SPRINGS

This weather is calculated to make 'spring fever' epidemic. The supreme court is now in the sixth week of holding court.

A new burglar proof vault is to be built in the Omaha National Bank. The promises of the weather prophets have all come to naught.

A party of six Oregon Short Line surveyors came in from the West Wednesday, their work being completed. One case of drunk and disorderly behavior Judge Benke yesterday, paid $3 and costs. One plain drunk $10.

The water main on Farnam street burst at a point opposite Dewey & Stone's, Wednesday evening, flooding several cellars and basements in the vicinity. A Dodge street dame had her clock worn off by a drunken caller Wednesday evening, the clock thinking it was his coat. It had $32 in the pockets.

Dr. A. Sorel has received his appointment from Governor Nance as registrar for the Third ward of this city, the former registrar, Mr. William H. Riley, having resigned. The auditor of public accounts is very busy with the insurance companies. Each company authorized to do business in the state is required to take out their license this month.

On Monday evening next Smith's double 'Uncle Tom's Cabin' troupe will appear at Boyd's opera house. This is a good troupe, giving a novel entertainment, the leading parts being double. They have with them some elegant scenery. In report of the death of a small pox patient at the pest house Wednesday an unintentional error occurred in designating the victim as from Metz's brewery. No case of small pox has occurred among the employes of that brewery.

It is rumored that a prize fight has been arranged between Barney Shannon and Patrick Ford to take place at an early day on one of the many sand-bars on the river. A large amount of money is staked by the friends of each. A little ten-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Madstrom was buried Wednesday in Prospect Hill cemetery. The child was a niece of Mrs. Frank Walters, and came to this country from Sweden only ten months ago. She died of lung fever.

A young lady in Council Bluffs circulated the report that she had recently become possessed of a 'legacy,' a whole 'stocking full,' and her beaux immediately became so numerous that she was compelled to tell them the joke. She had been vaccinated on one of her lower limbs. The dramatic artists of the Union Catholic library association will produce 'Nan, the Good-to-nothing,' on the evening of the 16th and 17th, at the rooms of the association. The programme will also contain choice selections of the vocal and instrumental music.

A SAD CASE

A Woman Ruined, Deserted and in Trouble. For some time past THE BEE has been in possession of the facts in a most shameful and outrageous case, involving a prominent citizen of Omaha, who would not like to see his name in print in such a connection, especially just at present, as he is a member of one of the juries now in session at the district court.

It appears that some months ago an intelligent, smart and prepossessing young woman was working at her trade on one of our principal streets, having rooms of her own and one or two assistants working for her. She had been married, but was widowed and had one child, a pretty little girl who was adored by all there by all. At length this man, who is credited with many similar acts, got acquainted with the woman, and in some manner led her astray, and it was not long until she found herself in a condition that nearly drove her crazy.

The facts were well concealed, however, and work went on until one morning not a great many weeks ago, when the population of Omaha was increased by one. This was where the trouble began. The girl deserted her and she sent for her seducer, but lay through her sickness all day long without medical attendance. Then she was removed to a room in a private house in South Omaha where she was kept for a time with a scanty supply of fuel and food and with no assistance but that of her little girl, who was then suddenly awakened to the troubles of life. The latter was sent, still goes often to the fellow who caused all the suffering and shame but it is stated that the allowance doled out from time to time has gradually diminished until now the object of it is on the verge of starvation and death, and the little girl has been transformed from a model of neatness and health to a poor, shivering, feeble little waif with no one to look after her.

It is this woman, who so short time ago was prospering, dies from this man's neglect it would look little less than murder, and murder will out. Kindhearted persons have the case in hand, but can do but little for lack of the means which the woman's betrayer could easily furnish. They fully intend, however, to see the woman righted, if it is possible to do so, and hope that she and her children will be better provided for from now on, and that they will not be forced to strong measures.

LAND LEAGUE

The Orator Secured for the Double Anniversary on February 22d. The Land League held its regular weekly meeting last night at Kuony's hall and had a good attendance of members. Several important items of business were disposed of.

