

OUR IOWA NEIGHBORS.

The School Board Playing the Wandering Jew.

Successful Business Enterprises Growing Up.

A Stranger Arrested for Carrying Concealed Weapons.

Police Mentions Pleasant Personal Points.

The school board held their regular meeting on Monday evening. On account of some trouble with the heating apparatus...

Mrs. Hill, whose husband has the contract as janitor of the Second ward school, had a complaint to make before the board...

A span of horses attached to one of our street cars broke away from the car and taking the pole with them ran up Broadway...

"ONE OF THE GIRLS." A woman who lives in Omaha came over to this city to do some shopping. She got into the wrong shop, and when she attempted to get into one of our street cars...

Quite a pretty, fashionably dressed young lady stood squeezed between the gate at the northeast corner of Baylis' park until quite a late hour Monday night.

Mr. Potter, the ticket agent on Main street, has quite a suggestive and unique sign representing a huge knife, cutting rates.

Mart Harden, our worthy street supervisor, is doing all he can to improve our streets. Yesterday he had men and teams engaged with a scraper, reducing the small sized hills that have stood so long on Main street.

Officer Tyson arrested one M. L. Miller, found drunk on the street. His case will be disposed of to-morrow.

Gert Grosvenor, foreman of Mayne & Co.'s broom factory, has moved from Harris street into a house corner of Mills and Sixth...

Judge Looftoro is on his third week of court up in Cass county. Judge Reed's court will convene in this city on Monday, December 5th.

Each day our city presents a very lively appearance notwithstanding the rough condition of the streets. The Rescue engine company of this city will give a grand ball and supper on Thanksgiving evening...

The Deere manufacturing company are building a large three-story addition to their warehouse recently purchased of Hoagland & Co. on south Fifth street.

Sheet music, one-third off, at Mueller's.

M. P. Brewer has gone into Carroll county on important business connected with his firm. He is in hopes that he will not be detained from returning in time to assist his family to remove the meat from the frame of a fat Thanksgiving turkey.

Judge Larimer returned from a brief business trip to the great Salt Lake City, Monday, in his usual health.

Dr. John Green says there is no doubt but that Spencer Smith will pull through. This is good news for his many anxious friends.

R. C. Lusk, of Logan, Iowa, was in Council Bluffs yesterday, at the Ogden.

T. J. Savage and F. L. Pain, of Boone, were at the Ogden yesterday.

TRUE TO HER TRUST. Too much cannot be said of the ever faithful wife and mother, constantly watching and caring for her dear ones, never neglecting a single duty in their behalf...

SOMEWHAT MIXED. One of the Ogden guests who arrived in this city, in some way got separated from his "Saratoga." Not being able to account for this condition of things, as he had declined to one of our express men...

CONCEALED WEAPONS. A man giving his name as M. C. Littlefield was arrested yesterday for being on the street in a state of intoxication.

being on the street in a state of intoxication. He was taken to headquarters, and searched. Concealed weapons being discovered upon his person, this charge also was preferred against him. A fine of $13.10 was imposed by the court.

FUTURE PROSPECTS. Hon. Geo. F. Wright has returned from Des Moines where he has engaged quarters for the winter. As soon as Morgan gets matters at the Globe straightened he will start and there is no doubt when he once gets settled in the capital city and down to business, out from under the influence of J. W. Chapman we shall see published in Council Bluffs a first-class democratic organ.

THANKSGIVING SERVICES. There will be union Thanksgiving service at the Congregational church in this city to-morrow forenoon. All are invited to attend. Those who have a desire to help the needy will have an opportunity as a special collection for that purpose will be taken up.

A YOUTHFUL OFFENDER. Justice Wright had another of the little U. P. pilferers up before him yesterday, and after listening to the testimony, rendered a verdict of guilty. But out of sympathy for the broken down boy he only imposed a fine of 50 cents and costs.
