Chewing Increase in the Population and Two Happy Daddies.

Miscellaneous News, Police Pickings and Something About the Mud.

The supreme court has passed upon the matter of slackening the speed of trains when coming within the city limits in favor of the railroad corporation. That is, the decision gave the railroad companies within the unsettled limits of a city the same consideration in the matter of running their trains as they would be entitled to when running through any unsettled country; that an ordinance limiting the speed of trains within the unsettled limits of a city is an unreasonable restriction upon railroads and an obstruction to public travel. Under the ordinance in question in this case it would take three-quarters of an hour after entering the corporate limits of Council Bluffs to pass over three miles of railroad, through agricultural lands, fenced on both sides, and reach the inhabited portion of the city, and it would take over an hour and a half to reach the Union Pacific depot. The ordinance places not only an unreasonable restriction upon the railroads themselves, but necessarily impedes the whole traveling public. If all the cities situated along the line of the defendant's road between Council Bluffs and Chicago should enact and enforce a like ordinance, it is apparent that the time between the two cities would be greatly increased. The ordinance operates as a restraint upon commerce, and ought not to be sustained.

PAVED STREETS A NECESSITY.

The past few days must have the tendency to set citizens thinking of the importance of paved streets. Council Bluffs, above all other considerations, needs pavements. Broadway, Main and Pearl streets, ought to be put in a condition to transact business upon in all kinds of weather. The fact stares us in the face that after a heavy rain storm it is almost impossible to any very heavy teaming upon them, and the sooner some action is taken in the matter the better it will be for the city and business. Not a single dollar should be expended in parks or any other improvements until these streets are paved with something suitable to haul heavy loads over. There should be some definite action taken as soon as the financial condition will warrant it, and all other improvements foregone until it is accomplished.

GRADING.

The street supervisor, while at the work of grading Union avenue, should be instructed to build the same to grade, if not higher. In this event it would serve a double purpose, as a grand thoroughfare to the Union Pacific depot, and as a levee, to keep back the Big Muddy in times of high water.

CATHOLIC FAIR.

Next Monday evening the fair to be given under the auspices of the Catholic church will open in this city. Among the attractions the first night will be the presentation of the very interesting operetta, "The Fairy Grotto," by about seventy children. On the second evening, we understand that a dramatic company from Omaha will present the drama entitled, "Waiting for the Verdict." Extensive preparations are being made, and the affair promises a good deal of amusement.

THE SCHOOL BOARD.

met Monday evening, and transacted the following business, L. F. Murphy, president, in the chair; present, Spooner, Clausen and Brower: The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved. Communication of Miss E. D. Patton was referred. Communication of Harley, McKune & Co. was referred to Dr. Groen with power to act.

CHANGED HIS QUARTERS.

We notice that the billy dog, who has occupied unobscured a position under the west window sill of the Council Bluffs savings bank, has moved across the street. He was anxious to get over before the spring thaw set in.

SOMETHING FOR THE INNER MAN.

A Loui, that prince of caterers, is prepared to furnish catables for Christmas to suit all tastes, from a cannibal to a new born babe. The display he makes in front of his restaurant on Broadway, compels every passer-by to stop and express surprise and astonishment. There can be seen in the game line, wild turkeys, elk, mountain deer, gazelle, antelope, rabbit, squirrel, duck, wild duck, roe salt water fish, halibut, cod, hake,

ALLER SAME OMAHA.

A gentleman left the Ogden yesterday to go to the court house, and he says he never heard so many or such a variety of adjectives placed before the word muddy. The first man he met on leaving the hotel in response to the usual salutation, remarked: Very muddy, the next, awful muddy; the next, dreadful muddy; the next, fearful muddy, and again, d-d muddy, fearfully d-muddy, and so on. He concluded that the streets in council Bluffs must be unusually muddy.
