

THE DAILY BEE

Thursday Morning, Feb 2.

Weather Report
The following observations are taken at the same moment of time at all the stations named.

Table with columns: Station, Barometer, Thermometer, Direction of wind, Force of wind, State of sky.

LOCAL BRIEVITIES

The sale of reserved seats for 'Fun on the Bristol' started off with a big boom this morning.
Two farmer boys who came to the city and got 'a little off', were discharged by Judge Benke yesterday.

THE PEST HOUSE PLAGUE

The Needs of the Good Sisters of Mercy.

Some Statistics on the Value of Vaccination.

One New Case Developed in this City.

The sisters who so nobly volunteered their services at the small pox hospital are doing a good work out there but they themselves are suffering in many ways.

It seems that the hospital on the poor farm is to have no telephone, on account of the expense it would entail on the city.

By the way, the latter, which is a public institution of great importance, should be furnished with a telephone.

A man named Bull, who was employed at the Slayen House, went out to the pest house Tuesday night, having developed a mild case of small pox.

As will be seen in the report of council proceedings, a committee has been appointed to investigate the condition of affairs at the Slayen House, with a view to raising the quarantine.

SIXTY-SIX.

The Number of Liquor Dealers Who Have Taken Out Licenses.

Some New and Old Talk Concerning the Liquor Dealers and Their Permits.

There is the last man who took out a liquor license, said City Clerk Jewett Tuesday, as one of the well-known citizens of the First ward went out of the office.

ROUGHS AT IT AGAIN.

Two Assaults by Rowdies on Peaceable Citizens and a Woman.

Three Bohemians Severely Punished by Street Brigands.

The 'street brigands' have been keeping in the dark with their performances for some weeks, by reason of better surveillance, and until yesterday no act of rowdy outrage has been reported since the assault on Charley Bauer and Peter Foll, on Tenth street.

What will be the effect of opening farmers' alliances or something of the kind in most of the places that are now shut up, and practically the purpose of the ordinance would be destroyed.

ANOTHER ASSAULT

occurred on the corner of Fourteenth and Davenport streets about nine o'clock. Three young men attempted to force their way into a small house occupied by a woman named Simpson.

The general feeling of the saloon men seems to be that the number of dealers will be increased in the spring to about seventy-five, and that this will be the limit.

A PROTEST.

Which is Entered Against the Aggressive Policy of the U. P.

The following is the full text of the petition referred to in the council proceedings granting the ordinance on Jackson street:

FUN ON THE BRISTOL.

The Entertainment at Boyd's Opera House Friday and Saturday.

On Friday and Saturday evenings of this week and in a Saturday afternoon matinee, the 'Fun on the Bristol' party appears at Boyd's Opera House.

And as grounds for this remonstrance these companies deem it proper to call the attention of the city council to a few important facts.

HONOR TO WHOM HONOR IS DUE.

To the Editor of The Omaha Bee.

I desire to return thanks to the following named gentleman for their kindness to me as a missionary to the poor, as well as for their cheerful and liberal donations for the relief of a sick and destitute family on last Monday.

DO NOT BE DECEIVED.

In these times of quack medicine advertising everywhere, it is truly gratifying to find one remedy that is worthy of praise, and which really does as recommended.

CONFERENCE CLOSED.

A Successful Session and a Large Attendance.

The semi-annual conference of the directing board and executive committee of the Swedish Evangelical Lutheran Mission, closed with a sermon at the Academy of Music Tuesday, by the President, Rev. C. A. Bjork.

Jim Stephenson returned yesterday from Washington, where he has been looking after his mail contracts. He states that the capital is as lively as it can be, and that with McBride of Lincoln and one or two gentlemen from this city he managed to see some interesting points. He sat near Gaitheau while the assassin was delivering his two hour speech.

Judge A. H. Church, of The North Platte Nebraska, came up from Lincoln last evening and took the Dever train for home. He says that North Platte is booming. During the building season of 1881 over one hundred dwellings were erected, besides half a dozen brick store buildings and an Old Fellows' hall. Building operations for the coming season will be greater, one item being a new hotel to be put up by an Omaha capitalist, work on which will begin in a few weeks.
