SAFETY FROM THE SCARE

One Additional Case of Small Pox in the City.

The Advice from the National Board of Health Regarding Treatment of the Disease.

The recent excitement in this city over the case of small-pox on Jackson street is in great degree abating.

Dr. Leisenring contradicted all of these reports yesterday, and stated that the only victim of the disease was in about the usual condition and the termination of the case is still doubtful.

The next twenty-four hours will probably determine it.

Dr. Leisenring kindly furnishes THE BEE with a bulletin from the national board of health, giving directions regarding the treatment and control of small-pox, from which the following extracts are made:

Whenever it is known that any person is sick with small-pox or varioloid isolation of the individual is promptly and rigidly enforced.

It is probable that the place chosen for the city hall, market house, etc., will be Jefferson square.

Phillips' risk at the foot of Howard street is crowded with jolly skaters every afternoon and evening.

Thirty recruits from Columbus barracks will arrive at Ft. Omaha on Sunday for assignment to the Ninth infantry.

It is announced that the Walsh is now prepared to handle freight between Omaha and St. Louis by the old St. Charles route.

Agent wanted to sell the Improved Singer in this city. Address or call at 1306 Douglas street. W. T. BOSNER.

The Edwin Clifford Dramatic company are stopping at the O. central hotel, where they may be assured of hospitable fare and courteous treatment.

The county commissioners Tuesday adopted a resolution requesting all the daily papers of the city to furnish a sworn statement of their circulation before January 21st.

President Clark, of the board of trade, has appointed the following committee to confer with the railroad companies, in regard to paving: J. E. Boyd, chairman; Herman Kowitz, W. V. Morse, Samuel Burns, Frank Murphy.

There will be preaching at the Saints' chapel, Cass street, west of Sixteenth, Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock, by Elder W. W. Blair, of the Salt Lake mission of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints. All are invited.

A farmer was crossing Coal creek bridge Tuesday with a load of corn, when the mules balked and the wheel left it was precipitated into the bed of the creek, twenty feet below. The wagon was smashed, but the corn, the mules and the farmer escaped unhurt.

An adjourned congregational meeting of the Evangelical Lutheran church will be held on Friday evening in the Swedish Lutheran church on Cass street at 7:30 o'clock. All members are earnestly requested to be present, as business of importance will come before the meeting.

Mayor Boyd has instructed the marshal to immediately enforce the new ordinance regarding the location of stands for express wagons. The stands are as follows: Twelfth, Thirteenth and Fourteenth streets, north of the north line of Dodge street, and Eleventh and Twelfth streets, south of the south line of Harvey street.

The approaching anniversary of the Burns' club of Omaha, the 128th anniversary of the birth of the Scotch poet, occurs January 25th, one week from tonight, at Masonic hall. The interest felt in the occasion is, as usual, great, and the preparations made insure one of the most enjoyable and successful Burns' banquets ever held in Omaha.

Freight Business Handled by the Union Pacific Last Year.

The following is a comparative statement showing the increase in freight business handled by the Union Pacific company during the year 1881.

It appears that during the year 1881 this road handled at Omaha 74,750 cars of west bound freight and 28,896 cars of east bound freight.

This makes a total of 103,646 cars of east and west bound freight handled at Omaha by the Union Pacific during 1881, against 81,177 cars during 1880.

BERKMAN'S BADNESS.

His Wife's Residence in Des Moines Full of Stolen Goods.

He Had, It Seems, Stolen Large Quantities from Des Moines Employers.

A dispatch from Des Moines last night stated that a search of the residence of Mrs. John S. Berkman, wife of the thiefing clerk of W. M. Bushman, who was arrested here a few days ago, disclosed the fact that Berkman had been guilty of purloining goods from his employes in that place as well as in this city.

The goods found on the premises consisted of whole boxes of 8 button kid gloves, bolts of satin plush velvet, ladies' silk hosiery, fans, handkerchiefs, underwear, fancy ribbons, parasols and umbrellas.

Mr. Metcalf was awakened by the cries of his youngest child, which was sleeping with its mother in another bed room.

On returning to the bedroom Mr. Metcalf found a red handkerchief across his wife's face and that it was saturated with chloroform, from the effects of which he is in length with difficulty roused her.

Investigation discovered that a stand, containing some papers, and also Mr. Metcalf's pants, and his own pocket-book and that of his wife had disappeared. He finally found in the coal house everything that was missing, with the exception of about $80, of which the pocket books had been relieved.

It is probable that Mr. Metcalf had been chloroformed, too, and that the handkerchief had been taken off of his face and the other been forgotten.

There is no more hard times. If you will stop spending so much on fine clothes, rich food and style, buy good, healthy food, cheaper and better clothing, get more real and substantial things of life every way, and especially stop the foolish habit of employing expensive, quack doctors or using so much of the vile humbug medicine that does you only harm, but put your trust in this simple, pure remedy, Hop Bitters; that cures always at a trifling cost, and you will see good times and have good health. COUNTING THE SHEKELS.

Business Meeting of the Land League Last Evening.

The Omaha land league held a business meeting last evening in Kuony's hall. There was a good attendance.

The report of the treasurer, Michael Donovan, was received. It indicated that $1,484.75 had been collected from the proceeds of the fair, which amount is exclusive of the money for tickets.

The entire amount will approximate $2,000.

It was voted to send $2,000 to the land league fund. The money will be forwarded this week.

A comprehensive but none the less hearty vote of thanks was tendered to the ladies who assisted during its progress to the A. O. of H. band of music, and to the promoters who officiated each evening during the week.

"TROUGH ON RATS." The thing desired found at last. Ask druggist for "Trough on Rats." It cures rats, mice, roaches, flies, beetles, fleas, etc.

An Explicit Denial. An item appeared in the local columns of THE BEE Monday, taken from an Iowa paper, which stated that another Catholic diocese was to be erected in Iowa, and that the bishops of the province were about to select the priests whose names would be sent to Rome, where the final choice would be made.

We have the very best authority for denying the whole statement. There is not the remotest ground on which to base the statements made by the Iowa paper, and it can be safely said that many years will elapse before it will be necessary to divide Iowa into three dioceses.

Wanted Him Taken Care Of. Kate Hall appeared before Judge Bencke yesterday afternoon and indicated her desire to transact a little business. She said that she was keeping house for a man in South Omaha named Patrick Sharon.

For some time Patrick had been behaving badly, but she had grown decidedly ugly, and she was afraid of him. She alleged that upon several occasions he struck her and had badly maltreated her. She claimed to be afraid of her life and requested that a warrant be issued for his arrest. This was accordingly done, and the prisoner will be arraigned this morning.
