

THE DAILY BEE. Monday Morning, Feb. 6.

Weather Report. (The following observations are taken at the same moment of time at all the stations named.)

LOCAL BRIEFS

If the small pox don't spread all over town, it won't be for lack of exposure to the dreadful contagion. The Plattsmouth jailer was overpowered Saturday morning by three prisoners confined in the jail, who made their escape.

ENO'S ENTANGLEMENT.

Hope Dennis, Alias Carpenter, Plays a Sharp Game on Him.

Mrs. Eno Comes to the Rescue in Good Style.

A Case of Probable Blackmail, Which Will Not Win.

Many of the citizens of Omaha will recall the residence in this city of a woman known as Mrs. J. J. Carpenter. Her reputation was not as white as snow, although she was not a public recruit in the ranks of the demimonde.

Previous to her residence in this city she had lived in "the prettiest town in the state," the county seat of Dodge county, where it appears she owns a house and lot, and she returned to that point on Thursday morning last, on the Denver train, taking up her quarters at the Eno House, the popular hotel of that place.

On the trial the Carpenter woman swore that Eno came to her room, closed and locked the door and transom, hung a silk handkerchief, dregs of wine color over the keyhole, and then made improper advances toward her.

On the other hand Eno swears, and probably with truth, that the story is a lie made up out of whole cloth. He says the woman sent for him and on his going to her room she closed the door herself and opening her trunk took out some trinkets, fancy articles, needles work, etc., and showed them to him, wanting to sell them and take out her pay in board.

The case was still in progress Saturday afternoon when our informant left and the prosecution had summoned ten more witnesses, one of whom, a woman, had it is claimed, heard her cry, so that it is likely that there will be a red hot time. It is the general belief that the whole thing is a blackmailing scheme, and although the prosecuting witness is a rather prepossessing woman, she does not enlist the sympathies of the community in general.

ARRESTED FOR BURGLARY.

A Colored Man Gets Into Trouble Over a Suit of Clothes. On January 25th, while Sam Nash was out of the city, his room in the Baker building, on Farnham street, was burglarized, a suit of clothes and a pair of pants being stolen.

A Pleasant Surprise.

That was indeed a pleasant surprise, planned and executed by the Earnest Workers, for Mr. and Mrs. T. W. T. Richards, last Thursday evening, the twelfth anniversary of their marriage.

A Novel Machine.

Dr. L. B. Kendrick, whose headquarters are at the Omaha Merchants' barn, on Eleventh street, between Harney and Howard streets, has the horse clipping machine that takes the cake.

Children in Arms.

It is suggested to Manager Marsh that the rule of eastern theatres, "Children in arms, $15," be adopted. Everybody in the house last night would have known that one fifteen dollar fee had been paid.

OYSTER SUPPER.

The young peoples' association of the Lutheran church will give an oyster supper on the evening of February 10th, at 1114 Farnham street; tickets 25 cents.

CHOKED TO DEATH.

An Aged Lady Expires Suddenly on Upper Sixteenth Street.

Sheriff Miller Holds an Inquest.

A sad affair occurred at 9:30 a. m. Saturday on Sixteenth street, near the corner of Cass.

CRACKED HIS CRANIUM.

The Sad Fate of a Careless Railroad Laborer.

Frank Pinkosky Tumbles to His Death From a Moving Railroad Car.

A fatal accident occurred on the Omaha, St. Paul & Minneapolis railroad yesterday afternoon, about nine miles north of this city. A hand car with five or six laborers, or section hands, was coming towards the city. At the point at which the accident occurred the grade is very steep and the car was traveling at the rate of twenty miles an hour.

As soon as the car could be stopped the injured man was picked up. It was then discovered by the unfortunate man's horrified companions that his skull was cleft entirely apart, a crack at least an eighth of an inch in width extending from the base of the brain to the frontal bone.

