LONG WINDED.

A Protracted and Hard Worked Session of the Council.
The Public Market Matter Comes Up With Two Propositions.
It is Capitol Avenue Against Jefferson Square.
The regular meeting of the council was held last evening, and was fully attended. A large number of residents from North Omaha were in attendance, and manifested great interest in the proceedings.
Councilman McNamara was excused during the early part of the evening on account of illness. The general features of the session were, the settlement of the North Omaha sewer question; the presentation of propositions for a public market place, and the introductions of an ordinance to give on and across certain streets.
COMMUNICATIONS AND PETITIONS.
Mayor Boyd submitted a communication stating that the post-house ground had been abandoned and that a post-house had been erected upon the city farm. He added: "In this connection I desire to thank the Sisters of St. Joseph's hospital for their kindness in sending two of their number to act as nurses at the post-house. In offering their services and the services of others if required, at such a time as this, without remuneration, they have certainly sustained their reputation as 'Sisters of Charity' and acted the part of the Good Samaritan."
City Engineer Rosewater transmitted an acceptance of the sewer contract work of Hugh Murphy & Co. in sewer district No. 2. Referred.
Another communication was received from the mayor that he had approved the ordinance providing for vaccination of the school children; for the granting of permits to drain layers, and for the laying of sidewalks. Filed.
A remonstrance was submitted, signed by the owners of a property in North Omaha that does not provide for beginning at the Missouri river, but praying for early sewerage.
Mr. Herman said that the petition bore many prominent names and he hoped it would receive serious attention. The spot to be sewered has been breeding much disease, and it should be sewered soon. It was referred.
A petition from property owners on Jackson street, east of Ninth street, to grant the U. P. R. Co. the right of way through Jackson street, east of Ninth street, was referred.
A remonstrance from property owners against the passage of an ordinance to grant the right of way in question, declaring that in the opinion of the subscribers the U. P. R. Co. did not need it was referred.
A remonstrance from General Superintendent Holdrege in behalf of the B. M., and O. & N. W. railways against granting the U. P. railway company any right of way privileges on Jackson street between Sixth and Ninth was referred.
A petition from over one hundred property owners to grant the right of way asked by the St. Paul & Omaha railway was referred.
The proposition by Hon. Webster Snyder to build a city hall and market place on Jefferson square, as described in yesterday's Bee, was presented and referred to a special committee.
The application of Hugh Murphy, with bond, was approved.
From Wm. A. Gwyer, agent for a syndicate, proposing to erect a market building on Capitol avenue, between Fourteenth and Fifteenth streets. The scheme is to build a structure to cost $50,000. Referred to the same special committee to which the previous matter of a market house on Jefferson square was referred.
This proposition is that the council designate the center of Capitol avenue from the east side of Fifteenth street to the west side of Eleventh street as a market place; cause all market wagons and wagons with farm produce to concentrate at this place; the fee for market privileges to be ten cents per wagon; a public scale to be erected, the fee of weighing to not exceed ten cents; a lease of ground in the center of Capitol avenue 34 feet wide for a period of fifty years and the buildings constructed thereon to be free from taxation; a building to be constructed, 34x240 feet, two stories high of the value of $50,000, with a clock tower and a bell; the property at the end of fifty years to revert to the city.
The bill of Will H. Riley, for sitting as registrar of the Third ward, and the bill of Everett & Mack for sewer covers, were referred to the committee on claims.
A number of other bills were submitted and referred to the committees on claims, fire, water works and police.
RESOLUTIONS.
McGavock—That the Slavin house be investigated.
McGavock—That the B. & M. be authorized to grade Eighth street. Referred.
McGavock—That the amount of license paid by Slavin for selling liquor be refunded, because the small pox has spoiled his business. Referred to the judiciary.
Baker—That the question of the right to grant a lease of Jefferson square as a market place be referred to the city attorney.
Mr. Kaufman said that the city attorney was away, out of the country, and he did not know what arrangements had been made by him to look after the city's affairs.
Mayor Boyd stated that he knew of General Henderson's leaving the city's business in the hands of his partner Mr. Congdon and, if necessary, had authorized the employment of other legal advice.
Mr. Baker's resolution was adopted.
Hornberger—That the surities on the bond of Messrs. McCauley, &

FATAL SMASH.