The league has secured the promise of Judge Gannan, of Daventry, Iowa, to deliver the motion on February 22nd, the double anniversary of Washington's birth and Grant's famous bill of rights. Judge Gannan is a prominent attorney of Daventry and has been prominently identified with Irish affairs. He was a member of the Chicago convention and chairman of the Irish delegation to that body. It is expected that the occasion will be one of great interest.

THE TREMONT TOUCHED

Pat Callan Robbed of Several Valuable Articles. Wednesday a couple of prothyhard looking individuals went to the Tremont house, corner of Sixteenth street and Capital avenue, and registered, paying for their lodging and breakfasts. They were assigned a room next to that of the clerk, Mr. Pat Callan, who yesterday, on opening up, contrary to his usual custom, left his door unlocked. The men, after eating their breakfasts, departed, and soon after Mr. Callan went up to his room, when he discovered that he had been robbed of a silver watch, revolver, gold ring and a new pair of boots, of the value in all of about $75.

A search was made for the strangers and the proprietor of the Tremont, Mr. Tom Callan, found one of them on Chicago street and took him in. He was searched and nothing found on him, and as he claimed to be entirely unacquainted with his companion of the night before he was discharged. Pat Callan and an officer have gone over to the Bluffs to look for the other individual who is supposed to have carried off the valuables. This thing of robbing boarding houses and hotels is becoming too common, and it needs an example made of one or two to stop it.

FLEMING-DAVIS

Another Happy Couple Mated for Life. The residence of Judge J. H. Sahler and wife, on Thirteenth street, near Douglas, was the scene of a joyous event Wednesday at 9 o'clock, the marriage of Mr. Henry Fleming and Mrs. Alice M. Davis, daughter of the Hon. John H. Sahler. Mr. Fleming, who holds the position of chief clerk in the wholesale drug house of McMahon, Abert & Co., is a young man of pleasing business qualifications, whose sterling address has won for him a host of friends, while Mrs. Davis is a highly accomplished, intellectual and estimable young lady, and has an extensive circle of friends and admirers, who will join THE BEE in hearty congratulation.

MAHN MAKES A MESS

With His Delightful Comic Opera Company at Boyd's Last Night. Whatever was the trouble, it surely was not a lack of merit in the splendid opera company at Boyd's last evening that there was not a crowded house. To unfamiliarity with the opera presented and perhaps because of a desire of many of our music loving citizens to delay attendance until 'Patience,' the great eastern success, should be produced on Saturday, the only moderate attendance may be attributed. Whatever the audience lacked, however, in numbers it made up in appreciation and the opera of 'Donna Juana,' as well as the charming Donna herself, was received with immense enthusiasm.

CONCLUSION OF THE HAMMER HOMICIDE INVESTIGATION—CIVIL BUSINESS

The grand jury concluded the investigation of the Hammer homicide case yesterday, but as yet have made no report. They took up the case of Henry Siert, charged with evading the Slocumb law by selling liquor as the manager of the Douglas County Farmers' association. A number of prominent citizens who went into the 'rooms' of the association and became members—out of curiosity, probably—have unexpectedly been called on to testify. A civil case which has been hanging fire in courts for five years was tried and decided by jury yesterday. The cause is that of Harriet et al. against John Rosink, the Sarty county miller, and was brought to recover money on an injunction bond. The case has been to the supreme court and comes back. The plea of the defence was that when the main suit was settled, as has been heretofore done, the bond question was also settled. The jury returned a verdict for the defence. A. Swartzlander, Esq., appeared for the plaintiffs, and Col. E. F. Smythe for the defendant.

THE CHINESE TERROR SHIRT

A NEW ENTERPRISE. Messrs. J. B. Boyer & Co., formerly of Washington, have leased the large rooms in the new Lytle building on Farnham street, and are introducing a decided novelty in the shirt line. They call it the 'Chinese Terror' because it defies all efforts of the hardest on shirts, to wear them out. The stays have no equal, being an improvement on the ordinary custom made shirt. The firm, although just opened, have taken orders for fifty dozen shirts.

