FINANCIAL.

Financial Review

New York, October 22. Events the past week in financial circles were quite important. The money market worked easy throughout the week, and ruling rates for call loans were 3604 per cent, with exceptional transactions at 6

Foreign exchanges were advanced one cent early in the week for both classes of sterling, but towards the close there was less demand and rates were reduced onehalf cent and the market closed quiet.

Governments were strong and higher with greatest advance in the extended 5s. Rail ay and miscellaneous speculation was strong at opening, but weakness soon set in and a decline of 47 per cent took place, led by Vanderbilts and some of the Southwestern shares. During the latter part of the week the course of the market was irregular, but in the main, toward higher figures, quite a sharp recovery taking place in some instances, In the express stocks Adams advanced 16 per cent and r acted 10 per cent. MONEY.

Money was easy throughout with rates for call loans ranging from 4 to 6 per cent; 21 per cent was the closing rate. Exchange was steady at 4 501@4 841.

Omaha Wholesale Market. OFFICE OF THE OMAHA BRE, Sarrday Evening, October 23.

Weekly Review. On Monday in almost all lines there was duliness owing to the rainy weather. On the whole the merchandise trade of Omaha has been less for the week. Country roads are bad, impeding travel and the moving of products even if farmers could get any ready for market. Still, business has been remarkably good, all the drawbacks considered.

The money market is decidedly close, there being a very active demand for loanable funds in excess of offerings. Bankers are now confining themselves mostly to customers. All classes are borrowers, particularly city merchants, who a e now receiving only slow remittances from their country customers. Discount rates are stiff. A little currency is now