The Union Pacific Pay Car Runs Into an East Bound Train.
Two of the Freight Crew Will Probably Die.
An accident occurred yesterday on the Laramie division of the Union Pacific railway, which will probably result fatally to at least two men.
The news was received in this city just before noon, and as General Superintendent Clark left for the west on the noon train, taking the dispatches with him, but meagre particulars can be learned at present.
It appears that Paymaster Josselyn, having completed his trip over the main line and branches, was on his way east, his train, consisting of an engine and car, running as a short section of No. 8, an east bound freight train. When a short distance east of Fort Fred Steele, 124 miles west of Laramie, the pay train ran into No. 8, the caboose and several cars were badly demolished, as was also the engine drawing the pay train, but the pay car was but little injured and its occupants escaped unhurt.
Three men belonging to the crew of No. 8, who were in the caboose, were badly injured and it is supposed that two of them will die. The cause of the accident is not explained.
JUST SO
If Not, Why Not? Omaha's Colossal Market House an Assured Fact.
The Bee's petition for a market house and city hall—a place where the producer and consumer may come together, and where the city may transact its business, has been responded to by one of Omaha's most public spirited and honored citizens.
The following proposition was Monday sent to the city clerk's office by Mr. Webster Snyder:
To the Honorable City Council of the City of Omaha:
In reference to the subject of a market house and city hall, which is at present before your honorable body for consideration, I make the following proposition:
1. If you will give me a fifty years' lease of the block of ground known as "Jefferson Square" at a nominal rental say of $1 per annum, I agree to erect a brick, iron and stone structure, cruciform in shape, running from street to street, two or more stories in height and to cost not less than $150,000.
2. I agree to furnish to the city, rent free, during said term, suitable room for police court, council chamber, city library, city lock-up, board of trade, mayor's office, marshal's office, city attorney's office, city clerk's office, city treasurer's office, and for all other city officials.
3. I agree to keep said building insured for full value and at the expiration of said term to transfer it in fee simple to the city, free of charge.
4. The conduct of the market, except the rentals for stalls, may be under the surveillance of an inspector appointed for the purpose.
5. I do not ask exclusive privileges, but leave the city free to build as many other market houses as it may deem proper.
6. I agree to commence work within six months after the acceptance hereof, and to prosecute such work with all practical expedition.
WEBSTER SNYDER.
OMAHA, Neb., January 30th, 1882.
That Omaha greatly needs a market house of some kind, THE BEE has strenuously urged. That a building devoted to this purpose would be an ornament and feature of our city is equally certain; but that the people could afford to devote so much money to this object, just at a time when sewers, drainage, pavements, grading and other necessary expenses must be incurred, is by no means so certain.
Mr. Snyder's proposition comes at a time when public spirit and individual patriotism are most needed and appreciated.
If "Jefferson Square" was not used for market purposes it would doubtless remain a park. Now, in a city like St. Louis (which, by the way, is a trifle old fogged), where a vast level tract is unrelieved by a single eminence, these breathing places in the heart of a great town may be very useful; but in a city situated like Omaha, where a few minutes' walk will take a person above all the heat and dust of traffic up into a pure, cool atmosphere, their practical value may well be questioned. As to the inquiry as to whether the council has the right to devote "Jefferson Park" to commercial purposes, the criminal mind which it was appropriated to dispose of this inquiry, and it is said that the city council has such a right.
As to Mr. Snyder having too good a thing of it, a careful estimate will show that he must make in the neighborhood of $20,000 per annum by running expenses, insurance, repairs, get back his principal, and receive a fair interest on his investment.
If he makes more than this, why—he deserves it; he's an Omaha man, and his money will be spent in Omaha, giving employment to hundreds of laborers. The people are not getting anything out of it, and it is like a dog in the manger, and prevent some one else from benefiting her.
Woman Suffrage Association.
The annual meeting of the Nebraska Woman Suffrage association takes place at Lincoln Wednesday and Thursday, February 8th and 9th. The afternoon of the 8th and morning of the 9th will be devoted to business. Afternoon of the 9th and evening, addresses and discussions.

THE CITY COURT.

