COUNCIL BLUFFS.

Interesting Budget of News From That Thriving City.

"The Sorcerer" Promises Great Things in a Musical Line.

How It Happened That a Fight Was Prevented.

Pleasant Personal Mention and Police Pickings.

We don't see how the people can let the Philharmonic society off with one matinee. The Sorcerer is simply immense. There is more music and fun for 35 or 50 cents than has ever before been offered to the people of Council Bluffs and vicinity, and to think that our city can furnish so many fine singers and actors is wonderful. The plot is something as follows: Alexis Point, Dexter, being an enthusiast on the subject of love and marriage and possessor of a very large estate, gets a little off and wants his tenantry who are not married to get into that fix at once. He orders from London a noted sorcerer by the name of J. Wellington Wells. To his distinguished guest he reveals the secret and great desire of his heart. The sorcerer, immediately, at a feast, manages to administer a dose of love to the assembled tenantry, which has the effect of kindling in the breast of each one to marry the first one of the opposite sex whom he or she chances to meet within half an hour after partaking. The love business at once gets mixed up considerably, and in the mixture young Alexis is about to lose his betrothed Aline, daughter of the nobility, the love drops making her crazy after a certain vicar; when he appeals to the Sorcerer to "bust" up the whole concern. Now this seems the saddest part of the play. It is found that the love spell cannot be dispelled without a sacrifice of a life. Either the Sorcerer or young Alexis must be killed rather than see another possess his sweet and adorable Aline, the Sorcerer refusing to occupy a hole in the ground, he consents, and is beheaded, regretting that the firm of which he was a member, had not taken stock before he received sentence. The piece is replete with the funniest kind of fun, equal, if not superior, to the Mascotte. We understand the society contemplate going over the river to show the citizens of Omaha what Council Bluffs can do in the way of musical entertainments. We predict for them a cordial welcome over there.

THE SCHOENING TROUBLE.

On Wednesday the case of the state of Iowa against A. J. and F. H. Plumer was called in Justice Abbott's court But for some reasons the prosecuting watness did not put in his appearance, and it is claimed that on account of the injury he was unable to. The case was therefore continued until the 24th day of November, when all the facts connected with the case will be fully developed, and the public be informed as to just how the quarrel began at the time of the difficulty between the parties at Max Mohr's hotel, on Main street, in which Schoening received quite a severe injury. From the accounts given at the time through the press the impression might have got abroad that the Plumers were fighting characters. From investigation we find that such is not the case On the contrary, they are inclined to be peaceable. That they are boys who do not make a practice of using intoxicating liquors. On the day of the affray the Plumer boys claim that they were first assaulted by the prosecuting witness and his friends, and in order to save themselves were obliged to do just as they did. There were several who pitched in, and in the general fracas Mr. Schoening received the injury of which he complains.

OBITUARY.

Daniel Bastwick, a gentleman well known in this city and county, died at his home in Honey Creek yesterday morning about 1 o'clock of paralysis. Mr. Bastwick was born in the state of Vermont, December 20, 1836. In his childhood his father moved to Nauvoo, Ill., and joined the Mormons, and when he was about 8 years of age they came still further west, and took up a farm in this county in Honey Creek township where deceased has lived for the past thirty-seven years an honored and respected citizen Mr. B. leaves a widow and five children (three girls and two boys, the eldest 13 years) to mourn the loss of a loving husband and father. The funeral will take place this afternoon at 2 o'clock at his late residence in Honey Creek, J. B. Corbaley officiating. All friends are invited to attend.

Milton Hough, of Crescent City, died Wednesday morning of heart disease (so called) at his residence. Mr. H. was a prominent citizen of the town in which he has lived many years, and well known in Council Bluffs. He was buried from his residence yesterday afternoon.

Frederick Spurline, who left this city about two months ago to visit home and friends in his native country, has returned, and is seen daily upon our streets again. Mr. S. reports that he had a most enjoyable trip across the water, and that his journey through the continent was delightful and his visit one of extreme pleasure. But the sight that pleased him most was when he saw the American shore the first time on his return home. He says that Europe is a grand place to reside, if you have the money and time; but for a home, give him the land of the free and the home of the brave.

THE COLORED TROOPS.

There was quite a spirited altercation between a couple of young coons in the court house building yesterday. They had been employed to clean out the lower part of the building. A dispute arose between them as to the name of a certain young female who happened to be passing, one claiming "dat it was his gal." The other reminded him "dat he had no business sticking his nose in his meat." One word brought on another until a row ensued, one using the water-pot and the other a broomhandle. If a BEE man hadn't come along in the nick of time there no doubt would have a been darkand perhaps bloody tragedy.

RETURNED HOME.

