

SOCIAL SIPS.

From a Week's Cup of Innocent Enjoyment.

The Masque-Social of the "Belle Lettres Club" Triping at Touzalin's.

Social Notes and Palate Personalities.

THE WEEK.

The past week in Omaha's social circles has been noticeable for a number of pleasant gatherings, which, while smaller and less formal than the club parties, have been none the less enjoyable to those fortunate enough to participate.

MASQUE SOCIAL.

was given by Mrs. Nathan Shelton at her residence on Dodge street to the "Belle Lettres club," of which she is a prominent member.

Mrs. Shelton, "Tambourine Girl from Mascoote;" Mrs. Chas. Powell, "Young Lady Nineteenth Century;" Mrs. Chester Davis, "Marie Antoinette;" Mrs. Burns, "Pink Domino;" Mrs. Test, "Water Maid;" Mrs. Turner, "Mrs. Jack Frost;" Miss Roddiss, "Libertine;" Miss Tillotson, "Mail Carrier;" Mrs. Webster, "Black Domino;" Miss Freeman, "Quakeress;" Miss Ida Freeman, "French Peasant Girl;" Mrs. Jarvis, "The Press;" Mr. Webster, "Old Woman Searching for her Husband;" Mr. Nathan Shelton, "Knight of Golden Fleece;" Mr. Burns, "Blk Domino;" Mr. Archie Powell, "Harlequin;" Mr. Carrier, "Mephistopheles;" Major Stevens, "Benedictine Monk;" Mr. Annin, "Blk Domino;" Mr. Will Shelton, "Rash of Many Tails;" Mr. Chester Davis, "Oscar Wilde;" Mr. Frank Shelton, "Mary Anderson;" Mr. Stebbins, "Father Time;" Mr. Freeman, "French Chasseur;" Mr. E. F. Test, "Blk Domino;" Mr. Jarvis, "Lone Fisherman;" Mr. Coe, "French Officer;" Master Nattie Shelton, "Flower of the Family."

The party broke up at a late hour after a delightful evening, whose enjoyment was greatly heightened by the untiring efforts of Mr. and Mrs. Shelton.

MIL TOUZALIN'S PARTY.

Mr. A. E. Touzalin gave a pleasant little party on Friday evening at his residence on Chicago and Nineteenth streets. The affair was of rather an impromptu nature, according to Mr. Touzalin's custom, invitations only having been issued two days prior to the event.

Among those present were: Miss Touzalin, Mrs. D. Touzalin, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Squiers, Mr. and Mrs. Maurice, Mr. and Mrs. Webster, Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Green, Mr. and Mrs. Shiverick, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Doane, The Misses Doane, Gustis Ringwalt, Wakely, Shiverick, Titahson, Balcombe, Barlow, Nelia and Dora Lehmer, Wells and Berlin, Messrs. Eustis, Carrier, Wakely, Warrack, Touzay, Fairfield, J. and T. Ringwalt, Hendricks, Ross, Beach, Barkalow, Wood, W. B. Scott, Drake, Bullock, Lehmer, Taylor and Brock.

Social Notes.

The Standard club held their third party on Wednesday evening at Standard hall. The Musical Union furnished the music, and it goes without saying that a delightful evening was spent by all present.

On Tuesday evening Miss Carrie Millard entertained a number of her friends at a dinner party at her residence on Capitol avenue. Those who were present were Carrie Millard, D. H. Ross, Miss Burnsey, G. D. Thayer, Miss Hoyt, Ezra Miller, W. P. McMillan, Miss Shiverick, F. C. Bullock, John R. Ringwalt, Rena Ross, Miss Woolworth, J. M. Ross, Miss Poppleton, Mrs. Millard, Miss Ringwalt, and M. L. Drake.

Cards are out for a series of receptions by Mrs. Windsor at Brownell Hall on Saturday, November 6th, Saturday, January 7th and Saturday, February 4th, from four until two p. m.

A pleasant Halloween party was held on Monday evening at the residence of Mr. Thomas Riley, on Seventeenth and Cass streets.

The Rev. Dr. Stelling, pastor of the Lutheran church, held a pleasant house warming on Friday evening which was attended by a large number of his congregation.

Folle Personalities.

Miss Dows, who for the past month has been visiting Miss Minnie Maul, returns on Monday to her home in Cedar Rapids, Iowa.

W. B. Ogden, formerly of G. H. & J. S. Collins, who is now making a trip east, will, on his return, make Des Moines his home.

