All dances and entertainments that have taken place in Council Bluffs for years were put in the shade by the grand masquerade ball given by the Rescue boys on Wednesday evening.

About 8 o'clock the hall was packed with spectators, and an hour later the floor was crowded with masquers, including "monsters of hideous mien."

The most perfected character was Billy Walters as the Lone Fisherman, unless, perhaps, the Nonpareil's Chief of Police Clark, "Baby Mine," with her nurse bottle and tin rattle created a great deal of amusement.

The devil was there with his long tail and high horn. About half a dozen star routes appeared and created considerable consternation.

Leavitt's minstrels, headed by Ben Butler and Col. Cochran, carrying baby mine, afforded considerable fun for the children.

John Lawson was taken in by officer Sterling yesterday. Being found drunk he was fined $6.85; also John Bell, by the same officer, for the same offense, same fine imposed.

without stint after the administration of such a dose, as a concentrated solution of salt is highly irritating to the stomach and bowels.

Finally, salt is destructive to almost all intestinal worms. In Brazil, where cattle are very subject to parasites, the stock owners have discovered this virtue, and therefore dose their animals twice a year with 1 lb. each of common salt, after the action of which they always manifestly improve in condition.
