, Va., October 15.—H. H. Riddleberger, whose name last spring at the session of the United States senate attained notoriety as a candidate for sergeant-at-arms of the senate, to-day fought two duels, one with R. F. Berline, editor of the Richmond Star, and the other with Geo. D. Wise, congressman-elect from that district. The duels grew out of the bitterness of the gubernatorial canvass between the funders and red-adjusters, Cameron being the candidate for the latter and Jno. W. Dumel candidate for the former. Letters purporting to have been written by Mr. Blaine, readjuster candidate for attorney general, to Leigh Wilson, bitterly denouncing prominent red-adjusters. The funder organ gave the wildest publicity to these letters with telling effect. The Richmond Whip, the readjuster's paper, denounced the letters as a forgery, and Friday published the confession of Wilson, who said they were forgeries, and that his name was procured while he was drunk by Dumel and Wise. This confession was supplemented by a statement from Riddleberger that the confession was genuine, and had been sworn to. The funding papers then published denials of the confession, and said the denial was a fabrication by Riddleberger, Wilson & Co., and that Riddleberger had paid Wilson to deny that he had made the confession. The Richmond State was particularly severe in this denunciation of Riddleberger. Friday's editorial referred to him as a "confidence man, trading in the false mutterings of a drunk fellow, drawn out with money, etc." In the same edition Wise published a card to the same effect. What occurred afterwards is not precisely known, but Riddleberger was in the city at the time, and a friend of his first waited on Mr. Berline, editor of the State, who was understood to be responsible for the article denouncing him, and left a challenge to mortal combat from Riddleberger, which Mr. Berline promptly accepted. Shortly thereafter Riddleberger dispatched a challenge to Wise. This was also promptly accepted. The first meeting was between Riddleberger and Berline, at 8 o'clock this morning. The duel did not come off.

THE IOWA ELECTION. DES MOINES, October 15.—The latest returns indicate that the next house will stand: Republicans 72, democrats 20, greenbackers and fusion 2. The last house stood: Republicans 81, democrats 13, greenback 5, independent republicans 1. The next senate will have a gain of 5 republicans that will give a majority of 88 on joint ballot and a loss of 4. Several counties yet to come in are claimed by both sides, but the official result will not change the above more than 2 votes.

DUBUQUE, Ia., October 15.—The latest election returns indicate that the legislature will contain 117 republicans. Of these 92 will vote for Hon. J. F. Wilson for the United States Senate seat. Secretary Kirkwood will not be a candidate for the long term against Wilson.

TAMMANY'S CHOICE. National Associated Press. NEW YORK, Oct. 15.—It is claimed by the representatives of the county democratic faction re-organized by the state convention, that the nomination of John McKeon for district attorney by Tammany was proof of sharp practice, that McKeon is an enemy of John Kelly, and that he was nominated for the purpose of giving the impression that he was Tammany's choice.

National Associated Press. SOLDIERS ORDERED TO FIRE AT THEIR OWN DISCRETION.

NEW YORK, October 15.—A cable dispatch from the Land League, room 33, upper Sackville street, Dublin, to the Irish World of New York, says: "Everything is excitement. Indignation is at a boiling point. Do not be surprised at anything, even to cold-blooded murder of the people. Eagan exposes the plot of the Gladstone government to begin the bloody work on Limerick. The soldiers are under orders to fire at their own discretion. Eagan has telegraphed Foster that such a damnable design will be carried out at great peril. Nothing short of actual slaughter will precipitate matters and every effort will be made on the part of the people to avoid everything which could afford a pretext for such a course on the part of the soldiery. The people are obeying nobly the proclamation of the Land League to avoid every act and show a fixed determination not to be drawn into any trap."

O'CONNOR ON THE SITUATION. NEW YORK, Oct. 16.—Mr. S. F. O'Connor, M. P., after the announcement of the arrest of Parnell, Gladstone and Sir Wm. Vernor Harcourt have been receiving threatening letters of a very unusual character. In consequence of this a special patrol of police is maintained about the residences of the cabinet ministers.

ORDERED TO IRELAND. LONDON, Oct. 15.—Despite denials it is true that since the arrest of Parnell, Gladstone and Sir Wm. Vernor Harcourt have been receiving threatening letters of a very unusual character. In consequence of this a special patrol of police is maintained about the residences of the cabinet ministers.

