

THE DAILY BEE Friday Morning, Jan. 6.

Weather Report (The following observations are taken at the same moment of time at all the stations named.)

LOCAL BREVITIES.

The Telegram published its last number Wednesday. The city treasurer's office is draped heavily in mourning.

All of the trains from the east came in on time yesterday. A little sleighing and a little skating makes it look like a real winter.

Specialty of Prescriptions at Opera House: Pharmacy Schrotter & Becht. oc25t.

Manager Philbin, has removed his skating rink fixtures from the Poppleton corner.

The Florence Herbert troupe and the Ada Gray combination are both stopping with mine host Canfield.

There is nothing but the pleasant rivalry between the two theatrical companies which appear in the city tonight.

The funeral of Mrs. Col. Chase will take place from the late residence, corner Thirteenth and Dodge streets, at 1:30 p. m. to-day.

Mr. J. F. Sweeney, formerly with THE BEE, is one of the deputy clerks under Elmer Frank. The selection is an excellent one.

On Tuesday, Mr. John Fleming and wife celebrated the fifteenth anniversary of their wedding, at their residence on Capitol avenue.

H. G. S. Alden, a switchman in the U. P. yard in this city, had one of his hands severely pinched yesterday while coupling cars. He will be disabled for several days.

Ad. Jones, manager of the Omaha Boys' Industrial Association, will gladly receive any contributions of cast-off clothing or of blankets for the comfort of the boys. The Boys' Home is at 1216 Cass street.

small hour," when a sumptuous repast was spread, and the company sat down to a New Year's feast. It was a late hour before the guests departed, each wishing the young hostess the happiest fortune for the coming year.

Attached to train No. 3 on the Union Pacific railroad yesterday were two cars of military recruits for western posts. The troops numbered sixty, and are intended for cavalry service.

THE WEATHER.

How the New Year is Ushered in and What it Promises.

If the year which has just entered upon its monotonous course in the orb of eternity were to be as unsteady and unsettled as the weather which it brought with it, we would scarcely laud it as the "happy new year" which we yet so fondly expect it to be.

For several days past a heavy, dull atmosphere has overhung the city and country like the threatening sword of Damocles, ready to precipitate at any moment a protracted snow storm upon us such afflicted mortals, not that we stand in particular need of any snow just yet, there having already fallen 2.2 inches this week, but that it would be a great pity, next to a calamity, to spoil us the glorious fun of wading through two inches of Omaha mud, when we might possibly enjoy the benefits of three times the amount.

Supreme Court Decision. The following is a recent Supreme Court decision in which the Omaha bar will be interested: Smith vs. State. Error from Sarpy county. Reversed and dismissed. Opinion by Cobb, J.

I. H. B. S., as principal with W. H. S. and E. S. as sureties, entered into a bond before an examining court conditioned that "the said I. H. B. S. shall be and appear at said March term of said district court, on the first day thereof, and not depart said court without leave, and shall abide the order of said court," etc.

Grand Lodge I. O. G. T. The Grand Lodge of Good Templars will meet in Hastings, Wednesday, January 18, at 9 a. m.

The headquarters of the Grand Lodge will be the Commercial Hotel. Most of the eastern delegations will stop at this house. The rates have been reduced to $1.50 per day to delegates and visitors.

It is suggested that eastern delegations go to Hastings on Tuesday the 17th, as it will enable them to become acquainted and make the journey more pleasant.

It is hoped that every lodge will be represented, as the work for the next year is of vital importance, and we need the counsel of every true Good Templar.

MISS GRAY'S HIT.

A Splendid Performance of East Lynne at Boyd's.

When it was announced that Miss Ada Gray was to appear in this city with Watkins' Fifth Avenue combination as support, theatre goers congratulated themselves that they should be afforded something pretty good in the dramatic line.

Her first exhibition of jealousy of her husband's attention of another which she misjudged was as natural and true to life as it could be. The alternating passions of love and jealousy, trust and fear, were artistically displayed and "Lady Isabel" was indeed a good wife, whose ears were always strained for the whisper of slander against her husband, whose eyes watched as a lynx his every motion and step.

When, later on, she had taken the rash and faulty step of leaving with the man who sought only to destroy her virtue, her passion, not that of the woman impelled to a guilty act by its inducements, but that of one driven to madness by her blind jealousy of the man whose very being she would be supreme mistress of.