A Batch of Important Cases Disposed of by Judge Beneke.
The "Keno" case, in which Adam Porta was charged with assaulting the favorite dog of Engine Co. No. 3, with a butcher's cleaver was continued over from Monday until yesterday it was settled, the complaint withdrawn and the costs paid by the defendant.
A complaint was sworn out against George Green and Mrs. Weatherford, living in North Omaha, for disturbance of the peace. The whole neighborhood is subpoenaed as witnesses.
A complaint was also filed against Julius Ross for committing a nuisance.
THE BIRD CAUGHT.
Some time since THE BEE gave an account of a man named Connel, who obtained a suit of clothing from a Sixth street tailor, on a forged order on the Union Pacific company. At the time Connel skipped and was not found until Monday. He was arrested on the charge of Wm. Melndrum. Yesterday a compromise was effected between the parties, Mr. Melndrum not wishing to push the prosecution. The penalty for obtaining goods under false pretenses is $100 fine and restitution in double the amount.
ANOTHER CROOK IN THE TOWLS.
Another crook is under arrest in Council Bluffs on the charge of being implicated with Stanley and the gang, some of whom are already in the law's clutches. The specific charge against the present man under arrest—whose name is suppressed by the officers for the present—is that of stealing a watch in Council Bluffs, which was recovered recently from the possession of a woman in this city. The fellow was arrested over the river by McClure several days ago as a suspicious character, and allowed to go upon the promise that he would furnish certain information regarding some burglaries. But he failed to furnish the clues, and so he was gathered in for his own depredateions.
"ROUGH ON RATS."
The thing desired food at last. Ask druggist for "Rough on Rats." It clears out rats, mice, roaches, flies, bed bugs; lice boxes.
MICHAEL STROGOFF.
Haverly's Magnificent Company Returning from the Coast.
A few weeks ago the departure of Haverly's Michael Strogoff company for the Pacific Coast, to open his new California Theatre, was noted.
At that time their manager stopped off in Omaha and took the measurements of the stage of Boyd's new Opera House, with the view of stopping off on their return trip if the same was large enough to accommodate this great spectacular drama. It was then stated that the stage would probably answer all requirements and the hope was held out that the citizens of Omaha would be treated to the rare spectacle.
Monday a special dispatch to THE BEE announced the fact that the company had left San Francisco, in charge of W. H. Strickland, business manager, for Chicago, after one of the most successful engagements ever played on the coast. This would bring the party through Omaha on Friday afternoon, and as the opera house is engaged by the "Fun on the Bristol" party for Friday and Saturday, it is of course evident that Michael Strogoff will be put on the boards to an Omaha audience. They go through without any stop whatever.
An interview with Manager Marsh yesterday developed the fact that he had heard nothing whatever from the company. It was possible, he said, that they would stop off three nights each in Denver and Salt Lake City, in which case it would be nearly two weeks before they reached Omaha. As it is, however, his dates are pretty well filled, as will be seen further on. It seems from this that there is no prospect of seeing this company at present, though Manager Marsh thinks it possible that they will make a tour of the northwestern circuit, starting from Chicago and including the Missouri river circuit.
FUN ON THE BRISTOL.
This famous play comes next on the books at the opera house, appearing Friday and Saturday evenings, and Saturday in matinee, February 3rd and 4th. The Wholesome Intelligencer says: "The opera house was filled last night with a fine audience, anxious to see the first performance of 'Fun on the Bristol.' We will not attempt a description of this comedy, and will only say that it was the very best one we have ever seen in the opera house. The singing was excellent, the stage setting immense, the dressing fine, and the acting most commendable. The singing of Miss Agnes Hallcock, with the 'Fun on the Bristol' Company, last evening, was most excellent."
OTHER ENGAGEMENTS.
On February 9th, 10th and 11th, Mahu's opera company appears at Boyd's, followed on the 13th and 14th by C. H. Smith's Double Uncle Tom's Cabin, in which there are two Uncle Toms, two Evas, two Topsyes, two Lawyer Marks, etc. This will be a rattling good show.
On the 17th and 18th Annie Dickenson appears. She opened her engagement at McVie's theater in Chicago Monday with Hamlet most successfully.
"PL."
Josh Billings says: "There ain't no pi in natural history that has been set more, and that's more off than apple pi, and no medicine can cure indigestion and biliousness but so well as Serravallo's Bile Beans."
Price 50 cents, trial bottles 10 cents. 3-1w