Mr. Ed. Williams and bride have returned from their eastern trip. Mrs. Jas. E. Boyd and son have gone to San Francisco to visit her mother. Mrs. Ed Peck and sister, Miss Carrie Bishop, arrived from Denver last Sunday. Miss Mollie Horbach has returned from her visit east. Capt. C. B. Rustin has returned from Idaho, and expects to remain during the winter in Omaha. The Misses Nourse, of Bayfield, Wis., are visiting in this city, the guests of their aunt, Mrs. General Wilson. Hon. J. M. Woolworth has returned from Washington. Mrs. Samuel Cooper, of Cedar Rapids, Iowa, is in the city on a visit to her daughter, Mrs. L. M. Rheem. Mrs. R. C. Clowry has returned to Chicago accompanied by Mrs. H. D. Estabrook, who goes there to make a brief visit. Mrs. Clark, wife of General Superintendent Clark, of the U. P. railway, has gone to Hot Springs, Arkansas, for her health. Mrs. E. L. Eaton and daughter have returned from Chicago.

Blair Notes.

Correspondence of The Bee. BLAIR, November 3.—During the trial of the case of Ono vs. Dulaney in Judge Perkins' court on Tuesday morning a dispute arose between the judge and Dulaney when the judge was rendering his decision against Dulaney. Dulaney took occasion to interrupt him, saying: "Judge, you said on the street a few days ago that you should decide the case against me unless I paid the costs."

Upon this remark the judge, instead of fining Dulaney, picked up a large metal ink stand and hurled it at him with all his strength. Dulaney dodged the missile and it passed over his head, hitting a young man by the name of Wilson, who was sitting behind Dulaney, in the mouth, knocking two of his teeth out and cutting a deep gash. Wilson is in danger of being thrown into lockjaw. Parties having business in that court are advised to wear base ball masks.

The S. & C. P. railroad company have been improving their round house. They have four new stalls nearly completed. The two new depots are completed and ready for occupancy. Their stock yards, which are the best on the road, are now being used. The stock yards, depots, and one of the banks up town are to be connected by telephone.

Cook Bros. have enlarged their new building on the corner of Washington and Fifth streets, making the building 34x100, and intend putting in an addition to their large stock of hardware and extensive stock of groceries and dry goods, and boots and shoes.

The Pilot came out last week in a new number. The paper is to do away with the patent inside, and will be printed at home.

E. W. Blue, of the Democrat, has retired. The paper is now run by A. R. Samson. Hix.

Expensive Weddings.

The New York World has been figuring on the expense of a fashionable wedding in that city. It is not necessary to say that it includes many items that the rural bridegroom will not recognize as forming a part of his wedding outfit, such, for instance, as cards at from $200 to $500; matrimonial undertaker—as if a man were going to be buried—at from $100 to $200; ushers' scarfs and pins, aggregating from $30 to $70; minister's fee from $100 to $200; sexton's fee from $25 to $50; bridesmaids' dress, dinner given by groom, caterer, music, florist, organist and miscellaneous, aggregating from $2,000 to $3,000, and cheap things that when a man gets the right kind of a wife. But plain people will think a good deal of it is superfluous. A Wall street bar is said to have caused a friend to put his intended son-in-law up to eloping with his daughter, on the ground of economy. It was a sharp trick, and added the element of romance to the affair in addition to the saving of money. Perhaps the best way to get married is to call in a minister and have it done without cards, groomsmen, bridesmaids, undertakers, ushers, or other expensive and needless extras. The friends have a simple way of having Philander and Dorothy stand up in meeting, when Philander says that he takes Dorothy for his wife and Dorothy says she takes Philander for a husband. There is not even a clergyman, but it is said that one never hears of a Quaker divorce.

A Deserted Village.

Soon we reached the mushroom camp of Highland. It well deserves the name applied to it—the deserted village. But one house is inhabited. The structures numbering hundreds building which once covered immense stocks of merchandise are empty, and the doors and windows are big yawning holes without glass or boards. The rude signs of "Store," "Assay Office," etc., swings in a crazy manner from the tops of doorways, and in front of tottering buildings, and old foundations overgrown with weeds and partly buried in sand tell where many a mountain business house once hopefully reared its form. This village has a history. Its existence was due to the "Old Turk," who, having a small stock of liquors, etc., camped there in the spring of 1880, and erected a cabin. Here he offered the prospector his wares, and told of wealth buried in the hills behind his cabin. Many listened to his words of wisdom, and cast their lot with him. As the season opened, hundreds flocked to the new camp, but when Aspen and Ashcroft began to produce fine mineral, the people of Highland became disgusted, and quietly and silently departed for more promising places.

Almost Young Again.

