Miscellaneous News, Notes and Gossip.

Notwithstanding a drenching rain storm, true to his promise, Mayor Vaughan informally established a line of Herdie coaches yesterday upon our streets, at about the hour of 10. The procession, consisting of the Herdie band wagon (containing Prof Olkers' band), followed by seven Herdies, left their headquarters on lower Broadway, and headed by Mayor Vaughan, with Dr. Cook in a private carriage, came up Broadway, halting first in front of the Nonpareil building, where the band discoursed some excellent music. They then took up the line of march to Pearl street and again halted in front of The Globe office, where the band again played. At this juncture we began to feel a little shaky. Remembering the "big 4" resolutions, we thought the mayor would pass us by unnoticed; but not so. They just wheeled about and came right down to THE BEE office and made us feel good, notwithstanding the "big injins" had passed those resolutions and had them printed at the expense of the tax payers of Council Bluffs so that a friend still we had. The boys seemed to play just as sweetly as if the resolutions had never passed, or been printed at the city's expense. The procession then started up Broadway. What they did in front of the Ogden we do not know. They rode to Ogden's brewery where they again halted, the band playing. They then returned on Broadway to Main, down Main to Willow avenue, halting at various places. Then passing through our principal private streets, they returned to the Herdie barn from whence they issue to-day ready for business, and there seems to be no reason why they shouldn't have plenty of it. Mr. Vaughan says he was glad it rained yesterday as it afforded an opportunity for the people to see that the Herdies can be run in wet as well as dry weather.

Council Bluffs is now in direct communication with Denver, Colorado. The eastern trains have all changed their time tables in order to make the connections, leaving the transfer depot at about 9 o'clock in the morning and about 7 o'clock in the evening. The fare is six dollars less by this route than any other, and it is the pleasantest that can be taken.

CHURCH SERVICES. An unusually large number assembled in the Baptist church Sunday evening to hear their eloquent pastor, Rev. Mr. Lemon, present and comment upon the articles recently published in The North American Review, written by Bob Ingersoll and Jerry Black.

Mr. Lemon handled the celebrated infidel without gloves, and at the same time delating (against the opinion of leading Christian journals), that the colonel had a right to blaspheme if he wanted to, and secular periodicals had a right to publish the blasphemy. While Mr. Ingersoll might be wrong, he believed to deny him the privilege to express his views on the subject of religion would be a greater wrong. He believes that Ingersoll starts out in his article with a proposition that in itself shakes his whole argument from prelude to peroration. That declaration, "the mountains are as unstable and fleeting in the sight of God as the clouds," shows that there must be something more lasting and eternal than matter. The trouble with Ingersoll, Mr. Lemon claims, is that he accounts for the watch and its maker—man—but is too cowardly to go on a belief that man had a maker God, because he can't get behind God and know him. The speaker claimed that Mr. Black's answer to Ingersoll was full and complete, until he reached the charge made against the Old Testament "that endorsed slavery." Then he said Mr. Black's old prejudice took possession of him. He weakened, and had not the courage to deny this charge also. He said the better proof of the two writers here met. The tug war came, like Greek meeting Greek, and they fell together. The speaker claimed that the Old Testament does not uphold slavery, taken as a whole; that Mr. Ingersoll, or any other man, by taking a passage here and there, can make it to so do. He could take the statute of our country or state and show that they endorse theft. The speaker closed with an earnest and eloquent appeal for the banishment of all infidel thoughts from the mind, and the acceptance of Christian teachings as laid down in God's word as the only reasonable and true solution of the great "unknown problem."

ORANGE BLOSSOMS. Last week at his residence Rev. Mr. Cleveland united in matrimony Mr. Eben Newell and Miss Mary B. Harrington, of this city. The groom and bride came to Council Bluffs quite recently from Chena, Kennebec county, Maine. For a long time in the east Mr. Newell was engaged as a salesman for a leading stove polish and boot-black factory. He learned the business thoroughly and determined to strike out for himself somewhere in the west. He united with his Shepherd Harrington, a young man of very well known integrity and business capacity. Together they left their homes in Maine for the fair west. Believing Council Bluffs presented the best inducements they located here and thus far have had no reason to regret it. Miss Harrington is a young lady of more than ordinary refinement and intelligence, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Barzilla Harrington. She received a thorough education in her native town graduating when quite young at China Academy. She afterwards taught school, and at one time was a teacher in that institution. The wedding was private for the reason that the young couple have not been here a sufficient time to form intimate acquaintances. They left the city last Wednesday morning for an extended pleasure trip through the south.

