

THE DAILY BEE.

Wednesday Morning, Feb 8.

Weather Report

(The following observations are taken at the same moment of time at all the stations named.)

WAR DEPARTMENT, U. S. SIGNAL SERVICE, OMAHA, February 7, 1882. (1:45 p.m.)

TATIONS.	BuRNEsT	THURSTON	WIND DIRECTION	Force of wind	State of Weather
Den'er.	33	46	S	Light	Clear
Cheyenne.	33	32	-W	Fresh	Clear
Plt. the.	30	37	NW	Light	Clear
Dakota.	30	37	W	Light	Cloudy
Yankton.	30	40	SW	Fresh	Clear
Des Moines.	30,22	36	N	Fresh	Clear
Davenport.	30,20	42	SW	Brisk	Cloudy
St. Paul.	30,17	42	SW	Brisk	Clear
St. Louis.	30,01	34	S	Fresh	Light Wind
Moorhead.	30,30	20	W	Brisk	Clear
Vincent.	30,18	13	S	Fresh	Clear
Bismarck.	30,12	22	SW	Brisk	Cloudy
Sparks.	30,14	33	S	Brisk	Cloudy
Custer.	0,21	27	S	Fresh	Fair
Deadwood.	29,46	32	SW	Brisk	Fair
Sioux City.	3,06	32	SW	Brisk	Cloudy

River frozen.

SCHOOL BREVITIES

Masked ball of the Omaha Turnverein.

Turner Hall Saturday evening.

The Kosters case has been taken up by the grand jury for investigation.

One plain drunk was on the mourners' bench yesterday, and the judge fined him out of town.

Just twenty-three travelling men arrived on last night's train from Omaha.

Lincoln Journal.

Fresh supply of Thurber's No. 5, 6 for 25 cents at Schreiter & Becht's, one door north of Boyd's opera house.

James M. Rogers, a railroad boy, is the happy parent of a bouncing baby boy—44 pounds. Smoke!

The building standing on the lot condemned by the B. & M. R. R. C., will shortly be offered for sale and removal.

Fresh supply of Thurber's No. 5, 6 for 25 cents at Schreiter & Becht's, one door north of Boyd's opera house. 17-51

James Moore, arrested for vagrancy, explained his situation and willingness to work if he could find anything to do and was discharged.

For Sale—Eight thousand feet of lumber, principally sheeting. Empire of J. J. P. Quinn at Whitney's shoe store, Douglaston street.

Lawrence Kinnahan, an employee at the U. P. transfer depot, sustained a painful injury Monday. An iron shaft weighing some 500 pounds rolled on his foot.

The first annual Ball and Stiltfests of the Omaha Lodge Knights of Pythias, No. U. D., will take place at Central Hall this evening and will be a fine affair.

The case of small pox reported in North Omaha proves to be young Pruitt, whose other acts as assistant sexton of Prospect Hill, from which he lived with his father only about a block distant.

Lost—On the west side of Fifteenth street, between Dodge and Farnam, or on the north side of Farnam between 15th and 9th streets, a small gold crucifix. The finder will be rewarded by returning it to THE BEE office.

It seems that Charley McGarvey has gone down to Omaha with the design of depopulating Nebraska to the extent of one of her fair daughters, and increasing the population of Wyoming by one. Time will tell.—(Cheyenne Sun, 5th)

Mr. Julius Trettschke, wholesale dealer in Wines, Liquors and Cigars, 310 South Fifteenth street, is the sole agent for Budweiser Beer, which is put up in cases of one-half dozen and dozen bottles for family use. The Budweiser is the Boss Beer. Free delivery to any part of the city.

John Cameron, who has been in the employ of D. T. Mount and latterly his successor Mr. Welty, in harness making, died at St. Joseph's hospital yesterday. He was a Mason and his body is being held by that order until word can be received from the brother of the deceased, who resides in St. Joseph, Mo.

Thirty-seven new members were received into the Presbyterian church on Sunday morning last, twenty-six by letter from other churches and eleven upon profession of faith. Among the letters were some from Scotland, Connecticut, New York, New Jersey, West Virginia, Michigan, Illinois, Minnesota, Iowa, and places in Nebraska.

