The benfires of Irish liberty were set ablaze at the court house on Thursday evening. The occasion as previously announced in THE BEE, of Cox, arrested by Officer Brooks, being the reception of Hon. T. P. and A. McDonald, by Clough, same offense, were fined each $6.85, which O'Connor, M. P., who addressed a they will work out on the streets. half of the peasantry of his native country. He is about 35 years of age, a fat, $15. To day he will be discharged jovial, good natured gentleman. Apparently the trouble in Ireland does not interfere with his appetite in the least degree, and being an exceptionan interesting subject he could but please and delight all present. Mayor Vaughan presided, called the meeting to order, and in a very pleasing speech introduced Hon.

Joseph R. Reed, judge of the district court, who explained the object of the presence of the distinguished speaker in Council Bluffs. Then, in a few shook their heads, gritted their teeth, and swung their ears to and fro, but it was no use.

Notice is hereby given that Mrs. Phillip Kochded, up n the 20th day o December, A. Then, in a few to be paved at once. choice words, he introduced Mr. O'Connor, who commenced by expostulation upon the tyranny of the English government through their soldiery in the interest of landlordism in Ireland. He said that 50,000 are stationed there, a large portion of whom are policemen. That the population of Ireland is about five million, and to coerce these this large force is kept upon Irish soila force far exceeding the entire standing army in America with a population of 50,000,000. He spoke of Irish prisons and their occupants. That in them instead of finding poor, eringing criminals, such men as Parof England are very moderate. He does not hope for Irish independence, he only asks that the laws of England be made to bear with equal weight upon English subjects wherever found. They demand that their leaders be set free, and freedom from the iron rule of what is termed Laudlordism for the Irish peasantry, and they have sworn with the help of God and all laws of lib-

BAD STREETS.

The bad condition of our streets est the business men of Council Bluffs nearer five hundred than one hundred dollars per day, and this expense will continue until some action towards paving is taken. Jack Frost clayed havoc with the streets on Thursday night. It is not only next to impossible to run the Herdies, but the street car track was frozen under the mad in such a way as to almost compel the company to suspend oper-

PATAL ACCIDENT.

Laus Johnson was run over and killed by a passenger train on Wednes day morning, about one mile from this city. The facts, so far as they can be learned, are these: Johnson belonged to the section gang and with the others took a hand-car off the track to allow a freight train to pass. The section boss called to the men to come across the track on the side opposite the one the men were standing on. They waited until the freight passed and not noticing there was a passenger train following close behind, the men obeyed the call. The soming passenger train struck John son just as he had got nearly over harling him upon the track and runuing over him, inflicting injuries of which he soon after died.
