About 9 o'clock, when the company had assembled, the president was congratulated in a brief speech on the occurrence of so notable an event as the present one, and responded at considerable length, in which he reviewed the progress of the Monnerchor society since he had become member, and in turn congratulated his brother members upon their success and improvement. After some amusing incidents,

Henry Strassburg, in behalf of the society, presented the president with a heavy and beautiful gold watch chain, attached to which was a pendant inscribed, "Presented to E. Wirth by Omaha Mænnerchor society, Nov. 7, 1881." Mr. Wirth was greatly surprised, and in a few expressions of his gratitude avowed his purpose to remain a Stenger as long as he lived. Herman Lavens made a pointed and appropriate speech, which was again replied to. The soberer business of the evening being over, the society and their guests indulged in informal but hearty fun, and the society gave several appropriate songs. Solos were sung by Henry Hosaly and August Kein, the society joining in the chorus. The whole occasion was a most enjoyable one, and was heartly entered into by every one. Among the mem-bers of the Mannechor who have also reached the tenth anniversary of their connection with the society are Fred Wirth and Fred Kimmel. All prosperity in the future, is the hope of THE BEE.