In the absence of Coroner Jacobs, his duties devolved upon Sheriff Miller, who was notified at once of the death, as were also the relatives of the deceased. About 11 o'clock the remains were removed to Undertaker Jacobs' room, where an inquest was set for 2 o'clock.

Too Fastidious.

Some would-be Byrnes look on with disgust at the rhymes of "Electric Oil." But we have the best article known to the world.

SARATOGA.

A Few Notes From the Sweet Singer of the Suburban City.

C. W. Tousey has been re-elected president of the lyceum, with John F. Page secretary, and Jacob Elton, vice-president.

MILITARY ROAD.

A Protest Against the Change Proposed by the County Commissioners.

The people in the west and northwest part of Douglas county are getting their feelings stirred up against a certain change that has been effected on the old military road, leading from Irvington northwesterly.

Two Organs.

Regulate first the stomach, second the liver; especially the first, so as to perform their functions perfectly, and will remove at least nineteen twentieths of all the ills that mankind is heir to, in this or any other climate.

DO NOT BE DECEIVED.

In these times of quack medicine advertisements everywhere, it is truly gratifying to find one remedy that is worthy of praise, and which really does as recommended.

GATHERING THEM IN.

Collecting Testimony for the Grand Jury.

The Work of Securing Evidence in the Koster's Case Still Proceeding Briskly.

The newspapers for several days have contained considerable news—some old, some rehearsed and a little new—concerning the Hammer homicide, and the work of the state officers in collecting testimony to present before the grand jury.

LOG T.

The meeting of the Good Templars, held in the Knights of Honor hall Friday, was largely attended and the secretary's report showed large and substantial gains both as to membership and usefulness.

The Omaha lodge, one year ago, was in a very feeble condition but is now one of the most flourishing in the state.

ROUGH ON RATS.

The thing desired found at last. Ask druggist for "Rough on Rats." It clears out rats, mice, roaches, flies, beetles, etc.

PERSONAL.

Daniel J. Donohue and wife left Friday for Chicago.

E. E. Davis left Friday for Washington, going via the Washakie.

C. F. Goodman returned from Grand Island yesterday morning, having disposed of his drug store in that city.

Capt. G. W. Hollins, formerly city marshal of Omaha and at present an attorney of Pueblo, Col., passed through the city yesterday morning on his way to his home in Council Bluffs.

E. B. Cox, Esq., and wife, nee Miss Freeman, returned Friday from their bridal tour through the east. They have taken up a temporary residence with Mrs. Freeman, the bride's mother.

BOOKER'S AGRICULTURAL.

The best salve in the world for cuts, bruises, sores, ulcers, salt rheum, fever sores, tetter, chapped hands, chilblains, corns and all kinds of skin eruptions. This salve is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction in every case or money returned. Price, 25c per box. For sale by J. W. & McMANON, Omaha.

A Handsome Present.

Tom Lee, of Hastings, Saturday sent down to Mr. Sherman Canfield a handsome bird in the shape of a very valuable bird dog, a beauty, and no mistake. Sherman was absent from home at the time, but returned last night from Marysville, where he has been working with a U. P. engineer corps.

Mr. George Canfield also received yesterday from Hastings a fine horse for sale, which was taken off the cars in the morning, sold for $300, and the money forwarded to the owner by the noon train. Pretty quick work.

A Well-known Wit's Endorsement.

CHICAGO, Ill., May 30, 1881. H. H. WARNER & Co.: Sirs—For several years I have been a sufferer from kidney disease, and never knew what it was to be free from pain until I used your Safe Kidney and Liver Cure. C. H. HARRIS, "Carl Pretzel," 130-1w.

Barney Shannon Heard from Again. B. Shannon deigns it below his notice to answer Patrick Ford, the cur in his reply to the published challenge. Why didn't he accept the challenge? Let him put up or shut up, but he must understand that he can't call my wife and children liars, for I have plenty of proof that he insulted them on the highway. (Signed) B. SHANNON. Third ward war horse, who don't care about Pat Ford's political influence.
