ROVING RAILROADERS.

Jay Gould and the Wabash Directors Come in from the South.

A. B. & M. Special-Miscellaneous Railroad Items.

Jay Gould, the railroad king, who recently gobbled up the Wabash, St. Louis & Pacific road, which he proposes to make one of the greatest trunk lines in the country, came up from the south Monday on a special train, accompanied by the directors and officers of that popular route.

The party remained over night in their car at the Union Pacific transfer, and left on a special train at 6:20 this morning for Chicago.

The new officers of the Wabash, under the Gould regime are: Hon. John C. Gault, general manager; Col. Robert A. Andrews, general superintendent of the entire system and H. C. Townsend, general passenger and ticket agent for the whole system.

Col. Andrews is one of the oldest men connected with the Wabash road and began his official career as a station agent on the Toledo, Wabash & Western main line.

The Nonpareil of yesterday morning says: A Nonpareil man learned last night of the rumor that Jay Gould, the railway king, arrived in Council Bluffs last evening on the Wabash on his westward trip.

The annual election of officers for the Standard club takes place on Thursday evening.

The time of the next Vesta Chapter party has been changed from the 13th to Monday the 16th.

Mattland, the tool taker, was sent to jail for twenty days Monday by Judge Benke for larceny.

A grand concert in the auspices of the Omaha Glee club, with Miss Fannie Kellogg as the star, is among the pleasant possibilities for February.

Aug. Arnold left for Lincoln yesterday, in charge of U. S. Marshal Bierbower and Deputy Marshal Sanders, to be tried there on the charge of sending threatening letters to Judge Dundly.

Will H. Potter, who died in Denver on the evening of January 8th, was a member of Pioneer convention No. 118, Royal Arcanum, Omaha, and his life was insured for the benefit of his mother for $5,000.

The Kitchen Bros. have decided in consideration of a $5,000 bonus from the business men of Farnham street, to make the new Grand Central hotel five stories high. It had been intended to stop with the fourth story.

The folder issued by the "Sioux City route," containing an epitomized statement of the advantages of the various counties passed through by the line from Blair to Long Pine, is a handy article to have about the house or office.

There meeting of the state board of agriculture will take place in Lincoln on the 17th of this month, when the election of officers for the ensuing year will take place. The principal contest will be for secretary, for which place there are three candidates already in the field-D. H. Walker, R. W. Farnas and C. H. Wheeler.

A concert and ball for the benefit of the Hebrew benevolent society, will take place at Standard hall on Tuesday evening, January 17. Philanthropic club will participate also in the concert; also the Musical Union orchestra, and very likely the Omaha Glee club. The committee consists of Julius Meyer, chairman, Sol. Prince, M. Goldsmith, Mrs. M. Hellman, Mrs. A. Cahn, Mrs. I. Rubin, Mrs. A. Heller.

Maj. G. Stevenson, who directed the stage business of the "Chinese of Norway," when produced by the Harmon society, about a month ago, was Monday presented by the society with a miniature gold bell, in recognition of his services on that occasion. The presentation was made by Mr. Dorman, the president, and was briefly responded to by Major Stevenson. The bell is inscribed, "To Major G. Stevenson, with the compliments of the Omaha Harmonic society, Dec. 23, 1881."

Old Fellows Excursion to Blair. Omaha Lodge No. 2, I. O. O. F., have arranged for an excursion and chartered a special train over the Chicago, St. Paul, Minnesota and Omaha railroad. They will leave the depot at 6:30 p. m., Thursday evening, and will leave hall at 6 o'clock. Parties not members of the order who join the excursion will please be at the depot at 6:30. Going to Blair to meet with members of the order and their families. A big time is expected.

Addison's Appeal. To the Citizens of Omaha. I pray you all, for the good of all, not to give provisions, clothing or money to boys or girls who may come to your door, but refer them to the O. B. rooms, 1216 Cass street. By strict adherence to this request you will greatly aid me in the work which I have undertaken, and which is so important to every citizen of Omaha. If you have anything to give, please drop a postal card to Addison Jones, 1216 Cass street, or 1616 Dodge.

If you want boy help, or washwomen, or servant girls, address me and you will receive prompt attention without any charge. Our help is good, and very often first class. I am your obedient servant, Addison Jones, Manager O. B. I. A.

A Booming Outlook for the Local Association.

The monthly meeting of the Young Men's Christian association was held at their rooms Monday, a large number of the active members being present. Mr. Robert Weidensall, the traveling secretary of the international committee, was also present upon the special invitation of the association.

There seems to be just at this time an especial awakening on the part of the members of the association and those interested in the welfare of young men, and in consequence the meeting was full of life last night.

Mr. P. P. C. Himebaugh, one of the proprietors of the Union elevator, was elected president at their last annual meeting, and being fully in the spirit of this work for young men, is taking a very active interest, and calling to his assistance some of the best men of our city.

Mr. Weidensall, who is well posted on the association work throughout the country, made some practical suggestions as to how the association in Omaha might be made very much more useful in benefiting young men, and suggested that this was an opportune time for making this association one of the very best in the country. As plans for the society's future work are developed we will be pleased to make them known.

OPERA AND MINSTRELS.

"The Mascotte" at Boyd's Opera House Thursday Night.

Haverly's Mastodons Next Monday.

