Miracle Diets.

"Your Spring Blossom is a success. I certainly think its effects are wonderful; all the dyspeptic symptoms I complained of have vanished; my wife is also enthusiastic in praise of it; she was disfigured by blotches and pimples on her face, and had a continuous headache. She is all right now, and much obliged to you for having done so much for me."

E. M. WILLIAMSON, "Elk street, Buffalo, N. Y." Price, 50 cents; per bottle, 10 cents; 800 pounds, and her average weight at home is 700 pounds.

The Power of the Press.

One of the old-time editors of Michigan (says the Detroit Free Press) was boasting the other day that he had never been sued for libel or attacked in his sanctum, but he could recall many narrow escapes.

"Walk in, gentlemen. I presume you have come to horse-whip me?" "Very well. Have you thoroughly considered this matter?" "It doesn't need any consideration," replied Carson. "You have lied about me, and I'm going to lick you within an inch of your life!"

"Just so, my friend, but first hear what I have to say. Did you ever hear of the press being stopped because the editor was cowarded?" "Well, you never did. Lick me all you choose, and my paper comes out the same. The power of the press is next to the power of God in the universe. It makes or breaks careers, builds up or tears down, plants or destroys. Aggravate the editor, and the press becomes a sword to wound and kill. Wallow me if you will, but next week I'll come out more bitter than ever."

There was an embarrassing silence right here and the face of each horse-whipper had an anxious look.

"It will go out to the world—to America, Canada, England, France—aye, clear to Jerusalem—that the Carson family of this county live on roots and Johnny-cakes; that they stole a dog from a blind man; that they murdered a peddler for a pair of two-shilling suspenders; that the women are club-footed, and the men work their ears when they sing that—"

"What is this regular subscription price to the Herald?" interrupted Carson.

"Only twelve shillings a year."

"Put us four down."

"Very well—six dollars—that's correct. Run in and see me, all of you, and if any of you want to see any of my Detroit exchanges, I shall be only too glad to serve you."
