The significant dates, "1856-1881," and the day evening at Masonic Hall. The word "Welcome," wrought in silver, popularity of this organization was atadorned the lambrequins in the principal reception room.

Every floor was thrown open to the guests, who, to the number of fully two hundred, thronged the rooms during the afternoon and evening.

A magnificent collation was spread on the first floor, adjoining the parlors, while the second floor was set couples kept the floor echoing to the apart for dancing, the music being the steps of the dance until early mornvery best that could be furnished by that excellent organi-Hoffmann's orchestra, which turned out in full on this occasion.

The greatest attraction, however, was in the reception rooms proper, where were found Mr. and Mrs. Lininger, across whose lives, the years required to bring them to their Silver Wedding day have passed so lightly. Mr. Lininger and Miss Caroline M. Newman were married in Illinois and came to Omaha was in the reception rooms proper, ried in Illinois and came to Omaha about seven years ago, after a residence of some years in Council Bluffs. Here, as elsewhere, they made a host of friends for themselves, and the guests included not only the first people of our city, but numerous representative citizens of some of our neighboring towns.

Mrs. Lininger was assisted in her duties as hesters by Mrs. Joe Metcalf, Miss Minnie Hainesworth, Mrs. Bowman, Mrs. Ella Beal, Mi-s May Camp-Mrs. Byron Reed and Miss Jessie Roddis, and these ladies entertained the visitors right royally, while
