

THE PUBLIC SERVICE.
The President's Policy Regarding Appointments.

Incumbents to Remain Till Their Terms Expire.
A "306" Badge Not a Sure Passport to Favor.
WASHINGTON SPECIAL (Special Commercial).
It has been the experience of all the Ohio statesmen who have visited Washington since the advent of the new administration that President Arthur was adverse to making any more changes in the federal office than is absolutely necessary.

them to hold their own here. They find a high standard of musical taste, and not only meet themselves, but are also confronted with young music scholars who can teach more of music than they ever heard. The bulk of these unfortunate teachers soon find that they are engaged in the poorest imaginable business. The work of getting a paying class is discouraging to the last degree, and only a few of them succeed in making living wages.

CONNUBIALITIES.

As an Omaha lady writes herself that she is about to be married, and the bridegroom is the late Judge's son-in-law, it is not surprising that she is a young and beautiful girl, and the bridegroom is a young and beautiful man. Mr. Wm. Christie, the newly appointed astronomer royal of England, will be married to a daughter of Alfred Hickman on November 29.

and he swores at the boy in an impulsive kind of way that was calculated to make the youth fly around and get back during the summer. But he was one of the perverse kids who are not appalled much by profanity, and when he got the pick he began to whack it around and tear up the virgin soil, partly for fun and partly to kill time.
By and bye he dug out the corner of a rock that aroused his curiosity, and after sniffing on it and wiping it carefully on his pants, he looked at it with one eye closed, like an expert who is paid $5,000 to guess at the value of a mine.
Then he took the rock back to the old man, and when the crusty party was about to attack him and to iron drill the boy showed him the specimen.
The old man looked at it and then changed his mind about knocking the boy galley west, as he had at first intended to do. He went up the gulch and opened up a mine that he had lately for $150,000.
The boy is red-headed and has freckles on his nose as big as a moss piggie, and his eyes-lashes are white and his teeth are put in crooked, but he is the idol of a happy home. When he puts a spit stick on the tail of the family dog, or fills the cream pitcher full of young frogs, or makes an aquarium of the soup tureen, the parents simply pass it by as an eccentricity of genius, and he does almost as he likes. The parental heart is in one broad avenue of golden sun light, adown whose vista he softly steals, and the bright and bounteous universe holds not in all its mighty grip a boy whose warty and freckle bespattered face is lighted with joy more peculiarly potent than his own.

BURROCK'S BLOOD BITTERS
It is a remarkable fact that Dr. Thomas' Food is as useful for internal as for external use. For aches of the limbs and throats, for rheumatism, neuralgia, crick in the back, wounds and sores, it is the best remedy known, and it is not to be overlooked by the young people who are so fond of the sweetened variety.
Mrs. J. G. Robertson, Pittsburgh, Pa., writes: "I was suffering from general debility, want of appetite, constipation, etc., so that it was a hard matter to get on. After using Burdock's Blood Bitters I feel better than for years. I cannot praise your Bitters too much."
R. Gibbs, of Buffalo, N. Y., writes: "Your Burdock's Blood Bitters, in chronic diseases of the blood liver and kidneys, have been singularly successful, and I have used them in many cases with best results, for topical use of the liver and kidneys, and I have found them to be a relief in cases of a form of neuralgia, from dropsy, the effect was marvelous."
Mrs. Wallace, Buffalo, N. Y., writes: "I have been subject to serious disorder of the kidneys, and unable to attend to business; Burdock's Blood Bitters relieved me in a few weeks, and I feel confident that this will entirely cure me."
E. Southall Hall, Birmingham, N. Y., writes: "I suffered with a dull pain through my left hand and shoulder. Lost my spirits, appetite and color, and could with difficulty keep up all day. Took your Burdock's Blood Bitters as directed, and have felt no pain since first week after using them."
Mr. Noah Bates, Elmira, N. Y., writes: "About four years ago I had an attack of bilious fever, and never fully recovered. My digestive organs were weakened, and I could not eat or sleep. I used your Burdock's Blood Bitters and in a few days I was able to get on my feet, and I feel better than for years past."
Mrs. J. A. McKim, Buffalo, N. Y., writes: "I suffered from a dull pain through my left hand and shoulder. Lost my spirits, appetite and color, and could with difficulty keep up all day. Took your Burdock's Blood Bitters as directed, and have felt no pain since first week after using them."
Mrs. Ira Mullolland, Albany, N. Y., writes: "For several years I have suffered from recurring bilious headache, and was unable to get on my feet. Since using your Burdock's Blood Bitters I am entirely relieved."
Price, 50c per bottle; Trial Bottles 10 Cts.

A FACTORY GIRL'S LUCK.
Preparing for Her Marriage to a New York Banker.
Troy (N. Y.) Telegram.
For a couple of years past a young girl of modern mien and considerable beauty has been employed in the Beverwyck Mill at Sandlake. Her parents were poor but respectable residents of that town, and the education which she received was entirely through her own efforts. About a year ago a young druggist of this city began to "pay attention" to the emerald factory girl and for a time it was thought that a wedding would be the result. But the match, if it had been contemplated, was broken off by the relatives of the young man, and the girl for a time seemed very much put out over the affair. She declared that she had never promised to be the young druggist's wife, but it gave her pain to realize that his relatives should deem her beneath them. A few months ago a distant relative of the young lady living at Brooklyn invited her to visit that city. While there she became acquainted with a rising young banker, a member of the New York Stock Exchange. The young man was not slow to discover the fact that the factory girl was a jewel of the first water. He inquired into her ancestry, and learned that her family were respectable people, and that there was nothing against them but their poverty, he proposed to her, and after due time was accepted. The young lady has returned to Sandlake, where she is preparing for the marriage with the New York banker. The event will be celebrated this month, and the other girls in the Beverwyck Mill who were prone to accuse their former companion of having been given the cold shoulder by a "pill maker," now treat her with great respect as the promised bride of a rich New Yorker.

A Disgraceful Trial.
Cincinnati Commercial.
A serious person seems to be troubled because he has to say that Guitou, the murderer, must be executed unconditionally, if not officially, and because we do not affect to be distressed because the bloodstained miscreant in the line of the assassin of great and useful men is occasionally shot at.

Do Not Be Deceived.
In these times of quack medicine advertisements everywhere, it is truly gratifying to find one remedy that is worthy of praise, and which really does as recommended. Electric Bitters, we can vouch for as being a true and reliable remedy, and one that will do as recommended. They invariably cure stomach and liver complaints, diseases of the Kidneys and Urinary difficulties. We know whereof we speak, and can readily say, give them a trial. Sold at fifty cents a bottle by J. B. McMAHON.