LARGE ORDER OF SEWING MACHINES

Mr. C. W. Canfield, the enterprising overall manufacturer, corner 14th and Harney streets, has ordered delivered immediately, Wheeler & Wilson No. 10, manufacturing machines, of the agency in this city.

NEW BILLIARD PALACE

This morning Messrs. Baldwin & Clark opened a splendid new Billiard Parlor at 1306 Douglas street. It is unquestionably the finest place in town. Everything new thought, and seemingly no expense spared in fitting up the establishment. Chapman & Gore's goods only will stock the billiard table. Clark formerly kept the saloon on Thirteenth street, on the site of the new Omaha National bank building. feb-4-5t

GETTING POPULAR

Although opened only two months ago, the Opera House Clothing store is rapidly gaining popularity by low prices and good goods. The stock is entirely new, and sold at a cash price strictly on price. 'Marked in plain figures' on every article, all are examined before going on. J. P. LEBAN, 217 S. 15th st., Omaha, Jan. 23, Feb. 4, 8, 11.

SPRINGS

This weather is calculated to make 'spring fever' epidemic. The supreme court is now in the sixth week of holding court. A new burglar proof vault is to be built in the Omaha National Bank. The promises of the weather prophets have all come to naught. A party of six Oregon Short Line surveyors came in from the West Wednesday, their work being completed. One case of drunk and disorderly behavior Judge Benke yesterday, paid $3 and costs. One plain drunk $10. The water main on Farnam street burst at a point opposite Dewey & Stone's, Wednesday evening, flooding several cellars and basements in the vicinity. A Dodge street dame had her clock worn off by a drunken caller Wednesday evening, the clock thinking it was his coat. It had $32 in the pockets. Dr. A. Sorel has received his appointment from Governor Nance as registrar for the Third ward of this city, the former registrar, Mr. William H. Riley, having resigned. The auditor of public accounts is very busy with the insurance companies. Each company authorized to do business in the state is required to take out their license this month. On Monday evening next Smith's double 'Uncle Tom's Cabin' troupe will appear at Boyd's opera house. This is a good troupe, giving a novel entertainment, the leading parts being double. They have with them some elegant scenery. In report of the death of a small pox patient at the pest house Wednesday an unintentional error occurred in designating the victim as from Metz's brewery. No case of small pox has occurred among the employes of that brewery. It is rumored that a prize fight has been arranged between Barney Shannon and Patrick Ford to take place at an early day on one of the many sand-bars on the river. A large amount of money is staked by the friends of each. A little ten-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Madstrom was buried Wednesday in Prospect Hill cemetery. The child was a niece of Mrs. Frank Walters, and came to this country from Sweden only ten months ago. She died of lung fever.

The programme will also contain choice selections of the vocal and instrumental music. Three prize school boys went through this city yesterday morning on their way westward. They came from Pottawatomie county, Iowa, and are bound for the Pacific slope. The party comprised thirteen persons, among whom there were four men. They appeared to relish the prospect of a two thousand mile ride. The Young People's Association of the Lutheran Church will give an order supper in the Bill Lytle's block on Farnam between Eleventh and Twelfth, this (Friday) evening from 8 till 9, to which they invite the public. The charge for supper will be 25 cents. The proceeds are to be devoted towards furnishing the new church to be built on Sixteenth and Harney.

A couple of the women subpoenaed as witnesses in the Koster case with a couple of young men present at the court house on the same business, waiting away the time in the witness' waiting room, Wednesday, while waiting for their turn, with a game of cards, much to the disgust of those who witnessed the exhibition of disregard for the commonest decencies of their position. Neither the gravity of the case nor the dignity of the court could suffice to make them decorous. The firm of O'Brien & Macaulay, sewer contractors, have learned through their attorney, made arrangements to complete the portion of the South Omaha creek sewer early in the spring. They will commence by the middle of April if not sooner, and would begin now but a handful of squalls. They still have one hundred working days in which to fill their contract and the idea of interference from the City Council never occurred to them. They claim that the contract is entirely valid and binding and they propose to maintain their rights and fill their obligations to the letter.
