NEW YEAR'S RECEPTIONS

A Beautiful Day to Observe the Pleasant Custom of Cordial Greetings.

The official first day of the year opened with a crisp, clear atmosphere and a bright smiling sun, which seemed to cheerily wish the world a happy New Year. The public offices were generally closed and business suspended until the afternoon and then the employees were allowed the remainder of the day for recreation and pleasure.

The City Departments Handsomely Received at Mayor Boyd's.

Many open doors are invitingly spread wide apart to welcome callers. The mayor, especially, did the handsome and his spacious edifice on the corner of Nineteenth and Chicago streets was thronged with visitors since the first hour of reception, eleven o'clock yesterday.

A Happy Restoration.

The friends of Ex-Mayor Chase's family will be pleased to know that Mrs. Chase, who has suffered the past month from a malignant cancer, underwent a successful operation yesterday morning, in which it was removed.

An Important Notice.
MAYOR'S OFFICE,
Omaha, Neb., Dec. 28, 1881.
NOTICE TO LIQUOR DEALERS.

THE TROUBADOURS.

They Delight Two Full Grown Audiences at Foyd's Opera House.

The gay and jolly Troubadours made New Year's day at the opera house most pleasant and enjoyable. This troupe of real artists, with their sparkling songs and endless fun, deserve the best that any city can afford them and Omaha surely gave them the best she had.

SLOCUMB'S DAY.

The High License Law Goes Quietly Into Effect.
About Fifty Saloons and Hotel Bars to Remain Open.

The police were busy yesterday deluging the licenses granted to the fortunate applicants, and notifying them to take down their curtains and screens. The following are the names of the liquor dealers to whom licenses were granted:

DRUGGISTS.
Schroeder & Becht, William J. Whitehouse, Kennard Bros. & Co., C. F. Goodman, Edward Dietrich, John Dwyer, James Forst, J. A. Roeder, Charles Kalmant and Ish & McMahon.

THE GERMAN THEATRE.

Great Success of Alwine Heynold in Theresa Kronos Last Evening.
Alwine Heynold made her third appearance at the German theatre Sunday night and it was unanimously agreed by all present that she eclipsed all her former performances in Omaha.

No More Hard Times.

If you will stop spending so much on fine clothes, rich food and style, buy good, healthy food, cheaper and better clothing, get more rest and substantial things of life every way, and especially stop the foolish habit of employing expensive, quack doctors or using so much of the vile humbug medicine that does you only harm, but put your trust in that simple, pure remedy, Hon. Bitters, that cures always at a trifling cost, and you will see good times and have good health. - Chronicle. Jan 12.