The other characters in the play were Miss Corney by Mrs. S. B. Baker; Barbara Hare by Miss Jennie Gordon; Joyce by Mrs. Jane Russell; Susanne by Miss Marion Russell; Sir Francis Levison by Mr. J. J. Louden; Archibald Carlyle by Mr. J. R. Furlong; John Dill by Mr. Wood Benson; Richard Hare by Mr. Alex. Dwyer; Little Willie, Little Lucy, by Master Tommy Russell.

This popular play drew a good audience to the Academy of Music last evening, all of whom were highly pleased. Miss Herbert in the title role carried her part very successfully, and Ferguson was immense, as usual in his character acting. The thrilling scene of the train rushing down upon the victim tied to the rails was well put on the stage and elicited hearty applause.

Guilty of Wrong. Some people have a fashion of confusing excellent remedies with the large mass of "patent medicines," and in this they are guilty of wrong. There are some advertised remedies fully worth all that is asked for them, and one at least we know of—Hop Bitters. The writer has had occasion to use the Bitters in just such a climate as we have most of the year in Bay City, and has always found them first class and reliable, doing all that is claimed for them.—Tribune, 12-15.

THE SPECIAL MEETING.

Which was Held by the City Council Last Evening.

A special meeting of the city council was held last evening to pass upon the bonds of the newly appointed city treasurer, Truman Buck. President Dalley, Councilmen Baker, Corby, Dalone, Dunham, McGivock, McNamara and Stull were present.

Mr. Buck's bond was presented. It is in the sum of $100,000 and bears besides Buck's name those of Samuel R. Johnson, Chas. H. Brown, Chas. C. House, Oscar F. Davis, L. B. Williams, Lyman Richardson and J. H. Kellon.

WORTHY OF PRAISE. As a rule we do not recommend patent medicines, but when we know of one that really is a public benefactor, and does positively cure, then we consider it our duty to impart that information to all.

LAND LEAGUE.

Important Meeting Wednesday Night in Kuony's Hall.

The joint meeting of the land leagues at Kuony's Wednesday night was an important one and the business transacted considerable. The attendance was large and the enthusiasm up to the standard, evincing the fact that the Irish people of this city are as much as their fellow countrymen on the oppressed Isle, determined to hold on until the aim and object they seek is accomplished.

PERSONAL.

T. Wilson, of Sidney, is in the city. Charlie Rice, of Chicago, is at the Canfield hotel. A. O. Filler, of Basil Mills, is in the city. Dr. S. L. Dart, of Herman, is at the Creighton.

A Bee reporter dropped in at the United States court room yesterday on his regular round of the government building and was astonished to find that all the chairs and everything except the carpets and oil cloth had been removed.

On inquiry it was learned that the carpenters were about to begin some extensive changes in the room, made by order of Judges McCrary and Dundey. It will be remembered that the desks of the judges and clerk, with the heavy ornamental bar and rails were so situated that when court was in session the judges sat facing the north, with the jury on their left.

At the City Council meeting last evening, Mr. J. H. Bailey, representative from Washington county, is in the city. Dr. L. B. Grady was a south-bound passenger on the B. & N. last night. M. A. and John Kennedy, of Des Moines, are registered at the Canfield.

C. W. Osborne, a prominent citizen of Blair, is registered at the Withwell house. T. R. Morrison, of Council Bluffs, is in town today, registered at the Occidental hotel. Henry Morrow, a prominent attorney and politician, of Iowa City, is at the Creighton.

A Happy Restoration. PORTLAND, Mich., Aug. 24, 1881. H. H. WALKER & Co., Sir:—I most heartily recommend your Safe Kidney and Liver Cure, to all sufferers from urinary difficulties. I owe my present existence to its use. J. S. MATTHEWS, 12-15.

A TOOL STEALER.

He is Captured by McCune and Langshues in the Calaboose. On Monday night a tool chest in the Grand Central hotel building was broken into and a valuable set of tools stolen. The officers have been looking the case up since and last night McCune recovered the tools and arrested the thief thereof.

Nil Desperandum.

When your girl gives you the mitten, and you feel your heart is broke, don't give way to black despair, but treat it as a joke.

MASH AND MILK.

A Runaway and Some Disappointed Customers. There was a lively runaway on Twelfth street yesterday. The team attached to Martin Tibke's milk wagon, was left standing unhitched at the front gate of a customer, and while the lactical fluid was being delivered to the patron the team started south on the dead run.

They rounded the corner of Farnham and 12th like a streak of lightning and overturned the wagon and contents just in front of M. Toff's cigar emporium. The horses were caught and detached from the wagon before any serious damage was done. Then the milk cans, one