Judge Beneke yesterday presided each member of the force with a handsome picture. It is a photograph taken by D. S. Mitchell, of the Bee Hive studio. Upon the card, in the center, is a view of the police headquarters, City Hall, with Judge Beneke on the right and Marshal Angel on the left. Grouped about them are the fourteen members of the police force in uniform, cap and all. It is elegantly finished and the pictures are remarkable likenesses of the originals.

The plan of the new hotel to be erected on Farnam and 10th streets has been received and shows up a splendid five story hotel with 154 feet front and 132 feet in depth. A block of stores equal in height and similar in design to the new hotel will be added by the Lowe estate, completely filling the block on Farnam from 10th to 9th streets. It is stated that Mr. Hanlon has contracted for the pressed brick and lumber to be used, and is about negotiating for the stone, while, McElroy & Son are preparing the working plans.

The funeral of Plunkovsky, the man who was killed on Sunday last, took place at 1 o'clock yesterday from the residence of Frank Koutney, his brother-in-law, on 15th between Pierce and Williams. The deceased was a member of St. John's Benevolent Society and was buried under their auspices, the services taking place at the Church of St. Vincens, on 13th street. There was a large procession of carriages and the members of the society turned out in force, accompanied by the Bohemian band.

The body, spoken of recently as having been held at the Union Pacific transfer depot for over a week for want of transportation charges, is still held there. On the box containing the coffin appears the following: "Body of Wm. G. Mulvay, care of James Fagin, Forty-third street, New York City." The Nonpareil says: We are authorized to state that the body will be taken charge of to-day by the authorities, when the same will be property interred in the Potter's field.

The Young People's association of the Lutheran church will give an oyster supper in the hall in Lytle's block on Friday evening.

The steamer City of Berlin, in which General Manderson and wife sailed for Italy, arrived safely at Liverpool yesterday, after a run of eight days.

The BEE is requested by several ladies to suggest to Capt. Marsh that he instruct the driver of street car No. 2, to attend more closely to his business and not spend so much of his time in tiring at ladies on the street.

The masquerade of the Imperial Club to be given February 16th at Masonic Hall promises to be a grand affair. An elegant supper will be served, and the club have spared no expense or labor to make it a success. Friends of members will be admitted by procuring tickets from the committee. Tickets or any information can be obtained at A. Hospit's Art Gallery.

Mr. John L. Lanktree, of the U. P. bridge department, residing at the corner of 5th and Pacific streets, Monav received a dispatch from his brother, Mr. William Lanktree, Superintendent of Bridges on the Oregon Short Line, announcing the death of his wife, which occurred at Huntington, Canada, at 1 p.m. Sunday. The deceased formerly resided with her husband in this city and was also at one time a resident of Papillion, being well known in both places. She had gone back to her old home on a visit when she was taken with the illness which proved fatal.

PETITIONS AND COMMUNICATIONS.

From the mayor returning several ordinances not approved, on account of imperfection and irregular description of lands referred to. Filed and ordinances referred to the city engineer for correction.

THE B. & M. IN NEBRASKA.

From G. W. Holdrege, general superintendent of the B. & M. in Nebraska, stating that since the previous statement made, it had been discovered that more ground was needed for depot and side track purposes than at first contemplated, and that condemnation proceedings had already been begun on the north half of blocks 178 and 179. The road not more than ever needs the privilege of laying the tracks on Jacksonstreet, which if granted to the U. P. would obstruct them from access to their own property. Referred to committee on sewerage to report.

APPOINTMENT OF APPRAISERS.

By permission a communication from the mayor was read appointing J. H. Beckin, Wm. M. Dwyer and W. J. Kennedy the committee to appraise Farnam street damages. Ap proved.

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES.

On Judiciary Reporting in favor of free billiard tables in licensed saloons. Adopted.

