Some Advantages and Disadadvantages of Council Bluffs.

A Gang of "Crooks" Who Need Close Watching.

There is no city in the west of its county jail. Why not turn the old size that, take the year around, has fitted for-and build a new court more "strange" visitors than Council house. Bluffs, and we have never as yet met one who held a different opinion as to Wheeler, "pop manufacturer," the the future in store for us. They tell Bohn property, situated on Stutsman us that nature has done her shate; that street, upper Broadway. outside influences are working to ad-vance our city on the high road to has moved his office into Mr. Wheelprosperity. They seem to think, how ever, than an undercurrent right here in our midst is the most formidable barrier in the way to success. Ask them what this undercurrent is composed of and for the life of them they cannot say, but still claim that there is a lack of "go aheaditivenes" on the part of our capitalists that we do not find in cities whose chances for ill Bluffs. They will remark if yon only had a little more of Omaks pluck. If your monied men would only "strike out," invest their money employmen who would bring their to invest can easily make it. Per This talk is all very good, and a man who has no money real thing, look around outside of the ring, look around outside of the ring, look around outside of the ring, so and the branches of their boaking and other branches of their boaking and other branches of the ring, look around outside of their boaking and other branches an much as they should, yet we do prosperity. A GANG OF THIEVES.

It is said that there is a regular gang of desperadoes, sharpers and thieves who operate in this city and Omaha. That they have the business worked down to such a fine point that it is almost impossible to catch them. They pick pockets and immediately pass their ill-gotten gains to a "pal," and, if caught a moment after operat-ing on a person's pocket, aching can be found on them to convict. The T. E. OTHER NEWS.

L. P. Judson, city engineer, has built an addition to his homestead on Sixth avenue by putting extra rooms on the west side. Eli Clayton would have been some use to the Pottawattomie farmers in the next legislature, and we all would have had plenty of beer just as freely as we will to have Morgan there. e£, FOOLISH COUNCILMEN.

. There was quite a war of words between Andy Graham and Alderman Fonda at the last council meeting. Graham accused the council of being jealous of the board of trade. Fonda-"We are not jealous of the board of trade." Graham -- "You are and you can't deny it." Fonda-"We are not; I do deny

Graham--"You are." Fonda — "Yeu are another." Graham — "Go there yourself." Fonda — "Go where?" Graham-"You dare not go!" Fonda-"Where? (Excited) Name