My mother was afflicted a long time with neuralgia, and a dull, heavy, inactive condition of the whole system, and was almost helpless. No physicians or medicines did her any good. Three months ago she began to use Hop Bitters, with such good effect that she seems and feels young again, although over 70 years old. We think there is no other medicine fit to use in the family.—A lady in Providence, R. I.—Journal. nov1-15

THE LODGES.

Whisperings From the Inner Sanctuary of Temples of Mystery.

Masonic Music—The Coming Elections—The Triple Link and Knightly Pythians.

THE FREE MASONS.

MUSIC IN THE LODGES. The subject of singing in the Lodge is attracting more attention in eastern Masonic circles. Omaha Free Masons would do well to follow suit in reorganizing their musical arrangements. Every lodge in our city contains a number of good vocalists who could add much to the ceremonial by joining their forces and practicing the various odes. The instrumental music in some quarters, which might be mentioned, is seriously in need of improvement. Will not some of the brethren take the matter in hand.

COMING ELECTIONS.

Next month elections will be held in a number of Masonic bodies in this city, and the brethren are already doubtless considering the subject of the best candidates to fill the various stations. No organization is so largely dependent upon a competent officer as the Free Masons. In no other order has custom and precedent thrown better safeguards around the chairs of its governing members. The qualifications for Masonic officers should be stringently considered. Few members of a lodge possess them in their entirety. No less care ought to be exercised in the choice of the subordinate officers than in the selection of the Master from their material must be worked up for future incumbents of the east.

GOAT HAIR.

St. John held her "regular" on Thursday evening and transacted a considerable amount of business. Illinois Royal Arch Masons have 184 chapters, and a membership of over 10,000.

Mt. Calvary Commandery No. 1 held their monthly meeting on Friday evening.

THE TRIPLE LINK.

Three Lodges in Manchester, New Hampshire, are reported as having, in the aggregate, two thousand members. Six Lodges in Portland, Maine, report 2,608 members and $122,173.10 assets.

The Grand Lodge of New York voted unanimously to exercise its influence in to repeal the Insurance law recently adopted by the Legislature of that State. Some of the lodges east have a pretty good surplus in their treasuries, and the question of "loaning funds out" to their members has become under discussion. The O. F. Herald solves the dilemma in a few words: "Build a hall of your own." In California, among the best buildings in every city, town and village, are the Odd Fellows' halls, and other orders also have "struck for the soil," and erected handsome homes for their fraternities in many localities.

The oldest Odd Fellows living are Joseph Patterson, initiated in 1819, now a member of Tompkins Lodge, No. 9, of New York City; S. P. Shannon, of Bloomington, Illinois, initiated in 1827; Albert Guild, of Boston, Massachusetts, and William Childs, of California, both initiated in 1828.

At last reports, the Manchester Unity, of England, had 600,000 members. January 1, 1881, the American order had 456,942, exclusive of those in foreign lands.

KNIGHTLY PYTHIANS.

On Monday evening, the 24th of October, PLANET LODGE NO. 4 conferred the first degree on two applicants, and there were two new applications for membership on the desk of the K. of P. & S. There was work in conferring the first and second degrees last Monday evening, and both meetings were largely attended. There will be work in the second and third degrees next Monday night.

OMAHA U. D.

conferred the second degree on one and the first on four applicants on the night of the 26th ult., and despite the miserable weather had eighteen Knights present to assist in the work. There were twenty-three members and two visiting Knights present, with work in second and third degrees. Four were inducted into the mysteries of the former, and one in those of the latter degree. Two new applicants yet to be acted on.

On Wednesday evening Nebraska Lodge No. 1 had an interesting business meeting, but no degree work. This Lodge, the oldest in the State, as its number very conservative, and those desiring admission to membership will have to make known their desire to the officers or members of the lodge, as they will not be sought after.

We, of the Pythian Knighthood, consider the fact established, that our order is worthy the best material of any community, as its tenets are of the best and purest character. Therefore we have no apologies to make, and no inducements to offer.

Mr. Noah Bates, Elmira, N. Y., writes: "About four years ago I had an attack of bilious fever, and never fully recovered. My digestive organs were weakened, and I could not eat or sleep for days. After using two bottles of your Burdock Blood Bitters the improvement was so visible that I was astonished. I can now, though 67 years of age, do a fair and reasonable day's work."

C. Blakely Robinson, proprietor of The Canada Preserver, Toronto, Ont., writes: "For years I suffered greatly from oft-recurring headaches. I used your Burdock Blood Bitters with happiest results, and I now find myself in better health than for years past."

Mrs. Wallace, Buffalo, N. Y., writes: "I have used Burdock Blood Bitters for nervous and bilious headaches, and can recommend it to anyone requiring a cure for biliousness."