MORE WARRANTS. LONDON, Oct. 15.—The double-armed armor-plated corvette Penelope has been ordered from Norwich to Ireland immediately.

OTHER FOREIGN AFFAIRS. RESIGNATION OF THE FRENCH MINISTRY. PARIS, October 16.—The entire cabinet have tendered their resignation to President Grevy, who received them, and immediately sent for Gambetta and charged him to form a new one, which task he undertook. All this was in pursuance of arrangement agreed upon last night. Thursday morning after conferring with his fellow ministers M. Jules Ferry, Minister of Public Instruction, visited Grevy and informed him that in view of the approaching meeting of the newly elected assembly the cabinet had resolved to request the President to accept their resignations and to ask Gambetta to form a new ministry, which should be perfectly in accord with the new assembly. The president made feeble protests, but a perfect understanding was in time arrived at, dependent only on Gambetta. The counsel Friday was consumed in certain negotiations, and all having at last been arranged in peace their resignations were accepted. Gambetta is now engaged in perfecting the arrangements which have been agreed upon. The foes of Gambetta are disposed to show exultation at what has happened. They say that the weakness of man will now be made manifest. That then it was easy enough for him to advise the assembly to appeal to the people and defy the government when he was without responsibility, but the real test of his abilities and genuine influence with the people is now to come. The air is full of surmises as to the construction of the new cabinet, but nothing definite is known concerning it. There are predictions that it will be composed more largely of conservatives. On the other hand, there are predictions that Gambetta will surround himself with men whose violence and radicalism will alarm the country.

National Associated Press. DYNAMITE ON A RAILROAD TRACK.

STANTONVILLE, O., October 16.—A package of dynamite sufficient to blow a train to atoms was found yesterday on the track of the Baltimore and Ohio road. The placing of the dynamite on the rail is entirely beyond comprehension, unless it was pure maliciousness. At 12:59 the No. 2 passenger on the Baltimore & Ohio would have struck the dynamite and the result may be conjectured. No dynamite is made in this region and the surmise is that some enemy of the road did the work. The Baltimore & Ohio officials are making every effort to ferret out the matter. The police know nothing.

FORGED PAPERS. NEW YORK, October 15.—There is much excitement among the city banks over the discovery of $100,000 or more forged paper. It has been made with the signature of Heustis, Hamilton & Graves, of Fort Wayne, Ind., and had been sold through Hoag & Lindington, dealers in commercial paper at No. 44 Pearl street, this city. How they received it is not known. The genuine paper, in small amounts, had been paid on this account alone. The utterance of so large an amount of forged paper excites suspicion. Some rumormongers put the amount at $200,000.

COUNTERFEITERS CAPTURED. LOUISVILLE, October 16.—Detective Bauer, of the United States secret service, with several assistants, has been raiding counterfeiters in Tennessee and southern Kentucky. His principal assistant was one Jones, who worked himself into the secrets of the band by buying largely of the bogus money and ostensibly putting it into circulation. So far ten of the counterfeiters have been arrested, three in jail here and seven in Nashville. The counterfeiters are strongly organized and have shown fight. They have caused the arrest of Jones on a charge of buying counterfeit money, brought against him by one of the counterfeiters he had arrested. He is in jail at Paris, Tennessee.

TO BE HANGED. LITTLE ROCK, Ark., October 16.—Yesterday the colored murderer of Frank Hall was sentenced to the gallows at this place on the 9th of December next. The execution will probably take place in the jail yard.

AN ELOPING COUPLE CAPTURED. LITTLE ROCK, October 16.—Yesterday a man and woman, who gave their names as W. K. Hall and wife, reached this place from Texas and took rooms at a hotel. To-day they were placed under arrest. The woman proved to be the wife of J. B. Stone, a respectable citizen of Sherman, Texas, and had eloped with Hall, who is her husband's nephew. She left their child, a mere infant. It is said that she took a large amount of money belonging to her husband, and other articles of value.

Heavy Storms.

