Encouraging News From a Prosperous Farming District.

In addition to that, the resolution has been supplemented by a newspaper acti-cle, traced to the pen of Mr. Farnham, in which harsh and unjust expressions are used toward to class i self. He has left his "e rmarks" in the acticle.

The above is an extract from an article written by a correspondent, which appeared simultaneously in the two morning papers, who signs his name as "Parent" We will say that Hayes, on Seventh street. The folso far as the charge that Mr. Farnham was the moving spirit in the article which appeared in The Bee on Monday morning, the writer is mistaken. Mr. Farnham neither by word, thought nor expression was sult. concerned in penning the first article. We believed that the resolution exon-erating Miss Nye, reported by the committee appointed to investigate the sides are being lifted at the rate of charges of incompetency preferred by the "senior class" and approved by the school board, was sufficient premises upon which to predicate the article. We believed the report to have been made in good faith with no attempt at "white washing," and if such was the case of course no other inference could be drawn. We will say that so far as our present school board are concerned we believe they at heart. But to take a stand in the middle of a school term between be expected. All are invited. teacher and class is not always a pleasant position in which to place those who have the welfare of our schools in their keeping. The board in good faith employed Miss Nye, upon their decision would hang her reputation as a teacher for all time to come. A dismissal for in- at Burke's hotel yesterday. "That's competency would cause her an irreparable injury, while the class could manage without being permenantly crip pled in their scholastic attainments to get through the remainder of the term. At the same time, however, we be-lieve the most advanced scholar that can be found should be given the "Senior class" in our high school. The ladies and gentlemen who compore it are preparing to leave school perhaps for ever, and take upon them the active duties of life. For this reason they should receive the most advanced instructions and when a teacher fails to come up to the standard she should step down and out.

PROSPEROUS FARMING DISTRICT. Edwin Burtridge, of Boone, called at The Ber office yesterday. Edwin is not the neatest man about his person that ever was, yet he seems to be a good-hearted old farmer. He takes THE BEE and says that "the old woman" can't make decent pancakes in the morning through the week, unless she reads THE WEEKLY BEE. Mr. B. was in good spirits and thinks that Boone's prospect is ahead of any other town in Pottawattamie county. Everybody out there is happy over the future. The farmers all will have enough and to spare. A large proportion of them will feed foreign stock this winter. Ho will himself teed about 85 head, his son, William, 34 head; Peter Peterson, one car load; at prices that defy competition at L. Goudin, 4 cars; C. Peterson, 51 head; Tom French 17 head; L. Jensen, 17 head, and John Wilmot, one car load. Mr. B. says he shall raise this year 12,000 bushels of corn, 2,000 bushels of oats, 1,800 bushels of Irish potatoes, besides other farm products and will clear about $5,000. This is certainly a good showing for a Pottawattamie farmer.

ORANGE BLOSSOMS.

Rev. J. G. Lemen, paster of the Baptist church, at the parlors yesterday morning, united in marriage Mr. L. F. Bayle and Miss Ella A. Lewis The greem is an industrious, enterprising citizen of Walnut, this county, with a future before filled with bright prospects. The bride is a most esti-mable young Christian lady, being an active member of the Baptist church here. The marriage was apparently a very happy one, the couple having known and loved each other from early childhood. The large circle of friends and acquaintance of the bride wish her great happiness. She will be missed in the young circles here.

The senior class in the high school who are causing that committee of the school board "to kick in their beds," comes within one of being 'female" throughout. Only a "single" young man in their ranks to de-fend them. They declare they could see the fine points in philosophy and alegebra with one (Nye) out plainer than they have this term of school.

THE BAPTIST SOCIABLE

given by Mrs. Seaman, Mrs. Wash-burn and Mrs. Odell, notwithstanding the unfavorable weather, was generally attended by the members of the so ciety and others from all denominations. The entertainment consisted of music, singing, select reading and tableaux. Miss Blanche Olliver, a member of the Philharmonic society, and who carried a leading part in their presentation of the "Sorcerer," presided with her accustomed grace at the piano, and during the evening sang one of her choice vocal selections. Rev. J. G. Lemen read in his usual pleasing manner a selection from Ten-nyson's "Despair." Mrs. Dr. A. P. nyson's "Despair." Mrs. Dr. A. P. Hanchet rendered "The Rock of is the central figure, was presented, being beaucifully illuminated. Rereshments in abundance were served, and all came away highly delighted, and with the opinion that it was the most enjoyable occasion of the season.

THE COUTLANDS. A well filled house again greeted the Cortland Murray company last night. The play presented was "Camille," Sarah Bernhardt's favorite play. The audience were weil pleased. Miss Cortland displayed her special powers as an actress. Mr. Murray sustained the reputation as a character actor of the best type. Now that we have a first-class company here nightly, it is a good opportunity to tell whether first-class company here nightly, it is a good opportunity to tell whether this city can support a theatre. Everybody who can, should attend.

The music rendered by the Nunn Brothers' orchestra nightly at Dohany's cannot be excelled, and is well worth the full price of admission.

MISCELLANEOUS MENTION. There were three drunks registered

We are informed that a majority of the "senior class" intend to pack their alegebra and slate and take the dummy for Omaha, unless a teacher that Dormer Windows, Finials, has not been "white-washed," as they elaim, is given them for the remain der of the year.