Judge Abbott adjourned court yesterday to unite a couple in the everlasting bonds of bliss—Samuel Wright and Miss Mary Sullivan, all of this city.

FAMILY JAMS. A man by the name of Gilmore was arrested Sunday night by officer Brooks for beating his wife. When the case came on he proved that his wife deserved all that she got as she was naturally a little fractious and being ancient at the time rendered her very much more incoercible. The judge after hearing the testimony, remarked to the man that it was a bad time to correct a woman's stubborn will when she was in that condition and giving some wholesome advice discharged him.

POLICE PICKINGS. A man by the name of Anderson, who keeps a saloon on lower Broadway, was arrested by officer Sterling, charged with keeping open saloon on Sunday and also for selling liquor to minors.

Henry Johnson, colored, was arrested by officer Sterling for thumping a wench over the head. He was fined by the court $6.85 including costs.

Judge Burke united in marriage William Meadine and Miss Bettie A. Bunker. The ceremony took place at police headquarters in presence of the force.

UNPROVOKED ASSAULT. A young man by the name of Adams is alleged to have made a cruel assault on J. H. Stonestine yesterday forenoon, near Tarley's tannery, in the northwestern part of the city. It is claimed that he dragged him from his team and struck him three or four times on the side of the head. It seems that one night, some time ago, Stonestine ordered young Adams out of his house, and it was for this he assaulted him. Mr. Stonestine entered complaint against Adams last evening, and to-day, no doubt, he will be arrested.

PINK-EYE. The pink-eye is still with us. Quite a number of Council Bluffs equines are still battling with it. G. W. Grover's horses are recovering from an attack. The same disease has been seriously interfering with the transfer business of Stewart & Winn.

In an article that appeared in this paper yesterday morning we spoke perhaps too lightly of Mr. Holmes' misfortune in losing a pet horse. We intended no reflection on Mr. Holmes, and we rather sympathize with him in his loss. We understand that the animal was a very valuable one, worth over $300. Since he was taken with the pink-eye he has paid out nearly one hundred dollars in cash, trying to effect a cure, having employed the best medical skill in that direction. His harness and robes will be a total loss, as he says he would not use them on another. So it will be seen that Mr. H. was quite a heavy loser.

MISCELLANEOUS MENTION. Your squireman once got the idea, of having found a keg full of beer. They "sart" down by the bung and soon were all stung. From their nose to the tip of their ear.

The M. E. district conference will convene in Council Bluffs this evening, and continue in session until Thursday afternoon.

Do not fail to attend at Bloom & Nixon's hall, and witness the opera "Saucer." If you do not, you will miss a fine treat.

The money raised at the camp fire last Friday night went for the benefit of Spaulding and Miller.

Mrs. Jones, who died Sunday, was buried from her residence on Madison street yesterday. The services took place at 3:30 o'clock.

J. W. Ellis, of Omaha, came over the river and put up at the Ogden.

A little dry soda applied to the wound is more soothing to a Bee sting than a whole volume of senseless resolutions, and comes so cheaply that you can pay for it yourselves without forcing the taxpayers to come down.

Miracle Diet. "Your Spring Blossom is a success. I certainly think its effects are wonderful; all the dyspeptic symptoms I complained of have vanished; my wife is also enthusiastic in praise of it; she was disfigured by blotches and pimples on her face, and had a continuous headache. She is all right now, and all unsightly eruptions have gone. You may refer any doubting parties to me. R. M. WILLIAMSON, "Elk street, Buffalo."

Price, 50 cents; trial bottles, 10 cents. (17-mall)

Plugging Perforated Silver Coin. N. Y. Sun. A curly-headed, olive-skinned young man walked into a Broadway furnishing store yesterday afternoon and offered to buy all the perforated coin in the place at a discount. About $5 was handed over to him and paid for. "What do you do with it," the young man was asked. "I support my wife and children with it. Do you know anybody that's got any more?" The holes in the coins are filled by passing iron wire through them and clipping it off. A little hammering and burnishing makes the deception complete.

Get Out Doors. The close confinement of all factory work gives the operatives pallid faces, poor appetites, languid feelings, indigestion, poor blood, inactive liver, kidney and urinary troubles, and the physicians and medicine in the world cannot help them unless they get out of doors or use Hop Bitters, the purest and best remedy, especially for such cases, having abundance of health, sunshine and rosy cheeks in them. They cost but a trifle. See another column.—Christian Recorder.