National Associated Press. CITY OF MEXICO, October 16.—Terrible storms are raging on the west coast of Mexico and are reported to be sweeping along the lower California coast, doing great damage both at sea and along shore. The storm approaches from a direction which threatens to make its effects felt along the coast possibly as far south as the Isthmus. It may cross the country, although it has thus far been confined to the coast. Dispatches from Mazatlan state that a heavy northwest gale is sweeping along the Gulf of Mexico. A great number of coasters have been washed on shore, and many of them been broken to pieces, with some loss of life. A report, which it was impossible to verify, prevailed that the British steamship Columbia had been wrecked. If so, the loss of life will be considerable, and there will be a heavy loss of property. Many telegraph wires have already been interfered with, and additional details cannot be obtained. The gravest fears are entertained of the loss of life and property of the peninsula.

THE TURF. National Associated Press. ST. JULIEN AND TRINKETT. NEW YORK, October 15.—The trotting match between St. Julien and Trinkett for $5,000 took place at Fleetwood to-day. In the grand stand were Gen. Grant, Robert and David Bonner, August Belmont, Wm. H. Vanderbilt, James R. Keene and Leonard W. Jerome. Hickok drove St. Julien and Twiner drove Trinkett.

In the first heat Trinkett had the pole. Trinkett had slightly the best of it until they reached the quarter pole, when St. Julien went to the front and passed under the wire an easy winner by a length. Time, 2:14.

In the second heat St. Julien had the pole, and soon showed his superiority by coming under the wire winner by a length. Time, 2:17.

In the third heat St. Julien took the lead. Trinkett then showed a wonderful burst of speed, bringing the homestretch magnificent race took place, St. Julien finally winning the heat and match. Time, 2:16.

Dr. Hammond and Sims Interviewed. National Associated Press. NEW YORK, Oct. 15.—Dr. W. A. Hammond was seen to-day in regard to his being a witness in defense of Guiteau. Dr. Hammond said: "I received a letter yesterday from the counsel of Guiteau asking whether I would give the names of prominent men acquainted with lunacy. He did not suggest that he would call upon me to go to Washington in behalf of the defense, and he had no right to make the statement before the court that I would be a witness. I am willing to believe that the doctor attending him did what they considered from a medical point of view that was needed, and even if they did make a mistake, it is plain that Mr. Garfield must have died sooner or later from the effects of the bullet."

Dr. J. Marion Sims said: "I would like to give my testimony. I would do all I could to hang him, because he, and he alone, killed Gen. Garfield. If the defense should desire my attention I would endeavor to go even at the risk of my health, because I think it the duty of every citizen to do his utmost to advance his country. In reference to Guiteau's insanity I believe he is insane, and gives evidence of his insanity in requesting my attendance at his trial. There was no physician in the country who could have saved Gen. Garfield's life. I think it possible that Gunn, of Chicago, at Ardness, of the same city, may tender their services, but I am mistaken in the men if they do not injure the assassin more than do him good."

Edwin Booth's Domestic Troubles. National Associated Press. CHICAGO, October 16.—A correspondent of The Tribune says, in reference to the trouble between Edwin Booth and his wife, nee Mary McVicker, of this city, that Booth seemed, ill treated and neglected his wife. Mrs. Booth did not, at the beginning of her sickness, make a will leaving this property to her mother. So far as heard from, she has not yet made a will, save the one in which she devised all her property to her husband, including all that her father gave her, and for which the Chicago property was exchanged.

Death of an Irish Patriot. NEW YORK, October 15.—Dennis O'Donovan Rossa, a cousin of the Irish agitator, died Thursday at Blauvelt, L. I. He was born in Ross, Carberry county, Cork, Ireland, and was 91 years and 7 months of age. He took part in the Irish revolution of 1848 and was compelled to flee to this city. He leaves a widow over 90 years of age.

A Wise Doctor. "Deacon Widen, I want you to tell me how you kept yourself and family well the past season, when all the rest of us have been sick so much, and have had the doctors visiting us so often."

"Bro. Taylor, the answer is very easy. I used Hop Bitters in time; kept my family well and saved the doctor bills. Three dollars' worth of it kept us well and able to work all the time. I'll warrant it has cost you and the neighbors one to two hundred dollars' apiece to keep sick the same time."

"Deacon, I'll use your medicine hereafter."

Oct. 15-Nov. 1.