On Thursday evening the C. D. Hess Acme Company will open a three nights' engagement at Boyd's Opera house, tickets being put on sale yesterday. The programme for the first night is the celebrated opera of Audran, "La Mascotte." From present indications there will be an immense reserve. The Detroit Free Press says:

"The best English version of Audran's 'La Mascotte' yet seen in this country was given last night by C. D. Hess Acme company. It was a performance of superior merit in every particular. The artists are all capable, the chorus is composed of fresh, young and vigorous voices, the orchestra was handled with especial skill and judgment, and the costumes were truly magnificent. The entire mise-en-scene was brilliant, harmonious and pleasing. It is years since Detroiters have seen so complete a presentation of a comic opera. Certainly Mr. Hess has given us 'The Mascotte' in a manner decidedly superior to any of the lauded New York productions of the same work. This is not a reckless statement. The fact is the same opera at the Park Theatre in New York last season was weak and shabby by comparison with this, and the Bijou Theatre version was far inferior to it in point of musical excellence. That a manager 'on the road' should succeed in out-doing the best efforts of the metropolis in an operatic venture is a circumstance too significant to let pass unnoticed."

THE MASTODONS. On Monday night Haverly's Original Mastodon minstrels will appear at Boyd's. Charles H. Keechin, the agent, was in the city Monday and called at THE BEE office. His company travels with their own Pullman and baggage cars, and plays almost nightly in all seasons of the year. After completing the Missouri river circuit and playing a week at St. Louis, the Original Mastodon go to Louisville, and from there to New Orleans, in time for Mardi Gras week. They are stronger and more popular now than ever.

FORBES' DRAMATIC CO. Chas. W. Roberts, business manager of the Forbes Dramatic Company, one of the leading dramatic troupes on the road, called at THE BEE office Monday evening to say that his folks are now en route here and will play at Boyd's probably sometime next month. They were unable to get the dates they wanted at once and hence will circle about the Missouri river cities and then return. Mr. Roberts is a veteran manager and a gentleman who is a credit to the profession at all times.

PATTI'S PRICE. Patti's agent, Bernardo De Vivo, went west Monday, bound for San Francisco, to see if arrangements could be made there for Patti to sing at $6,000 per night. Should the lady go west it is possible she may stop over one night at Boyd's, and Manager Marsh will correspond with her manager on the subject at any rate.

Popularity. THOMAS' ELECTRIC OIL has obtained great popularity, from its intrinsic value as a medicinal, in curing hoarseness and all irritations of the throat, diseases of the chest, etc. For these it is an incomparable pulmonary.

THE LAND LEAGUE FAIR. A Large Attendance Last Evening.

The second night of the Land League fair found a greatly increased attendance at Masonic Hall, where it is being held. About four hundred attended during the evening and the attractions were very highly appreciated. The dancing was commenced at 10:30 o'clock. About fifty couples were on the floor at one time. The receipts were very generous. If the attendance increases proportionally the spacious hall will hardly be ample to accommodate the visitors.

It is doubtful if the hall ever looked more tasteful and charming than it does now, the booths with their lace drapery and magnificent banners which are suspended from the pillars and walls, making the large room fairly brilliant with the green, gold and white.

The first booth to the left of the entrance sides contains among other handsome articles an ebony, gold inlaid chair, upholstered with silk, embroidered cardinals plush. This chair is to be voted away, the candidates being Mayor Boyd and Supt. J. T. Clark of the U. P. This booth is in charge of Mrs. Ed. Leader, assisted by Mary Maloney and Mrs. J. J. Kennedy.

Mrs. Thomas P. Casey presides over the next stand, assisted by her daughter, Miss Rosanna Ford, has a fruit stand at one end of this booth.

A handsome booth at the east end of the hall is in charge of Mr. M. Donovan and Mrs. Gen. O'Brien. Here is another fine cash chair to be voted away, the candidates being Major J. V. Furry and Hon. Ezra Millard. This chair was donated by Messrs. Dewey & Stone. A. B. Huberman has donated an elegant set of silverware, Edholm & Erickson has contributed a set of jewelry, the Sisters of Poor Clares have given a beautiful hand-painted cushion decorated with "Erin Go Bragh" and a harp, Mrs. F. J. McShane and Mrs. John McShane have presented a beautiful chronometer, Mrs. McDonagh has given an ebony and porcelain jardiniere, Mr. Backus has contributed a lovely doll, and Mrs. Atkinson and Miss Dacey have each given a lovely dress bonnet. All these articles occupy places in the above booth. Even Miss Hensley and Mrs. Daley conduct a table loaded with valuable articles. Mrs. Hennessy, Mrs. Swift, Mrs. Cunningham, Mrs. McDonagh, Mrs.

LIQUOR LAW VIOLATIONS.

Arrest of Two Dealers for Non-Compliance with the Law.

Other Criminal Business of the Day.

A complaint was Monday filed in the police court against Henry Siert, the Farnham street liquor dealer, or "Manager of the Douglas County Farmers' Association." The charge is that of selling without a license, and is brought under the city ordinance. Yesterday Siert was arrested by the marshal and taken before Judge Benke. His case was continued for a hearing until 2 p. m. Saturday, pending which time he was released on $300 bail.

SUNDAY VIOLATION. Mrs. B. Shannon was arrested yesterday on the charge of selling liquor on Sunday. A continuance was taken for thirty days. Her attorneys will claim that the ordinance is not penal in its nature, but merely a forfeiting one, and that the penalty should be recovered in a civil suit.

MISCELLANEOUS. Jno. Brown and James Brady, were sent to jail by Judge Benke in default of a fine for intoxication.

Two warrants were Monday sworn out for the arrest of Paul E. Houel, one being for obtaining money under false pretenses and the other for forgery.

The case of Steele, Johnson & Co., vs. Geo. W. Homan, Sr., was on trial by jury in the county court yesterday.