Captain Henry, so well known in this community made a very pleasant call at THE BEE office yesterday. The captain is looking much better than at any time since we had the pleasure of making his acquaintance. He has been absent nearly all summer in the east, and although he is close mouthed as to his own personal affairs rumor has it that he has made about twenty-five thousand in stock speculation in Chicago.

RESUMED BUSINESS.

Mrs. Metcalf who was a victim of the late conflagration, at the Main street bridge, has established the same business (that of dressmaking) in the room recently occupied as a dining room, by Mr. Brown of in the Nonpareil block, where she will be pleased to welcome her old patrons and friends.

THE BULL AND PIG

game was played quite successfully in this city yesterday by a white and colored boy. The colored lad had coaxed the white boy to play bull and pig, the coon to take the part of the bull and the white boy that of the pig. The pig lies down in the pen, while the bull stands outside and bellows and hooks the pen. After the white boy had played his part awhile he wanted to take the part of the bull and let his colored companion assume that of the pig. "No, sar, said Sambo. I'se not gwine ter make a young hog out of dis chile till grub time, and u'll have bellerin' nuf ter do when yer mudder sees dem close."

THE HERDICS.

A herdic drawn by four mules was seen to trot some distance yesterday on their down trip. When the roads get nice and smooth there will be a good deal of this done—all for half a dime.

INSUFFICIENT TESTIMONY.

There was quite an interesting case before Judge Burke, in which one representative to the general assembly figured quite conspicuously. It seems that a couple of our pretty "alley girls" were arrested by Chief Field for being on our streets in a pretty how-do-you-do condition. Their trial was set for yesterday, when one distinguished fellow citizen was summoned by the city as witness against the girls.

Well, there was fun in the court room for a few moments. The girls laughed at the distinguished witness, and the distinguished witness laughed at the girls. They accused him of knowing how it was himself. He said they could not scare him. Their names should be printed in large type. The girls dared him to put their names in the paper. After a general discussion pro and con., the court could see no reasons for the distinguished witness casting stones at the girls, so he gave them a little wholesome advice, and they took their departure, the judge remarking: "Another $8 gone for want of sufficient testimony."

POLICE PICKINGS.

Officer Tyson arrested a man too beastly drunk for use on our streets yesterday. He was lodged in the calaboose, from whence he will issue this morning, and, if found dry enough, will be "ironed" to the tune of $6.85 or the stone pile.

Michael Cline and John Brady, arrested by Officers Brooks and Cusic on the charge of taking a satchel from the Chicago house, were discharged by Judge Burke, there being sufficient proof that these boys were not the guilty parties SENT HOME.

The two boys, Joe Hudson, son of Judge Hudson, of Yorkville, Illinois, and Johnnie McCullon, who ran away from home and were taken in custody by Chief Field on a communication from Judge Hudson, as mentioned in THE BEE yesterday morning, were well known by one of our citizens, Mr. Wagner, of the firm of Wagner & Holland, Main street. On noticing the account in THE BEE Mr. Wagner at once started them back to their homes.

PERSONAL.

Messrs. Perkins, Allbright and Campbell, of the Cedar Rapids Insurance Company are taking in our city.

Thomas McKee, school teacher, Honey creek, called at THE BEE office yesterday.

Mr. H. N. Glenny, general superintendent of the Waukesha mineral springs was in the city yesterday, a guest at the Revere.

John Ledwick, of Avoca, was in Council Bluffs yesterday, a guest at the Pacific.

Charles Wilson and wife Omaha, came over the river and registered at the Pacific.

G. W. Toby, Des Moines, was in Iowa's western metropolis yesterday.

Bradford, Pa.

Thos. Fitchan, Bradford, Pa., writes: "I enclose money for SPRING BLOSSOM, as I said I would if it cured me. My dyspepsia has vanished, with all its symptoms. Many thanks; I shall never be without it in the house." Price 50 cents, trial bottles 10 cents. 17eodlw

O'Connor's Reception.

National Associated Press

FALL RIVER, MASS., November 10.—Two thousand people welcomed T. P. O'Connor, M. P., last evening, and an enthusiastic meeting was held at the Academy of Music. Mr. O'Connor was escorted to the academy by a torchlight procession, composed of the various Irish societies. He spoke for over an hour, eloquently and vividly, portraying the condition of affairs in Ireland, and was loudly applauded.

DYING BY INCHES.

Very often we see a person suffering from some form of kidney complaint and is gradually dying by inches. This no longer need to be so, for Electric Bitters will positively cure Bright's disease, or any disease of the kidneys or urinary organs. They are especially adapted to this class of diseases, acting directly on the Stomach and Liver at the same time, and will speedily cure where every other remedy has failed. Sold at fifty cents a bottle, by Ish & McMahon. 13