On Judiciary—A majority and minority report on correcting the error in taxing the South Omaha M. E. church property, when said property was of taxable. The majority was to the effect that there was no authority for refunding the money, while the minority report favored the payment as a matter of right. The majority report was adopted.

On Judiciary—Recommended filing certificate of judgment favor E. B. Callahan. Adopted.

On same—Recommending the transfer of certain moneys to the school fund. Adopted.

On same To refund liquor tax paid by Felix Slaven. Adopted.

On streets and grades, reporting in favor granting the B. & M. road the privilege of grading Eighth street from Farnam to Jackson and Howard and Harney east of Ninth. Adopted.

On same, granting extension of culvert across Twentieth street between Pierces and Poppleton. Adopted.

On same, reporting the filling of approach to military bridge.

On public property and improvements, recommending filing of J. D. Her's proposal for purchase of lot 5, block "H" and instructing clerk to advertise for proposals for same. Adopted.

On same, in regard to petition of B. Hass, to rent the hot house in HANSOM PARK,

RECOMMENDING ACCEPTANCE OF CHARGES AGAINST THE CITY MARSHAL.

That he has neglected his duties as prescribed by the ordinances of said city in the following matters, to wit:

1st. In failing to suspend members of the police force guilty of drunkenness.

2d. In allowing a prisoner to escape from custody.

3d. In collecting fines from prostitutes.

DEPUTY MARSHAL MCCLURE.

And we do hereby prefer the following charges against City Marshal Angel and Deputy Marshal McClure. This communication reads as follows.

CHARLES AGAINST THE CITY MARSHAL.

That he has neglected his duties as prescribed by the ordinances of said city in the following matters, to wit:

1st. In failing to suspend members of the police force guilty of drunkenness.

2d. In allowing a prisoner to escape from custody.

3d. In collecting fines from prostitutes.

DEPUTY MARSHAL MCCLURE.

And we do hereby prefer the following charges against E. A. McClure, deputy marshal of the city of Omaha.

1st. That he has been guilty of drunkenness while on duty.

2d. That he has neglected his duties in failing and refusing to obey the orders of the city physician regarding cases of small pox. Referred to committee on police for investigation.

THE SMALL POX.

A communication was received from Dr. P. S. Leisenring, the city physician, giving a detailed report of the small pox cases since the beginning of Washington's birth and Henry Grattan's famous declaration of Irish independence, and a fraternal, international spirit will characterize the occasion. The following committees have been appointed:

Committee of Arrangements—Green rosette John Regan, M. J. McMahon, B. McGinn, Richard Pierce, John Marney.

Reception Committee—Orange Thos. Fallon, G. M. O'Brien, J. L. Nichol, Wm. Gentlemen, Patrick Carroll.

Floor Committee—White John Sheehan, Michael Lee, James McCoyle, Patrick Heaphy, John Price.

ORDER OF DANCING.

Grand march, "Star Spangled Banner."

2. Waltz.

3. Quadrille.

4. Polka.

5. Czardas.

6. Quadrille.

7. Quadrille.

8. Lancers.

9. Cavalier.

10. Mazurka.

11. Quadrille.

12. Schottische.

13. Quadrille.

INTERMISSION.

1. Christians March to Freedom.

Music, "We Are the Mighty."

2. Quadrille.

3. Quadrille.

4. Waltz.

5. Quadrille.

6. Quadrille.

7. Quadrille.

8. Quadrille.

9. Quadrille.

10. Waltz.

11. Quadrille.

12. Waltz.

13. Quadrille.

14. Quadrille.

15. Quadrille.

16. Waltz.

17. Waltz.

18. Waltz.

19. Waltz.

20. Waltz.

21. Waltz.

22. Waltz.

23. Waltz.

24. Waltz.

25. Waltz.

26. Waltz.

27. Waltz.

28. Waltz.

29. Waltz.

30. Waltz.

31. Waltz.

32. Waltz.

33. Waltz.

34. Waltz.

35. Waltz.

36. Waltz.

37. Waltz.

38. Waltz.

39. Waltz.

40. Waltz.

41. Waltz.

42. Waltz.

43. Waltz.