Mayor Vaughan, who seems to take a great interest in our streets and walks, again called atttention to the dangerous condition of some of them and recommended that, in view of the scarcity and high price of brick, a couple of plank be laid down on all walks that have been graded. The mayor also called attention to the importance of railroads having flagmen at all important crossings. Several walks leading to the transfer, including that on Pine street, were ordered repaired at once. The street supervisor was instructed to grade Union avenue and issue Union dirt tickets in pay for the work, said tickets to be
