

THE DAILY BEE.

Monday Morning, Jan 16.

Weather Report.

(The following observations are taken at the same moment of time at all the stations named.)

Table with columns: Station, Barometer, Thermometer, Wind, Clouds, State of Sky.

River above low water mark, five feet and frozen.

LOCAL BRIEVITIES.

City council to meet tomorrow night. Another cold wave struck the town last night. Sack coats have superseded frocks in the police uniform.

contains about eleven acres, and we think it is very appropriately named, being a lovely site, with box-alders and maple trees set on each side of the street at intervals, making it one of the most delightful heady and home-like places in the city.

A STRONG APPEAL.

Address from the Y. M. C. A. Committee

To those Who Have, or Have Been, Boys.

We, the subscribed committee, would respectfully call the attention of the business men and citizens of Omaha to the following brief statement of the objects of the Young Men's Christian Association:

SIERT'S STRATAGEM.

He Obtains a Continuance in His Case For Nearly a Month.

The case of the city against Henry Siert, the manager of the "Douglas County Farmers' Association" came up in the police court on Saturday afternoon. The defendant was arrested last week on charge of violating the license law.

PERSONAL.

Otto Heret, of Fremont, is in the city. T. M. Junk, of Cheyenne, is in the city. W. E. Page, of Des Moines, is in the city.

THE END.

The Fair for Erin Comes to a Successful Close.

It Wins Financially and Otherwise. Masonic hall was crowded to suffocation Saturday night to enjoy the wind up of the land league fair, which had been booming all week.

CAUGHT BY THE TREMPER.

A Young Man Becomes a Thief from his Employer.

John A. Berkman was arrested on Saturday evening by Marshal Angell and Detective Hazen on the charge of stealing at different times goods to the value of $250, from his employer, Wm. M. Bushman, the dry goods merchant on Douglas street.

FACTS AND FIGURES.

Showing What Has Been Done by the Y. M. C. A. for the Past Year.

The following is the report of the general secretary of the Young Men's Christian Association, Mr. George T. Houser, for the past year. It will be found full of interesting figures and in connection with the address published elsewhere will furnish food for thought for our business men over Sunday.
