"YOU CAN'T DO IT."

When we came to Omaha to intro-duce the DUKE OF DURHAM Cigarette, som people said, "You can't do it," as so many others have tried it and failed, and the trade are dis-gusted, etc. We never had any doubt that the DUKE OF DURHAM Cigarette would meet with popular favor and sell rapidly, knowing it to be made of the BEST North Carolina Tobacco, wrapped with the BEST rice paper, and ABSOLUTELY free of DRUGS. You see, we give consumers eredit for knowing a good thing when they have tried it, and then we thought how comfortable the feeling (when enjoying a leisure smoke) TO KNOW that you are not absorbing Miscellaneous Notes From the Na-

EXODUS OF MEMBERS.

It has been the subject of comment by the oldest inhabitant, that he has never before seen Washington so without members of congress during the holidays. This general exodus is due in the main to the increased facilities and comforts for winter travel, which has been introduced in the past few years. With the exception of the gentleman from Oregon, there is THE LOWER DEPARTMENTS,

The commissioner of railreads is now temporarily filled by Assistant Attorney General per year. A like vacancy exists in the patent office, owing to the recent resignation of Commissioner Marble. For both positions there are numerous applicants. Several vacancies exist in the board of Indian commissioners, which are, however, but honorary positions. The census office, which is attached to this department, has so nearly completed its work that a gen eral discharge is expected between the 1st and 15th of January. A few clerks will be retained, however, and the office kept running to prepare work. FOREIGN REPRESENTATIVES DEPARTING. HIS ADDRESS TO THE CARDINALS. ROME, December 25.—The Pope, in his address to the Cardinals at his reception of them yesterday, spoke bitterly of his situation. He said his position was becomming more and more intolerable. He had been so reduced in his office, he said, he was compelled of necessity to perform the recent canonization without much of the accustomed splendor, and was personally insulted through those canonized. If he continued he claimed temporal cused of being a rebel against his
